Mercantile Summary.

THE MONTREAL Herald gives the following as the imports for the first two months of this and last year as below:—1870, $2,602,257; 1871, $3,393,329. Increase, $791,072.

SUGARS, COFFEES, SPICES, &c., are to be imported direct into Montreal from Sumatra and Java during the present year; and some prominent houses in Batavia and other East India ports are represented in that city already.

MR. JOHN HOGG, of Guelph, whose peculiar ability and character have made him one of the most widely known, as well as most successful, dry goods men in Canada, has lately retired from retail business, selling out to Messrs. Chance & Williamson, and is said to be going into banking and real estate business.
