WASHINGTON OREGON BRITISH COLUMBIA

A vacation this winter will be the best investment you ever made. There is no better way in which you can spend your money. It will give you more vigor and vitality for the work that is to come. It will renew your health. It will lengthen your life.

The change in the altitude from the high levels of your home to the sea level, from the hard, keen, intense cold to the temperate climate on the Pacific Coast, warmed by the Japan Current, with flowers blooming the winter through and the residents enjoying automobiling and boat travel every month in the year, will be a lively delight.

Simplicity is the keynote of the prevailing styles, and the forecast for the future. The slender and youthful silhouette is much in favor. One of the most noteworthy features, however, is the popularity of the flare pockets, made either as a part of the costume or detachable. Set-in sleeves will be seen a great deal, and there is an extensive use of buttons for trimming. In this connection also, the new cross stitch embroidery seems to have caught the feminine fancy, and is being used to very good effect in a variety of ways. There is a cheerful use of all colors in the designs.
