C. M. B. A.

A United Canada.

The Canadian membership will this week read with pleasure the important pronounce-ment of His Grace the Archbishop of Montreal, wherein he fully recognizes the Grand Council of Canada, and advises a union of C. M. B. A. forces throughout the country. This will, we hope, end the Quebec difficulty. Further efforts to maintain the existence of a Grand Council in Quebec working in conjunction with the Supreme Council and apart from the Grand Council of Canada would, in view of the Archbishop's decision, be a viola-tion of the initial principle upon which the association was founded. It will be noticed that His Grace does not wish to deny to individuals the right to continue their financial and fraternal relations with the Supreme body; and in this he has, we think, acted most wisely. For the sake of harmony, both present and future, it is well that this should be so, and if any of our Canadian brothers will be made to feel happier and more secure in American pastures we may bid them good luck and allow them to depart in peace. There is now a bright future in store for Canada's Grand Council. All bickerings should cease—all the bitterness of the past should be forgotten—and an onward march the order of the day from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

It would be well were our brothers in all parts of the country to take into considera-tion the advisability of forming, at as early a date as may be deemed advisable, Provincial and Territorial Councils, all working under the Grand Council of Canada. It must be patent to all, we think, that this course should bring strength and prosperity to the whole body at a much more rapid rate than now prevails. We all know that the Grand Council of Canada, as at present constituted, is a most unwieldly body. The expenses connected with the meetings have mounted up into the thousands, and the per capita tax falls far short of supplying the demand thus made upon it. From the financial point of view alone a change will become necessary, unless the membership take the other alternative and increase, perhaps double, the per capita payments. The formation of subsidiary bodies in the different Provinces and Terri-tories would effect a great saving in this regard; and, besides, local self-government would, we surmise, give more satisfaction than the present system could ever be expected to give. We would be glad to hear from branches and individual members or this question.

Archbishop Fabre's Decision.

Montreal Star, April 20.

The Ontario Legislature passed an Act in 1892 to provide that in the case of all assessment associations which were connected with supreme bodies in any country outside of Canada, there should be a separation financially: that is, that the moneys or assessments collected in Canada should not be sent out of the country. To meet this legislation the Grand Council of Canada of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Council of the United States, at its convention in Hamilton, passed a resolution by an almost unanimeus vote to petition the Supreme Council for financial separation, and appointed a committee for that purpose to confer with the Supreme Council who were in session assembled at Montreal last year. After two days' deliberation of both committees they presented a joint report recommending financial separation, with jurisdiction for the Grand Council of Canada over the whole Dominion, which was adopted, only two dissenting. An agreement was then drawn up and signed by both the Supreme and Grand Council efficiers, it being understood that whenever the majority of the C. M. B. A members in any province desired to organize a Grand Provincial Council under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Council of the United States, they should be given permission to do so. Some members in this province subsequently decided to ask for a Grand Provincial Council, and upon representations being made to the Supreme President, that officer, acting under the belief that a majority of the members desired it, granted the desired permission, and such a Council was accordingly established in December last. The Grand Council of Canada protested against this, on the ground that the secessionists had not the legal majority necessary. Previous to this Archbishop Walsh, of Toronto, had issued a letter recommending the membership in Canada to the difficulty. The Supreme Council of the United States, or whether they wished to remain majority was determined on.

His Grace has just forwarded his decision to the Supreme Recorder, and addressed the to the Supreme Recorder, and addressed the following letter to the members of the C. M. B. A. in the Province of Quebec:

Archbishop's Palace, Montreal, April 18, 1803. To the Members of the C. M. B. A. in the Province of Quebec:

On the 8th February last the Supreme Trustees of the C. M. B. A. held a meeting in Montreal and had an interview with me for the purpose of settling the difficulties which had arisen in your Association, and to decide if a Grand Council should be granted to the Province of Quebec, or if the agreement accepted by the Supreme Council and the Grand Council of Canada was to be adhered to. It was decided that the Supreme Council would send their Supreme Deputy into the province to ascertain what was the desire of the majority; that he would report to Supreme Recorder C J. Hickey, who would, himself, send the report to manufler seal or the Supreme Council of Canada, and that they defire to remain fully affiliated with said Grand Council of Chanda.

I therefore albeit to the letter I addressed to the members on November 29 last. I fully recognize the Grand Council of Canada.

Should some members desire to remain under the immediate jurisdiction of the Supreme Council, if they consider it to be in their interest to or 8c, I do not wish to interfere; but associated in the members of the C. THE RITUAL OF THE P. P. A.

Behold, how glorious it is to be relieved from the presence of a mental darkness, grouping we know not whether! My friends, it is one of the purposes of this Order to awaken the citizens of this country to the fact that they are blindly allowing the papal power to gain absolute control of our educational institutions and Provincial and general government. Even now we are in bondage through the terrible influence which the Roman Church wields over this continent. Let it be your duty to assist us in bringing all to a knowledge of the danger which menances our free institutions.

(Candidate facing Vice-President. Here may follow extempore speech by Vice-President.)

Vice-President — Sergeant-at-Arms, you

(Here the altar service is first given) (Here the altar service is first given)

President—Place your right hand on the assumed emblem of the Roman Catholic church, your left hand upon the Book of your faith, and repeat after me: I hereby denounce Roman Catholicism. I hereby denounce the Pope, sitting at Rome or elsewhere. I denounce his priests and emissaries and the diabolical work of the Roman Catholic Church, and I hereby pledge myself to the cause of Protestantism to the end, CLOSING.

President—Secretary of State, what tidings haveyou from the Department of State?

