HIGH LIFE AT DAWSON.

The Interior Department at Ottawa looks after gold mines and collects royalties and dues of all sorts. It cost last year $476,000 for that department alone in the Yukon, which was $68,000 more than it collected. This department maintains the ridiculous number of seventy officials to look after the 8,000 people. These officers have salaries and living allowances of nearly $200,000. There is a chief commissioner at $6,000 a year, and another $6,000 living allowance, besides which $10,616 was expended last year on the maintenance and furnishing of the house in which he lives. There is a gold commissioner at $5,000 and $1,100 living allowance, an assistant at $4,000 and the same allowance, a registrar at $4,000 and $1,500 allowance, a controller at $3,000 plus $1,000, a land agent at $2,400 plus $1,000, and so on. The customs department costs twenty per cent. of all its collections, and employs thirty all its collectors, and one for every 250 people officers, or one for every 250 people in the country. It costs more to day to police the Yukon than it did with a disorderly population four times as large. No less than $60 per head goes for police protection, besides another $12 per head, or $100,000 a year for the administration of justice. It will surprise the tax payers to know that for these 8,000 people they are paying three Supreme Court judges each $5,000 salary and $5,000 living allowance, a clerk costs $4,000 plus $1, that a sheriff the same, the police $800, a magistrate $4,000 plus $1,400, and there are eight or ten other employees at proportionately high pay and allowances. The maintenance of the Dawson Court House cost last year $7,970, that of the administration building $22,299. There is a postmaster at $5,000 and $900 living allowance, a superintendent of public works at $4,000 and other officials in proportion.

That is the Yukon story, and it is a sample of what goes on everywhere. Mr. Foster mentioned some matters in British Columbia and the West, speaking particularly of the theft of prairie land. One company, in which members of parliament were concerned, got 250,000 acres in 1902 for $1.00 an acre, which they at once began to sell at $8 to $10. Another exploiter got hold of 36,000 acres of half-breed land which cost him less than $1.00 an acre, and is now sold at $8 to $10. Thousands of homesteads have been fraudulently obtained by speculators and sold. Altogether millions of dollars that might have gone to the reduction of debt, has been won from the people of Canada by favored exploiters, with no benefit to the genuine settlers.

Wonder has been caused in Chatham by a citizen advocating the sprinkling of the streets on Sunday. Horrible! yet sometimes rain sprinkles the streets on Sunday—Ridgetown Dominion.

The population of rural Ontario continues to decrease. The Northwest calls for the young man with irresistible voice. Every school section in Kent and Elgin is regretting the departure of its sons, and the same conditions prevail in other countries. According to the census of 1901, the population of the County of Bruce was then 59,020. Figures obtained from the assessment roll of 1905, shows, says the Clinton News-Record, that the population had fallen to 51,384. At the same rate of decrease the present population is not over 50,000.—Ridgetown Dominion.

W. E. Rispien, city passenger agent Grand Trunk and Wabash Railways, will sell round trip tickets at single fare account of Victoria Day, to any point in Canada, also to Detroit, Mich., Port Huron, Mich., and Buffalo, N. Y., at single fare for the round trip, tickets good going Wednesday and Thursday, May 23rd and 24th, returning May 25th.

BARGAINS IN MEDICINE.

A woman once wrote us that she was not going to buy Scott's Emulsion any more because it cost too much. Said she could get some other emulsion for less money. Penny wise and pound foolish. Scott's Emulsion costs more because it is worth more—costs more to make. We could make Scott's Emulsion cost less by using less oil. Could take less care in making it, too. If we did, however, Scott's Emulsion wouldn't be the standard preparation of cod liver oil as it is to-day.

