

The hulless oats	94	Is the quality of our potato degenerating?	149	The weather and the crops	68	Kerosene for borers	53
The ringbone	216	Jottings on February	43	The Western Fair	212	Larch bark for protecting trees	222
Thorough culture in the Channel Islands	94	July on the farm	127	The yield of our food staples that we get and the yield that we might get	146	Liquid grafting wax	79
To prevent cows sucking themselves	55	June on the farm	106	Tobacco from the potato field	186	Mixing soil around trees	222
Visit to the Centennial Exhibition	176	Line breeding	45	Tobacco raising in Canada	42	Mulching in the fruit	114
Weighing cattle by measurement	26	Mangolds for stock	226	Use of Dynamite on the farm	187	Notes from Vick's Floral Guide	78
Wheat information	176	May on the farm	88	Vegetable garden in April	67	Notes on the garden	99
White Australian oats	216	Mild weather	21	Visit to the Centennial Exhibition	145	Orchard grass	79
White swede turnip	129	Millet for soiling hay	126	Visit to the Centennial No. 2	165	"	223
Wild mustard	26	Monetary affairs	1	What to buy in the cheapest markets!	106	Old and new apple orchards	14
Winter feed for horses	76	More Canadian enterprise	128	What it costs to fatten cattle	66	Old strawberry plantations	158
EDITORIAL.—
A diversity of manures	23	Notice to subscribers	225	Onions	235	Onions	235
Advice to young men	228	Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition	167	Phylloxera	138	Rapid growth of timber trees in Massachusetts	115
A great dairy enterprise	107	November on the farm	210	Planting nut-bearing trees	234	Referring to the pear blight	178
Agricultural prospects in England	21	October on the farm	187	Poison ivy	139	Removing stumps	35
Alarming spread of Trichinosis in the Western States	2	Office receipts for October	188	Pots for forced flowers	52	Rustic garden ornaments	139
An open winter	21	On the migrations of vegetable life	147	Professor Wilson on bone as a fertilizer	14	Salt for cabbage	139
A present to every subscriber	109	Orchard and Garden	42	Prospects of fruit in the U. S.	139	Seasonable hints	34
April on the farm	67	" " " " "	66	Protecting against frost	234	Setting strawberry plants	199
Are potatoes poisonous?	166	" " " " "	66	Pruning fruit trees	178	Shaping the tops of trees	235
A review of the shorthorn sales of '75	21	" " " " "	86	Smoke for carcalio	115	Sowing garden seeds	98
August on the farm	147	" " " " "	107	Sulphur for grape mildew	52	The apple-tree border	78
Australia a market for Canadian produce	186	" " " " "	126	The black fungus on apples	223	The borer	222
A word about weeds at the close of the season	186	" " " " "	148	The canker worm	158	The canker worm	115
Beet culture	210	" " " " "	167	The Centennial—the display of fruit	223	The cooling moth	53
Breeding farm horses	21	" " " " "	188	The culture of tomatoes	140	The currant worm	178
Breeding horses	45	Our markets in England	186	The destruction of humming birds	115	The destruction of heat	199
Canada and the United States	149	Our pea crop	69	The English cabbage butterfly	114	The elderberry	140
Canadian barley	166	Our second visit to the Centennial	228	The farmers' familiar foe	158	The flower show—an English florist at the Centennial	139
Canadian barley in the U. S.	43	Paraffine as an insect destroyer	146	The forests of the world	222	The forest of the world	222
Canadian cattle for English markets	168	Patent rights	109	The imported currant borer	114	The onion family	99
Canadian horses in England	146	Patent rights	125	The phylloxera or vine louse	159	The timber supply question of the Dominion of Canada and the United States of America	178
Canadian sugar	66	Planting trees	186	Send the produce of your farm to market on foot	227	The useful work of insects	222
Cattle feeding	226	Poisoning effects of wild mustard	22	September on the farm	166	The white grub	199
Caution—patent rights, &c.	212	Potato crop of 1876	127	Should our grain crop be more exclusively wheat?	2	Thinning fruits and its benefits	158
Centennial Exhibition notes	105	Prize for one new subscriber	225	Spring wheat	212	Tomatoes	140
Cheese factories	67	Protection vs. free trade	68	Stock registers	69	Training tomatoes	139
Cheese factories	44	Provincial Exhibition	188	Summer culture of root crops	226	Transplanting evergreens	53
Chemistry of the fattening process	168	Provincial Exhibition 1877	209	English oak trees	78	Transplanting trees	98
Competitors in the wheat market	107	Provincial plowing match	230	Eucalyptus globulus	139	Treatment of small fruit	115
Crops prospect	128	Railways and agricultural progress	213	Flower and kitchen garden	114	Turpentine and kerosene for cut worms and crows	115
Did the foot and mouth disease make its appearance in Canada?	165	Reclamation of eleven thousand acres of moor land	226	Flower pots	115	Twig blight	115
Diseases among the hogs	2	Regular Sorgo	85	Forest planting in France	198	Value of road dust	98
Disease of the wheat—rust	166	Rotation of crops	85	Fruit growing in Ontario	53	Value of timber	35
Disease of wheat—smut	167	Seed report—sorgum	225	Fruit trees	14	Value of trees in towns	35
Draining	43	Seeds	41	Fruit	223	Verbenas from seed	35
Early maturity of improved livestock	41	Seed wheat	165	Grape mildew	52	White willow hedges	195
Editorial notes	185, 188	Send the produce of your farm to market on foot	227	Grape rot	52	Wire worms	119
Emigration	107	September on the farm	166	Grow more currants	178	Wood ashes for apple trees	159
English and American cattle markets	227	Should our grain crop be more exclusively wheat?	2	Hardy flowering shrubs	198	ILLUSTRATIONS.—
Evergreen trees	107	Spring wheat	212	Hawthorn hedges	139	Airdrie Duchess 2nd	112
Extensive injury to turnips and other manured crops	127	The Colorado potato beetle	128	" Hide-bound " trees	222	Boiler for farmers and dairymen	115
Fancy shorthorns	42	The corn crop of 1875 not profitable	24	Hints on fruit culture	178	Clydesdale horses	8
Flax growing in America	106	The crops	149	How do you make cider wine?	222
Fostering home industry	87	The crop reports	187	How to promote the hardiness of plants	52
Fourteen millions of dollars in silver coin	87	The culture of beans	88	Insects	158
Gang ploughs	167	The farmer's aids in contending with destructive insects	146
Growing flax for export	147	The great shorthorn sales	125
Guelph—The Agricultural College, F. W. Stone's farm, &c.	105	The hardy palm	209
Hints to dairymen	24	The Indians	149
" " " " "	44	The Indians to enjoy the privileges of British subjects	65
" " " " "	68	The legislature and farmers	65
" " " " "	108	The Maryland Agricultural College	23
" " " " "	128	The Potato crop of 1876	210
" " " " "	148	The produce of our dairies	22
" " " " "	211	The railway and agriculture	22
Hints to Dairymen, No. 10	227	The rose the queen of flowers	178
Importation of crude material	87	The Sherbrooke Meat Company	126
Impoverished soil	3	The tulip	69
		The weather	21				