

Benjamin D'Israeli—Benjamin of Israel. If to-day you were to call over the representative names in all departments of human genius and industry, you would find that a vast number of them are the names of Jews. The Jew is coming to the front along all the masterful lines of life. He has a polyglot tongue. If you seek the man who speaks in many languages besides his own, you will find him in a Jew. He is entering into the political as well as the business arena. Alfred Dreyfus, a Jew, a soldier in the French army, was unjustly condemned by the French government. The Jews of the world got together, put their hands upon the assets of France, entered into the legislative halls and said: "Bring that man back from Devil's Island, give him a new trial, declare him innocent, reinstate and honor him." France heard the demand and did as she was bidden, even at the peril of a revolution and a divided country.

The Jew did that, the Jew of the twentieth century.

He has an almost insane thirst for knowledge.

The night schools in the great cities are filled with Jews. Some of our great universities are crowded with them. The first Rhodes' scholarship was captured by a Jew. They seek knowledge because it is the high road to power. Obeying a mighty impulse they do not understand, they are seeking for power,
