Boy Character.

It is the greatest delusion in the world for a boy to get the idea that his life is of no consequence, and that the character of it will not be noticed. A manly, truthful boy will shine like a star in any community. A boy may possess as much of noble character as a man. He may so speak and live the truth that there shall be no discount on his word. And there are such noble, Christian boys, and wider and deeper than they are apt to think is their influence. They are the king boys among their fellows, having an immense influence for good, and loved and respected because of the simple fact of living the truth.—Child's Paper.

A BUSINESS REPORT.—Mr. James McCarty, of Rounds & McCarty's Collecting Bureau, Drumbo, Ont., states:—"Have used several bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters for kidney disorder and find it a wonderful remedy. Previously I had been taking pills, thinking I had liver complaint, but now I am quite well and will always praise B.B.B."

Make Haste.

Some years ago, when travelling through Palestine, we were nearly benighted. We left Hebron in the morning, and had come leisurely along, passing through Bethlehem, and visiting the gardens of Solomon on the way. The sun began to get lower, we caught our first glance of Jerusalem, and on reaching the plain of Rephaim we had to increase our speed. Directly the sun set, and we saw a man come out from the Jaffa gate and stand upon a small hillock, shouting with all his might, as if forewarning of danger, and gesticulating wildly, as if to call our attention to what he was announcing.

"What is the man saying?" we asked our guide.

"He is shouting 'Yellah, Yellah!'"

"What does that mean?"

"Come along! come along!"

We now found we were about to be shut out, and this messenger had come to warn us that the gate was about to be closed. We made haste, as we did not relish the thought of being kept all night outside the walls. We were just in time; no more. We entered and the gate closed behind us. "The door was shut." Matt. xxv. 10.

The lesson we learned was, "Make haste!"—a lesson which some of us never forgot. So near being shut out of the heavenly Jerusalem! What if we were to be not almost but altogether shut out of the heavenly city.

No time to Jose! Too much lost already! A few days after a similar incident occurred which furnished another lesson. We had been wandering all afternoon on the Mount of Olives, not heeding the time. But at last we saw the sun going down. We hastened to the nearest gate, on the east side of the city. It was closed. There was no admittance. We hastened around the walls to the other gate, which we knew to be open a little longer. When we reached it we found ourselves excluded. We were told, however, that possibly the gatekeeper might relent and let us in. Alas! The key had gone to the governor.

What were we to do? It was suggested that a piece of silver might soften the guard's heart and bring the keys back again. So we thrust a suitable coin in a key-hole and waited. In a few minutes the gate opened, we passed in. The bribe had prevailed. But our admission was against law.

The lesson for us was, "Be in time." The gate stands open. The way is plain. Lose not a moment. Upon one lost moment eternity hinges. "It is no trifle to lose eternity." Eternal joy, eternal sorrow—such is the alternative.

TORMENTS OF TOOTHACHE.—I can recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a sure cure for toothache. I suffered for several days, then I heated my cheek and rubbed the Yellow Oil on it and was immediately relieved. Mrs. David G. Arnett, Russel, Man.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Croup, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.
