NO MORE CORN

Paring a corn just removes the top layer.
The main part is left to grow, and in myriads of cases paring causes infection.

Use our Corn Remedy and in a short time you can easily remove the corn without the aid of any sharp instrument.

Easy to apply. Perfectly safe.

CONVENTION

A Convention, under the auspices of the Kings Co. Temperance Alliance and the social Service Council and Temperance Alliance of Nova Scotia will be held in Kentville on Thursday 23rd day of May.

There will be two sessions, afternoon at two o'clock, evening at eight o'clock.

The afternoon program will include the following:— 1. The work accomplished by the Temperance Alliance.
2. Social Service Problems, Dominion and Provincial.
3. Local Organization and Co.
Problems.

The afternoon and evening sessions will be addressed by Rev. Dr. J. G. Shearer and other prominent workers.

All churches and Temperance Organizations are requested to send delegates, and all persons interested in temperance and social reform movements are cordially invited to attend. All clergymen in the County are requested to announce this convention from their pulpits on Sunday May 12th and 19th.

The time has come for a union of moral forces to undertake energetic action for the betterment of conditions along social service lines.

We appeal to all Christian agencies to co-operate in making the convention a success.

CAMP AT ALDERSHOT.

Kentville again has the appearance of a military town from the appearance on our streets and in public places of business, of numerous soldiers from Camp Aldershot. Military exercises will not permit us to tell our readers as much as we would like about the arrival and departure of troops and the names of the Battalions passing through. At present the most of the boys here are from Guelph Ontario but the majority of them have been residents of the United States. They will be here but a short time.

Soon the call will go forth for those to assemble here who are liable under the Military Act and Kentville, Aldershot and vicinity will probably be a busy place all summer.

Mr. J. A. Lawrence of New Glasgow who was formerly an efficient general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Kentville,

NOT ON THE ARMY LIST.

Lord God of hosts and all the star-world regions!

Make bare thine arm in realms beneath the sky;

Stand on the side of all Thine own brave legions,
Pledged in Thy cause to conquer or to die.

In darkest hours keep brave true hearts from falling; In sternest strife be Thou their strength and stay;

Rise, rise, O Lord! and over all prevailing,
Bring on redemption's promised triumph day.
