Extraordinary Waist Sale!

All Newly Made Lingerie Waists at Less Than Maker's Prices

How would you like to go through a large waist factory and buy your Blouses at less than factory prices? The idea appeals to you. Here's identically the same proposition, minus the factory. We had the opportunity of cleaning the surplus production from one of the largest Canadian waist manufacturers at much less than the cost of making, and we took the lot, which are completed and ready for your choosing, so on SATURDAY MORNING we inaugurate a Waist event that has no parallel. Only two prices, the greatest possible variety of style and unbeatable value—all these are in store for the woman who gets down to Northway's on Saturday. It will be to your advantage to let home duties wait in order to reap the big savings. To avoid confusion we have arranged only two prices. These Waists are being made and will be ready for Saturday morning.

Lawsuit Goes On

ness said she was rather amused than annoyed, but did not think it was a nice letter for a clergyman to write.

Lady Sackville denied that she had ever been called "the earthquake" by the servants. That name, she said, had been invented by the Scotts.

Attorney Smith then referred to a letter from Scott to Lady Sackville in which he said she should not be hard up with $125 a week for her household and $125 for her other expenses, and he asked whether she had written to Scott that she was hard up.

Witness replied that she supposed she must have done so, adding: "I looked upon him like a father. He was helping my father.

Asked when she had formed the idea that Scott had "dangled before our weary eyes for ten years" his fortune, a quotation from a letter read in court yesterday, witness said: "About two years before Scott's death, when he always wanted to be with me. I got so sick of it, you know. You do get sick of it when you are told every day that he is going to change his will."

Canteen Makes Money.

The sergeants of the 25th Brant Dragoons met in the armories last night and wound up business in connection with the recent camp at Niagara. The dry canteen which the sergeants ran at camp netted them over $80, which amount will be placed in the bank.

CLOUDS OF TULLE SWATHE THE NEWEST HATS

Tulle is excessively fashionable as a millinery trimming, and yards and yards of it are whirled about that crowns, pleated into bands and cabuchons or tied in huge, airy bows. The hat pictured is of dark grey hemp, with an under-brim facing of grey velvet and dull blue taffeta in flange effect. Two layers of tulle are puffed over the top of the hat, blue underneath and grey outside; and the pleated band encircling the base of the crown is also of the two colors used in combination.

Society Notes

Mr. E. Croft of Guelph is the guest of Brantford friends.

Mrs. Wm. Foulds of Toronto, is the guest of Mrs. T. Foster, Pearl St. The usual fortnightly dance will be held at the Golf club on Saturday evening.

Mrs. T. W. Standing, 78 William street, and family, are holidaying at Grimsby Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Anson Girvin of Saskatoon, Sask., spent Thursday with friends in the city.

Fireman Ostrander, of Brantford, paid a visit yesterday to the Guelph firemen.—Guelph Herald.

Miss Alice Gunther will spend her holidays with her grandmother, Mrs. Robinson, Burlington Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Duncan (Imperial Bank), are spending a couple of weeks with friends in Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Harrison, and daughter Eleanor of Buffalo, are visiting Sergt.-Major and Mrs. Oxtoby.

Sir William and Lady Van Horne are entertaining a house party at their summer home "Covenhoeve" at Andrews-by-the-Sea.

It may not be generally known, but twenty-five miles before one reaches Winnipeg, lies the splendid stock farm of Sir William Van Horne—the President of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Herds of beautiful cattle of finest breed—model stables—barns, etc.; acres of splendid farm land—the ranch house itself a commodious picturesque building, where the family of the magnate, often spend weeks and months at a time at this home on the prairie, in company with Sir William himself, who enjoys the relaxation after the strenuous Montreal life, where he is such a busy and much sought after man.

Mr. Herman Smith and family, spent their holidays in Brantford.—Galt Reporter.

"LADIES' DAY" AT THE GOLF CLUB

A delightful afternoon was spent by the lady golfers at the Brantford Golf and Country Club on Thursday afternoon—"Tea" first being served with Mrs. Harry Hewitt and Miss Cora Jones as hostesses—then the playing off for the "ball" put up for contest and eventually won by Mrs. Dave Gibson at the conclusion of a close game with eight entries.

Laid at Rest

The Late Mr. Tilley. All that was mortal of the late Joseph Tilley, one of the best known and most highly respected residents of Brantford, was laid peacefully to rest yesterday afternoon in Greenwood cemetery. At the residence many friends gathered to pay their last respects to the deceased, and Rev. C. W. Rose conducted very impressive services. The Oddfellows attended in body and marched to the grave, where the order took charge of the service. The pallbearers were Messrs. R. T. Whitlock, W. Cochrane, W. Dawson, A. Ball, A. Osborne, R. Brooks. The following beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the late Mr. Tilley was held and to the sympathy expressed for the bereaved family: Family, pillow; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tilley (Toronto); sprays, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tilley (Brantford), Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tilley (Toronto), Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Tilley (Toronto), Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Robb (Walkerville), Miss King and Mr. McCaig, (Toronto) Gore lodge, I. O. O. F., (wreath), Court Glen No. 9, C. O. F., (wreath), Master Painters (wreath), old employees, broken family ladder; Park church Mission Circle, spray; Mrs. J. Coyell and family, gates ajar; Mrs. McCann and family, cross; Mr. E. Heyd, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. G. Lambden and family, wreath; sprays—A Friend; Mr. and Mrs. Charlton, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Read, Mr. and Mrs. Durham and family, Mr. F. and W. A. Hollinrake, Mr. and Mrs. J. Temple, Mrs. Wellington Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gale, Mr. Walter Mair, Mr. and Mrs. Halberstadt, Mrs. and Miss Feast, Mr. and Mrs. F. Mathers, Mr. and Miss Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. McRobb, Mr. and Mrs. B. Mismor, Mrs. Lena Turry, Mr. and Mrs. A. Emmons, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. T. Stewart.