The ceremony took place in the presence of only the immediate relatives and friends, and the happy couple left for their new home in Sarnia on the evening train. BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

Keith's Magazine on Home Building for June contains "Typical American Homes," "A Building Expert in Colorado," "The Home Making of Two Lone Women," "Homes Grounds and Gardens," "My Experience With Concrete Stone," "Three Interesting Interiors," "Study for Wall Decorations," "Designs by Leading Architects," all of which are profusely illustrated.
No doubt what will appeal most strongly to the public in this number will be the numerous designs for small and pretty homes at low figures. The usual departments are also well sustained.
Subscription price 15 cents a copy or $1.50 per annum. Published by Keith Publishing Co., Minneapolis, Minn.

Everyday Housekeeping, which is published by The Clark Publishing Co., of Boston, Mass., at $1.00 per annum, is a monthly "Magazine for Housekeepers" and "Mothers." Though the primary object of the magazine is to treat of housekeeping in all its branches, some of its pages are devoted to other subjects, as for instance the first article in the May number, "The Switzerland of America," which is a beautifully illustrated description of the White Mountain region in New Hampshire.

A new serial, "The Voyage of the Blue Vega," a story of Arctic adventure by the well known writer Gordon Stables in the May number of The Boys' Own Paper.

The B. O. P. photographer tells how to make a lamp for Bromide Printing.
There is a colored frontpiece that every boy will want for his own particular den.
These are only three of the features in this best of boys' magazines. The Boys' Own Paper, which is published by Warwick Bros. & Butler, Toronto.

The colored frontpiece in the May number of The Girls' Own Paper is "Wild Hyacinths in a Surrey Copse." Ruth Thornton's "Wanderjahr," a new serial which commences in this number, has the scene laid in America and England.
There are lessons in embroidery for the girls who like fancy work. "My First Spring Housecleaning" tells in story form how to do any kind of cleaning.
There are short stories, poems, and the usual "Club" departments which make The Girls' Own Paper so attractive each month.

Success for June has reached us

A SIMPLE SHIRT WAIST SUIT.

The woman who has household duties or business to attend to during the morning is always glad to have a simple gown which is easily made and tubbed. Here is just the thing for such a dress and suitable to duck, linen, percale or lawn as well as a light wool or taffeta. It consists of a shirt waist which escapes absolute plainness by three tucks on the shoulder in front which provides a modish fullness. The skirt is a new seven gored one which fits smoothly over the hips, and has a full ripple about the lower edge. The idea of trimming suggested in the drawing might be followed, using the lower edge in hands about the collar and belt of silk would add to its attractiveness. In the medium size the pattern calls for 10 1-2 yards of 36-inch material.

Two patterns—
6475—Size 32 to 44 in. bust measure.
6474—Size 20 to 32 in. waist measure.

this week. It opens with "The Human Side of Business," which contains portraits and sketches of some of the most successful business men of the present day.
An interview with "Ethel Barrymore" will be read with interest. The stories in this number are "The Man, The Boy and The Girl," "Frenchie and His Mate," "The See-Ing Generation," "The Honor of a Sultana," "Shine," "The Late Ebenezer the Corpse," and "The Late Ebenezer the Corpse," which with the usual heavier articles; the regular department stories, verses, etc., make this number one of the most attractive which has yet been published. Success is to be had at all book stands or from The Success Co., New York. Subscription price $1.00.

Earth-Eaters in India.

Efforts are being made to stamp out the habit of earth-eating, which is prevalent among natives over almost all India. In Northern India the favorite form of earth is a grey or drab-colored loam. This is excavated mostly at Meth, in Bikanir, and is exported to Punjab at the rate of 2,000 camel loads a year. In different districts different varieties of clay are eaten; but ferent natives have at one time a taste for a special kind of mud, as the habit of earth-eating is a universal one. Increases, the depraved appetite soon becomes satisfied with bricks and broken pots. White-ant soil, with the nests and ants themselves, is a great delicacy.

The effects of the habit are distressing. Those women addicted to it, very soon complain first of pain and weakness in the limbs, palpitation and difficulty of walking a little distance up hill. After some time all the other symptoms of anemia are fully established; sallow and pale complexion, languid and gummy bloodless, and general debility. Very often dropsy supervenes. A planter in Assam almost completely suppressed the habit on his estate by making the offenders stand out with a piece of mud in each hand exposed to the ridicule of the rest of the coolies.

superb "Nerve" of a Hat Seeker.

