My Dear Canon Morley,
To promote an intelligent knowledge of the Christian Year; to encourage the systematic study of the Holy Scriptures; and to support sound Christian teaching in our homes as an antidote to what is questionable, not to say false—are objects which I am confident will commend themselves to all right-minded Churchmen.

I therefore warmly approve of "The Christian Year Calendar," which is published with these objects in view, and heartily commend it for use among our people, believing that it is calculated to do great good.

I am,
Very faithfully yours,
