DESERONTO

Mr. Chas. Blake left on Wednesday for Snow Road to spend the summer on his place.

Mr. Russell, Belleville, is spending a few days in town.

Mr. R. O. Abrams, ill for the past three weeks with diphtheria, is able to be about again, also his daughter, Mary, who had the misfortune to break her arm.

Mr. W. O. Ravin returned to his former employment with the C.N.R. on Monday, after spending a few weeks at home recovering from injuries received at Newcastle.

Mrs. Fred H. Henry, Master of Belleville, have returned home after spending two weeks with Mrs. Henry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Lage. Mr. Henry was in town over the week end.

On Wednesday last, 14th instant, the residents of Deseronto learned with regret of the death of Miss Tillie Maxwell. Miss Maxwell was born in Deseronto, the daughter of Alexander and Jean Maxwell, both of whom predeceased her by some years.

A pleasant evening was spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Huffman, Empey Hill, when about fifty of their friends and neighbors gathered at their home to bid them farewell before their departure to their new home in Deseronto, and presented them with two beautiful chairs and an address.—The Post.

CAMPBELLFORD

Word was received last week that 228319, Pte. Wm. Walter Bateson, of town, who in October last was reported missing, believed killed, is now officially reported killed in action on Sept. 26.

Pte. Albert Prior returned from overseas last Friday evening, having been wounded in the knee while on active service. He is looking well and expects to fully recover. He was on active service in France for five months.

Pte. James Blue, who has three sons overseas, has also returned home.

Mr. W. O. Ravin returned to his former employment with the C.N.R. on Monday, after spending a few weeks at home recovering from injuries received at Newcastle.

The name of E. O'Brien, of Actinolite, appeared on the Saturday casualty list as missing.

Lieut. Burgener has arrived and assumed his duties as local recruiting officer. We extend to him a hearty welcome to town.

Robt. Elliott Jr. reports seeing a number of robins on Tuesday. This is the first of the season brought to our notice.

While Neal Mills, of Northbrook, was driving home from a neighbor's with his gasoline sawing outfit, the engine upset of the sleigh and he was caught beneath it. Aid was quickly summoned, but when he was gotten out life was extinct. The deceased was 40 years of age and leaves a widow, one son and an adopted daughter to mourn his loss.

Capt. Wallace, who has been in charge of local recruiting for the past five months, and has been transferred to Campbellford, was given a surprise by the boys of the Tweed platoon and local members of the Artillery on Friday last. While engaged at his office duties at his desk in the drill hall, the boys formed a circle around him and Sergt. Deeks, on behalf of the local platoon, and Gen. Brown, on behalf of the Artillery, presented him with an Auto-strop shaving set with leather case as a token of the esteem in which he was held by the boys in khaki. The captain was taken completely by surprise and in responding, he assured the boys that the gift would be highly prized by him, and he would ever cherish in memory the many pleasant associations of the days spent in Tweed.

Our readers who had the pleasure of reading a number of letters appearing in these columns from Pte. A. Z. Tufts, somewhere in France, will regret to learn that he has been officially reported missing, the following message having been received by his father on Friday last:—Ottawa, Mar. 16, 1917.

Robt. Tufts, Tweed. Sincerely regret to inform you 737673 Pte. Arthur Zimmerman Tufts, Infantry, officially reported missing March 1. Further information when received. (Signed) Officer in charge Records.—The Advocate.

Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms without any inconvenience to the child, and so effectively that they are not ejected in their entirety, but are ground up and pass away through the bowels with the excreta. They thoroughly cleanse the stomach and bowels and leave them in a condition not favorable to worms and there will be no revival of the pests.

MARMORA

Rev. F. Woodger, of Bowmanville who is visiting his son, preached in the Methodist church on Sunday evening. His discourse was listened to with deep interest and appreciation by all present.

Commencing next Monday, the Coe Hill train is supposed to leave Trenton at 2.05 p.m., arriving at Marmora at 4.45 o'clock. This will be a big improvement, as the mail from the south should be received in time to be distributed before supper.

