St. Joseph's Court, No. 370, held their regu-lar meeting on Thursday, June 15, the same being largely attended. Rev J. J. McEntee, Court Chaplain, and members of sister courts were present.

The meeting opened promptly on time.

A communication was received from H. S.

Thiele instructing the court to elect their delegate to state and provincial convention, delegate to state and provincial convention, with credentials enclosed for the court to manifest to the same their approbation of choice.

A communication from Bro. R. J. Howorth, Rec. Sec., bearing his resignation, regretting that pressing duties in business pursuits prevented him from attending the court meetings regularly. Bro. M. F. Mogan was appointed his successor for the balance of term by the C. R. Bro. Mogan, who has already officiated in this capacity and displayed his fitness in the past, will have the assistance and confidence of the members in his arduous duties. Six applications were received, and two at the previous meeting.

The excursion committee reported holding their annual picnic at Peterborough on the 17th July. Tickets good to return on 19th. Under the Good of the Order Rey. Father McEntee eulogized St. Joseph's Court in a lengthy manner for the able assistance rendered to the parish, and the sister Courts likewise. They have always responded in large numbers—St. Paul's church as wel', Their talent provided was in a great measure the attracting figure which made each a financial success, and also the determined efforts they are making in the coming event, to attend St. Joseph's church in a body on June 13th, when the new pipe organ will be blessed, followed with grand musical Vespers and a sermon by Vicar General McCann. The event having taken place the people of Leslieville will long remember it. The church was crowded to excess. When the news was circulated that Miss Lemaitre, the accomplished organist, and such rare vocalists as Mon, T. F. Marcier, Mrs. Shea, Miss Carroll, Bro. Ode, and Messrs. Tommey, Warde, Forbes, Anglin, and Tumpane, St. Joseph's church would be filled.

Courts St. Lee, Sacred Heart and St. Joseph's formed on the church lawn and entered in a body, and from the number of members wearing badges it would appear to be a Forester's congregation. This is indeed bearing testimony to Father McEntee's enunciation of which he has not yet an op portunity of paying our Court a organ in her usual efficient style.

Many strangers from neighboring parishes were present, and one and all agreed in saying that the scenes throughout the ceremonies were both unique and picturesque and long to be remembered.

In the afternoon His Lordship, accompanied by the above mentioned clergy and the Rev. Father Brohman of Formosa, drove to Hanover to bless the new church. Near the exhibition grounds they were met by the members of the Hanover band, who played some very excellent selections on the route to the church. After the blessing of the church, Father Brohman preached a very eloquent sermon in German. After this an address of welcome was read by Mr. Flanagan in the name of the congregation. The text of the address was as follows:

To His Lordship the Right Rev. Thomas Joseph Dowling, Bishop of Hamilton:

Joseph Dowling, Bishop of Hamilton:

May it please your Lordship—Actuated by feelings of sincerest pleasure and devotion, we come forward to bid your Lordship a most hearty welcome on the auspicous oc casion of the dedication of the little edifice we have erected to the honor and glory of the Most High and for the salvation of souls.

Our warmest thanks are due to your Lordship, for honoring us with your presence today, and to bless our church in person, especially, when we consider the many arduous duties devolving continually upon you at this duties devolving continually upon you at this season of the year.
We have learned from our faithful and beloved pastor of the particular interest you have taken and the solicitude you have always felt in establishing this new mission.

Lordship many years to come to labor for the salvation of your spiritual children.

In conclusion, we beg to assure Your Lord ship that we will always endeavor to be good and obedient children and in order that we may be strengthened in the performance of our duties we now beg Your Lordship's Episcopal blessing upon ourselves and families.

His Lordship responded and was listened to with marked attention, especially by a large number of non-Carholics who were present. In his remarks His Lordship said that the church was the place to seek truth and light, and although it was but small yet it was like the grains of austard which although small now, when full grown the birds of the heavens would come and rest in its branches. They could come here and be come instructed in Catholic doctrine. He counselled them not to quarrel and fight about religious matters, but to love each other, as such quarrels will lead to no good results anyway.

In November, 1896, by request of His Lordship, the hall above the Post printing office was rented and on Nov. 15 the first Mass was said therein, and now the Catholics have every reaching recard its completion and blessing to day by His Lordship, with feelings of triumph and devotion. New Church at Balgonie.

The history of the world is marked by successive epochs which serve as milestones in the progressive journey of the human raction its infancy, down through the centurity to the present time. tom its infancy, down through the centuries to the present time. In like manner individual nations and smaller communities of menhave their well-defined periods which act as landmarks in their social, religious, and political history. The 17th of June marked such an epoch in the annals of the German Catholic settlement in the Balgonie district. The first German Catholic settlement in the Balgonie district and in a short time a modest little church was erected, where, by the ministrations of successive priests, the scarifice of the clean oblation was offered to the Most High. But this building soon became inadequate for the needs of a fast growing population, and last year the zealous and devoted pastor, Father Zerbach, conceived the project of erecting a church which would be spacious enough to meet the much-needed requirements, and at the same time a fitting temple of the living God.

