II. The Dog and His Master

The dog is the delight of the poor man's hovel and the rich man's mansion. Faithfully he follows his master who tramps the dusty roadside, and sits proudly upon the cushioned seat of the millionaire's de luxe machine.

Wealth, caste, social distinction are all one to him; he is content and useful in every station to which assigned by fate.

Disguise does not deceive him; paint, tinsel, silk and jewels are no more to him than tatters, rags, worn shoes or ragged hat, but it is what these things cover, the man, who wins his affection or dislike.

But he knows the just from the unjust, the kind from the unkind, the charitable from the uncharitable, the true from the false, the man from the hypocrite. He is considerate, courteous, chivalrous.

With devoted strength he has rescued his master from a watery grave and dragged a child from an angry fire.

Over bleak and frozen mountains he has carried food and drink and brought assistance to the wounded and those in dire distress.

And in return he asks but a little consideration and a few kind words.

"Never yet the dog our country fed, Betrayed the kindness or forgot the bread."

—H. B. Haines, in Cattle Pato.

TOO EXPENSIVE

Advertising space is too expensive to admit of our telling here why we guarantee total abstainers who insure with us more for their money than is guaranteed by any other Company or Society granting Life Insurance.

Our business is of the highest class and our reserves are on the strongest basis required by law.

Any desired information will be sent on receipt of a postal card giving address or letter of inquiry addressed—