Practices are being held regularly for a play which will be presented under the auspices of the Women's Institute about the end of April.

Mr. Geo. Blakely, one of the oldest residents of Marmora Twp., passed away at the home of his son, John, on Monday, Mar. 19. Deceased was eighty years of age. The funeral took place yesterday, service being conducted by Rev. C.M. Harris.

Lieut. H. R. Pearce, of town, has been appointed recruiting officer of the 230th Forestry Batt. for Hastings County. We understand that he has already secured a number of men, and there should be little difficulty in securing 100 men, from this country.

Mr. Joseph Brock, who has been a resident of the village for two or three years, has joined the "back to the land" movement. With the other members of his family, he moved back to his farm near Blairton, on Tuesday. The farming industry in Canada, and during the present year, the production of more food is a vital one to Canada and the Empire.

Mr. H. R. Pearce, of town, has received a commission as Lieutenant in the 230th Forestry Batt., which is being recruited at present. He will be the recruiting officer for Hastings County and is already busily engaged in securing men for this important work. Lieut. Pearce's practical experience in the lumbering business should make him a very efficient officer in this branch of the service, and a very desirable officer to serve under.

The Special Act to consolidate the village debt will have to be held over until the next session of the legislature, owing to the time being too short to meet the necessary requirements for this session. However, as a result of the preliminary steps having been taken, the Council will be warranted in not raising the rate any higher than last year.

Mr. Thomas Mateer is being congratulated on his appointment as manager of a smelting and refining plant which Mr. M. J. O'Brien is erecting in connection with his mining interests in Missouri. The mine produces lead, copper, cobalt and nickel, and operations will be carried on on a large scale. Mr. Mateer returned last week from a visit to the new plant. He expects to assume his new duties about May 1, and will move to his new home about that time.—The Herald.

STIRLING

Mrs. R. Christie is confined to the house with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Saylor visited friends in Belleville this week.

Miss Lella Cooney left for Niagara Falls this week.

Gunner C. F. Hubbell, of Cobourg Heavy Battery, spent the week-end with his parents at Anson.

Mr. John Holgate of Bowmanville, and Mr. Arthur Demorest, of Hughson, Sask., visited at the home of the latter's brother, Chas. Demorest, on Sunday last.

On March 16, Rawdon Branch Red Cross workers packed at Mrs. Tho. Montgomery's, 384 pairs of socks and 54 shirts. The sewing bee was very successful, the ladies placing all but six blocks of a log cabin quilt. Mrs. Montgomery served dinner, and lunch at tea time. A collection amounting to 6.95 was taken up.

Miss Helen Morton, of Stirling, has been awarded a prize in the Daily News contest. The prize stories of the kindness circle were on "Scatter seeds of kindness."

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scott, daughter Ida and son Wilmet, who came from Canada, and are spending the winter in Daytona, autoed down to Ft. Lauderdale Saturday last, to visit with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Mitchell. Mr. Scott was so favorably impressed with Ft. Lauderdale and the many natural advantages surrounding it and the remarkably balmy atmosphere, that he has purchased a lot on Las Olas Blvd. and will have a residence completed by early next fall and will occupy the same. They left Wednesday for Daytona. (Ft. Lauderdale, U.S.A., Enterprise.) Mrs. Scott is a sister of Mrs. B. O. Lott.—The Leader.

PICTON

Two residents of the county were fined in the Police Court last week for stealing towels.

The County Council was in session on Tuesday and Wednesday. The County Sunday School Convention held in the Main St. Church on Thursday last was well attended.

Rev. E. W. Halpeny, of Toronto, Provincial Sunday School Secretary, was the principal speaker.

Mr. Lindley B. Calnan, of Toronto University, spent last week at home, returning to Toronto on Monday to enlist with the University Training Corps.

Mrs. Geo. Hubbs, Mary St., left on Friday for Belleville to help nurse her little grandson who is ill.