For the execution of such a work money was needed. The good priest took on his own shoulders the arduous task of travelling about the country soliciting contributions for the laudable undertaking. Generous and liberal was the response from Protestant and Catholic alike, so much so that it surpassed the Revered Father's most sangulus expectations. In March of the present year the contract for the ergetion of the sacred edifice was awarded Mr. Clark, of Regima. And on the lith of June. Despite the fact that the weather in the morning proved disagreeable and threatening, a large number of people assembled to witness and participate in the ceremonies. At 11 o'clock Mass was commenced in the old church, with Rev. Father Huggonard, OM. I. of Lebret Mission, as celebrant. An instruct ive sermon appropriate to the feast and the occasion, was preached, in the German language, by Rev. Father Zerbach, who by the way is a graduate of the University of Bunn, and a scholar of uncommon attainments. After Mass a procession of the Blessed Sacrament was carried by Father Huggonard, OM. I. of Lebret Mission, as celebrant. An instructive sermon appr

On the occasion of his first visit to the Convent of la Congregation de Notre Dame, Gloncester street, Mgr. Merry del Val, the Papal Delegate, stated that he would again address the pupils at some future time. Friday evening, 17th June, he fulfilled his promise.

The purils were assembled in the large music hall of the institution when His Excellency entered and took his seat on a dais placed there for him. He was attended by Rev. Father Antoine, the chaplain, Father Tampiere, his secretary, and a large number of other priests. He was received with a burst of music on violins, mandolins, harps and planos, by the pupils. The scene was very beautiful. The young ladies, dressed in white, were seated around, while the hall was tastenly decorated. The proceedings commenced with the presentation of a beautiful bruque by little Miss Alice Pelletier. This was followed by a dialogue between some half dozen of the younger children. A song and chorus followed, by a grand instrumental performance on eight pianos, was succeeded by a song of adieu. Next came the presentation of an address in French by Miss Mongenais, and one in English by Miss Britton, of New York. Another song and chorus was given, when Father Antoine, in the name of the pupils, thanked His Excellency for all the kindness be had shown them, especially in coming every_morning, while in the city, to offer the Holy Sacrifice. He also announced that His Excellency had decided on donating two medals for excellence in essays on the Christian Doctrine, and requested the recipients—Miss Major, for that in French, and Miss Glassmacner, for that in English—to come forward. His Excellency, having presented the much esteemed prizes to the winners, replied eloquently in French and English. He thanked them for the good wishes they had expressed towards him, and assured them that he fully reciprocated. There was one point in their addresses on which he differed from them—they wished him "good bye," but he had an idea that they would yet meet frequently. Their allusion to their "convent nome" touched him, for he also had come to look upon the Gloucester street convent as his home, one boved pastor of the particular interest you have taken and the solicitude you have always felt in establishing this new mission. It cannot be but pleasing to your Lordship to be informed that over forty-five children are entered on the list of our Sunday school — a proof that we endeavor to benefit by the opportunity offered to us and that the new church will undoubtedly be instrumental in doing much good.

Words cannot but feebly express our gratified for the singular marks of your tatherly solicitude bestowed upon us.

The Reverend Mother then called forward the seven graduatiog pupils, but this did not meet the wishes of His Excellency; each and every one of the pupils, even to the smallest tot, came forward. To each he had a pleasant word to say, and in some instances quite a little chat.

The distribution of prizes took place on the following Monday morning, His Grave the Archbishop presiding.

Mission in Grafton.

Mission given here last week by two Redemptorist Fathers was the renewal of the mission given last year in the month of June. It is needless to attempt to express the joy that filled the hearts of the people of St. Mary's parish, Grafton, when their good pastor announced that the same Fathers would return to give the mission. The order for the exercises throughout the week were: Mass at $30, a sermon in the evening at 7 o'clock, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Rev. Father Hanley preached a very impressive sermon on Tuesday evening on the 'Final Judgement.' Wednesday evening Father Kloudar preached on 'Evernity.' A number of other very instructive sermons were given. On Friday evening, at 7 o'clock, was the "Atonement Service," when about thirty sweet faced children dressed in white, with wreaths on their heads, marched through the church, in honor of the Blessed Sacrament, which was exposed on the altar, surrounded by flowers and lighted tapers. Then came Benediction, after which the children marched through and out of the children marched through and instructive lectures, and we thank Almighty God who has given us the special blessing of enjoying a renewal of the mission. We also feel grateful to our good pastor, Rev. Father Larkin, who has been so zeahous for our eternal welfare. He has spent many years laboring in our midst, and we daily pray to God to spare him for many more years; and when he shall have passed from time to eternity may the Divine Master greet him with a sweet "well done."

PORT STANLEY, ONTARIO.

(ESTABLISHED 27 YEARS.)

WAS built in 1870, and is now open for the sesson. People who have heretofore gone to the expense and inconvenience of long and wearisome trips to the seaside, and other distant summer resorts, are gradually awakening to the fact that they have near their own doors one of the pretitest spots on the Continent, where they can obtain all the advantages of a summer outing—lovely climste. bathing bosting and sailing—without the discomerris of railway travel. The Fraser House is situated most pleasantly upon a leftly hill overlooking Lake Erie from a height of 150 feet, and commanding a magnificent view of the besulfful scenery surrounding it on every side.

The handsome dining-room of "The Fraser" has a seating capacity for 200 guests. The proprietor recently erected an addition to the House, which will increase the accommodation by ten rooms. The bar room has been removed from the hotel, and a barber shop and other accessories have been provided.

Three Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway trains leave the Fort daily, connecting at London and a lat. Thomas, running east, west and north to all important points.
