

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS.

Rules and Regulations of House.

36. That a motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

37. That a motion that the Chairman leave the Chair, shall always be in order, and shall take place of any other motion.

38. That no motion shall be debated or put, unless the same be in writing and seconded. When a motion is seconded, it shall be read in English and in French by the Speaker, if he is master of the two languages; if not, the Speaker shall read in either of the the two languages most familiar to him; and the reading in the other language shall be at the table by the Clerk or his Deputy, before debate.

39. That after a motion is read by the Speaker, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the House; but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment, with permission of the House.

40. That when a question is under debate, no motion shall be received unless to amend it, or commit it, or to postpone it to a certain day, or for the previous question, or for adjournment.

41. That the Previous Question, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendment and debate of the main question; and shall be in the following words: "Shall the main Question be now put?"

42. That a motion for commitment, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendment of the main question.

43. That all Questions, whether in Committee or in the House, shall be put in the order they are moved.

44. That no motion prefaced by any preamble, shall be admitted in this House.

45. That every motion when seconded, ought to be received and read by the Speaker, except in the cases provided for by the Rules of this House.

46. That it shall be the duty of the Speaker, whenever he shall conceive that a motion which he has received and read, may be contrary to the Rules or Privileges of this House, to apprize the House thereof immediately, before the question on such motion is put, and to cite the Rule which is applicable to the case.

AID AND SUPPLY.

47. That if any motion be made in the House for any Public Aid, Subsidy Duty, or Charge upon the people, the consideration and debate thereof shall not presently be entered upon, but adjourned till such further day as the House shall think fit to appoint; and then it shall be referred to a Committee of the whole House, and their opinion to be reported before any Resolution or Vote of the House do pass thereupon.

48. That all Aids and Supplies granted to Her Majesty by the Legislature of Canada, are the sole gift of the Assembly of this Province, and all Bills for granting such Aids and Supplies ought to begin with the Assembly, as it is the undoubted right of the Assembly to direct, limit, and appoint, in all such Bills, the ends, purposes, considerations, conditions, limitations and qualifications of such Grants, which are not alterable by the Legislative Council.

49. That in order to expedite the business of the Legislature, the House should not insist on the privilege claimed and exercised by them, of laying aside Bills sent from the Legislative Council, because they impose pecuniary penalties; nor of laying aside amendments made by the Legislative Council, because they introduce into or alter pe-