Mr. Leland Boulter, who has been attending the University in Toronto, has signed up with the 75th Battery of Kingston.

Mr. S. Musson, who formerly resided on the Kyle farm, Glenora Rd., but who for the last year has been a resident of Toronto, has again taken up his residence on the farm.

Mrs. Edith Brooks, of Milford, has received word that her son, Pte. Percy Brooks, has been severely wounded in the elbow and hand and is now in the hospital in France.

Sergt. Jim Vandewater writes from London that all the physically fit men of the pay office are being sent to the front. Two drafts have already gone and as soon as the pay office can be reorganized, every fit man will be in the trenches.

A resident of the county was recently fined $200 and costs by Police Magistrate Williams for giving liquor to another party in a public place. Another resident was fined $10 and costs for being intoxicated at the same time and place.

Inspector Horston's report of his recent visit to the Collegiate, which has been received by the Board, is a most satisfactory document to all those who are interested in this splendid institution. Special praise is given to the Principal, Mr. W. H. Kerfoot, for his management of the school.

There died at Waupoos, on March 20, 1917, David Grooms Wattam in the 70th year of his age. The deceased was the son of Mary and William Wattam, who were among the early settlers in North Marysburg. He was one of a family of eight, four sons and four daughters. His living brothers are: Dr. Geo. Wattam, Warren, Minn., and Joseph Wattam, Waupoos. His sisters are: Mrs. Jos. Ackerman, Mrs. (Rev.) Chas. Coon, Mrs. Fritz (deceased) and Mrs. Wm. Wainsley, Waupoos. David Wattam married Clarissa Palen, daughter of Lewis Palen, by whom he had seven children, five sons and two daughters:—William, Willoson, N.D.; Lewis, Billington, Wash. D.C.; Thomas, Toronto, Herbert and Percy, Waupoos, Mabel Claire, a professional nurse, Buffalo General Hospital, and Mrs. Claude Hurbert, Cressy. Mr. Wattam was a staunch reformer in politics and a Methodist in belief.

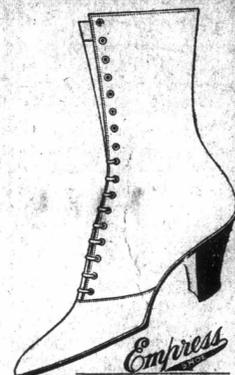

Big Island lost one of its oldest residents last week when Chas. Peck sr. passed away at the age of seventy eight years, after a fortnight's illness. His whole life with the exception of two years at Shannonville, has been spent on Big Island. Being a frequent attendee at the Belleville, Picton and Deseronto markets for fifty years or more, he was widely known and his tall figure made him conspicuous in any assembly. His wife, most devoted and helpful, survives him. Mr. Peck leaves three sons: W. A., on the farm; J. E., Calgary; Harry Lorenzo, Sask.; and two daughters: Mrs. S. G. Sills, Belleville and Mrs. C. Glendinning, Sask.; and a brother, George, Big Island.—The Gazette.

Mrs. (Capt.) William Dulmage, Ontario St., had the misfortune to fall on Friday morning and fracture her ankle. Captain Dulmage is steadily improving in health.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lochlin, of Melville, Ont., announce the engagement of their second daughter, Eva Lois, to Robert A. Hendricks, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Smith Hendricks of York Rd., Trenton, the marriage to take place the second week in April.

Mr. Everett Scott is preparing to take care of passenger traffic between Picton and Belleville. He will run a motor bus service, connecting with the Grand Trunk. It is proposed to make two trips each week day, leaving Picton at 8.30 a.m. and 1.30 p.m., and Belleville at 11.30 a.m. and 3.30 p.m. These hours will give convenient connection with the 11 o'clock G.T. train and with the International Ltd. at 3 o'clock. The service will start about the first of April. A cross-country run over the county roads of Prince Edward in an up-to-date motor vehicle will add greatly to the traveller's enjoyment.—The Times.