Flower Day. Flower day was observed in Calvary Baptist church on Sunday, and was very successful. The pulpit and platform were profusely decorated with the most beautiful flowers, while from the arch over the baptistry, hung five baskets of flowers, making a very striking display, and showing the good taste of those who had that part of the work in hand. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Bowyer, B.A., preached an illustrated sermon to the scholars, and the choir sang an appropriate anthem. In the evening the text spoken from was, "Sir, we would see Jesus." Mr. H. Green sang a solo and the choir also rendered an anthem.

CHILDREN WERE KNOCKED DOWN

A Case of Reckless Motor Car Driving in Pittsburg To-Day.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 4.—Several hundred school children assembling on the streets of West Pittsburg, preparing for the school parade, part of the day's festivities, were scattered by an uncontrolled automobile that plunged through the crowd, hurling the little forms to either side, until it crashed against some stone steps and was wrecked.

When anything like order could be restored, one lifeless little body was picked up. It was that of John Greenawald, aged four. Twelve others ranging in age from 8 to 11 were thrown helpless in the street, while frantic mothers were tearing the clothes from the vanishing, aged 35, the driver of the car.

The home of a physician, almost directly at the scene of the tragedy, was turned into a temporary hospital, where the children were taken and their injuries dressed. Yuengling was arrested.

FOUR BANDITS HELD UP TRAIN

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 4.—Four bandits held up southbound passenger train No. 1, on the Illinois Central Railroad, south of Batesville, Miss., early to-day, awed the train and locomotive crews with weapons, blew open the safe in the express car and ransacked the mail packages, then escaped. None of the passengers were molested because the bandits compelled the locomotive crew to detach the mail, express and baggage cars and run them some distance from the passenger coaches.

After they finished their work in the mail car, the robbers ran the locomotive to Enid, Miss., and fled to the open country. Bloodhounds were placed on their trail, and a few hours after the robbery a big posse was in pursuit. Express officials here say the robbers did not secure over $500. Four charges of dynamite were used, and the explosions blew out one side of the express car and completely demolished the safe.

The bandits carried away fifty pieces of registered mail. Train No. 1 usually carries a heavy mail from Chicago and St. Louis to New Orleans, but postoffice officials stated the mail was light on this run.

PIANO RECITAL BY THE PUPILS OF MR. WHITE

The pupils of Mr. G. C. White held their closing recitals yesterday afternoon and evening at H. Judson Smith and Co's Music Hall. Despite the intense heat the hall was well filled with a very attentive and appreciative audience at both recitals, who listened to well chosen and varied programs.

In the afternoon the juniors showed keen appreciation of the compositions they played, displaying a true, singing style of touch, and musical expression. At the senior recital a more difficult and classic program was given in which the pupils played with great assurance, and gave a masterly interpretation, and a thorough understanding of the different compositions performed. A noteworthy fact was the delicate touch in the lighter numbers which showed great contrast to the full rich tone brought out in heavier numbers.

A bright and interesting feature of the evening were two vocal numbers artistically given by Miss Butler. It was announced that the four pupils who recently tried their musical examination of the Toronto University were successful in passing high standing. Great credit is due Mr. White for the high standing his pupils have attained, and yesterday's recitals only go to show the careful training and painstaking efforts on his part.

The programs were as follows: Junior Recital Program. Piano solos, Marion Moyer, Livingston Chipman, Lillian Unger, Edna Jones, Essie Edwards; piano duet, Miss Evelyn Symons and G. C. White; piano solos, Phyllis Moore, Jim Wedlake, Doris Small, Wilson Babcock; Grace MacIntosh, Marjorie Johnson, Dorothy Brown, Harold Vansickle, Gertrude Ingley; Clarice Morris; Ethel Pickett, Martha Ingley, Kathleen Smith.

Senior Recital Program. Piano duet, Miss Irene Turnbull and G. C. White; piano solos, Miss Violet Cox, Miss Evelyn Holling, Miss Velma Burrill; Vocal solo, Miss Agnes Butler; piano solos, Miss Erma Coyne, Miss Melene Davidson; Mrs. Martin; piano duo, Miss Erma Coyne and G. C. White, vocal solo, Miss Agnes Butler; piano solos, Miss Irene Turnbull, Miss Evelyn Symons, Mr. Mowat Barton.

Mr. E. P. Park has returned home from a trip to Europe. While away he visited England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany and Belgium. He reports a delightful trip. He visited the Derby and saw the suffragette jump at the King's horse.