"Oh, but the nerve of some women is worth a fortune to them!" groaned a girl at luncheon in a department store. "I've been trying to get a hat. Upstairs in the millinery department I tried on hats until my arms ached planning them on, and the saleswoman got purple with rage because none suited me. In walked a grenadier sort of woman, with a scarred looking maid carrying a big paper bag. This woman sniffed around, turned hats upside down and almost inside out and finally looked over the untanned shapes. She picked out one. Drawing a chair before the biggest mirror in the place, she sat down and had the maid empty the contents of that bag in her lap. It held feathers, flowers and ribbons. Then she began to pin on feathers here, to toodle mirror in the place. And that in a store, mind you, where the salesgirls ask you sarcastically whether you are looking for something cheap if you refuse to put down $35 on a hat they select for you."

Her Property.

Now and again things happen on the football field which go to add to the gaudy of the nation. On one occasion, for instance, during a certain league match in the north, the referee somehow managed to lose his whistle. There was no another whistle to be found, and it seemed that the game would have to come to a sudden and inglorious end, until the referee hit upon an ingenious scheme. He produced a latchkey from his pocket and managed to toodle merrily enough on it till suddenly, as he approached the touch line a woman's shrill voice was heard, exclaiming:

"Fred, come here at once! Where did you get that latchkey?"
As he listened to the guffaw which went up from the assembled crowd that referee was the most sheepish looking man on the ground, and as he looked man on the ground, and as he thought of the curtain lecture looming ahead his heart became like lead within his bosom.—London Answers.

Training a Dog.

A dog understands "yes" and is equally content to grasp the "no." Outside of that he is all dog and follows his dog ways. He indulges in mental refinement and will not comprehend many of your changes of mood or mind. Whatever you undertake to teach make it plain, simple and unchangeable. It is a pity that he must be taught not to jump up on people and compliment them with his caresses. He means well, but must be disciplined sternly into knowing that it is not good form under any circumstances. The discipline need not be accompanied by any severity. A light touch with a whip, if applied invariably, will soon settle the matter. Some kennel men adopt the plan of stepping lightly on the hind foot, and it is perhaps the clearest way of conveying the idea.

Eat What You Like

Don't Starve or Diet, but Use Mi-o-na, and Cure Your Stomach Troubles.

The average treatment of stomach troubles consists of a rigid diet which often half starves the patient. Of course it would be foolish for anyone who knows that some foods are positively harmful and foods are positively helpful, to starve or diet if Mi-o-na is faithfully used, a tablet before each meal.

This scientific remedy for the cure of stomach troubles, acts upon the whole digestive system, and strengthens the organs so that they are able to digest any food that is eaten without fear of distress. If you suffer from loss of appetite, belching of food, sour taste in the mouth, furrows, severe pains in the region of the stomach, depression of spirits, bad dreams, lack of energy, headaches, backaches, loss of strength and weight, you can be assured that these troubles are all due to imperfect digestion.

Strengthen the stomach by taking a Mi-o-na tablet before each meal, and soon you will gain in weight, strength will return, and your food strength will give nourishment so that the rich red blood will carry good health to every part of your system. Mi-o-na costs but 50 cents a box. If you cannot obtain Mi-o-na of your druggist, it will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price. Write us for advice on your case from a leading stomach specialist which will be sent free. The R. T. Booth Company, Ithaca, N. Y.

You can't take money apart to see how it is made.

Only $9.00 to New York and return via Lehigh Valley Railroad Friday, June 15th, tickets good for 15 days, and only five dollars from Suspension Bridge, Niagara Falls. For tickets and further particulars call on or write Robert S. Lewis, passenger agent L. V. R., 10 King street east, Toronto, Ont.
