Speaks at Banquet

Speaking at a banquet, Sir Joseph Ward in referring to the great importance of the Imperial Defence Conference, said: "We could not do other than recognize the efforts that are being made by other powerful countries, and one in particular, and though one could not take any exception to such nation trying to rise in the world. and protect its interests, yet we must join hands with our own people in the conviction that we ought not to be, caught napping or allow any nation to get alongside of them. The British Empire should be so powerful that there should be no question of any other power obtaining the supremacy of the sea, which was so important to us and the empire.