Secretary of State — Mr. President, the State has suffered at the hands of dishonest and disreputable men, who have attained their high position by imposing upon the credulity of a trusting people, but they are becoming aroused to the fact and now the halls of State are becoming purified and the unworthy law-makers are being set aside by the great will of the people; but still we want more honor, honesty and manhood in the high positions of State.

President—Chaplain, what cheer from the Church?

Chaplain — The light of the dawn has begun to beam upon the children of men, and my brethren can now see more clearly through the darkness that has unfolded their vision as in a cloud; error and blind superstition are being secttered by intelligence, and a knowledge of the light that illumes the pathway of the truth is fast leading to a full understanding of the symbols, dogmas and the creeds of an ancient mythology. Rome no longer, as of old, in the New World controls the free action of mind and conscience; but the fettered intellect is casting off its shackles, and declares a freedom to live with God and not an oppressive and arrogant priesthood.

President—All hall the glad tidings! And be made to rejoice, rather than going about mourning all their days because they sough and found it not perfect. Mr. Vice-President, heard you not the glad tidings from State, Church, and the Place of Justice? What will you that we do to show our appreciation of these tast-coming changes?

Vice-President — Mr. President, wisdom suggests that we be not flattered by the outward show of a reformation; and being instrumental in bringing it about, we feel a pride, and it puffs us up and we become vain. Let us commune with Deity and ask guidance, light and protection.

President—To your devotions, Friends

President—To your devotions, Friends

Chaplain—Most Wise Designer and Maker of all that is, give us wisdom to understand aright the things we should do, guide us by Thy silent counsel as we go forth from this place to mingle with the pretenders of Thy love, protect us from the evil influences of our inborn passions, give us light to discern the true method to acquire that which we seek, be ever present with us in our daily walk and place Thy finger as a lock to secrecy upon our lips, that no word may escape us to the injury of the cause we have so carnestly espoused; ever guide our footsteps by the pillow of honest thought and our actions by the knowledge of our best, sober judgment, and may all our lives be an honor to this cause and acceptable to Thee and manifested by Thy approving smile of success. Amen.

FINAL CHARGE OF PRESIDENT.

Final Charge of President.

Place your right hand on your heart, repeat your names and remain silent.

Now you are about to retire from this sacred chamber, but before you go give me a solemn and binding obligation not to make known to any person in the world not a member in good standing in this Order, anything you may have heard or seen here to-night. All repeat, please:

To all of which I do solemnly promise and vow, so help me God.

Amen! Amen! Amen!

From the New York Tribune.

For some time there has been an increasing number of stories published in the newspapers of New York City, beiling of marvellous cures of various diseases. So remarkable are many of the stories in their nature, that much doubt has been aroused in the minds of the masses as to their authenticity. If they are true into the property of the physician of York and other large cities, and his case has created widespread interest.

The reporter next called on Mr. Robert W. Smith, a member of the firm of Marchal & Smith. Mr. Smith was found at his desk busily engaged, but when the reporter mentioned Mr. L'Hommedieu's name, and stated the nature of his call, Mr. Smith the cherfuly gave the following information with but little questioning on the part of the reporter.

"I have known Mr. George L'Hommedieu for twenty years and always found him a most estimable gentleman, a business man of great energy. He became connected with our firm as secretary in 1870, and attended strictly to his office duies until 1870, and attended strictly to his office duies until 1870, and attended strictly to his office duies until 1870, and attended strictly to his office duies until 1870, and attended strictly to his office down with his trouble. I distinctly recall the day when he was taken with his first spasm, and we was taken with his first spasm, and we was the stricken with his first spasm, and we was his fortiest in business affairs that he had in charge. As the diseases advanced he was obliged to succumb and reluctantly gave up his office work. From that time on his sufferings were almost incredible, and yet, so great was his fortitude, that he bore them without a murmur. I know that he tried various physicians and be states that he was finally discharged from the Manhattan Hospital, and told that he was in the last stages of locomtor ataxis and was brothy of Welles about September last, though not regularly, for like imyself, he had very little faith in proprietary medidines, and was his improvement that he was entrely converted and commenced to take the pills as directed. The last time I saw Mr. L'Hommedieu he had gained the use of his limbs to such an extent that he could walk up stairs with the help of his wife, and is now doing much important work for us at his home."

When asked to make affidavit to the story he smiled, but expressed his perfect willingness to do so, if it would induce any poor sufferer to Golow the same road that lead Mr. L'Hommedieu to relief. After securing the affidavit of Mr. Smith, the reporter called on Mr. A. C. James, who has offices and warerooms in the same building. Mr. James has known Mr. L'Hommedieu for a number of years, and was able to verify all the above facts.

"The last time I saw Mr. L'Hommedieu, which was two months ago," said Mr. James, "he was able to walk with his wife's assistance. This I consider remarkable, for I remember when he had to be carried from one chair to another. I was one of those who helped to suspend him with the arrangement made by Dr. Sayre, and I never knew anyone to suffer more than he did at that time. I understand that Mr. I Hommedieu has taken nothing but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills since last September, he was improved rapidly since he commenced their use, and I believe his condition is due to their good qualities.

Still on investigation bent, the reporter interviewed one of the leading wholesale drug dealers of New York City, and elicited the following facts about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale Pale. They are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. of Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., a firm of unquestioned reliability. Pink Pills are not looked upon as a patent medicine, but rather as a prescription. An analysis of their properties show that they contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfalling specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus dance, sclatica, neuralgia, rhumatism, nervous headache, the after effects
