At 12 o'clock a continuing until the early morning hotel who gave the dance is to be was the most enjoyable dance given L this season. The music consisting of Hemple a violin and piano was a rare treat in itself. All the very latest and most popular pieces were rendered, the merry makers joining in. The Hiawatha, Under the Bamboo Tree, Little Boy in Blue two-steps and Down Where the Cotton Blossoms Grow were encored time and again. Mr. Alberg, violinist, and Mr. Kehoe the pianist are deserving of much credit. Another incident of note was the entire absence of dust. The dust previous dances but is now entirely overcome.
