

TARIFF $2 FOR SNOW CASES.

FIRST BATCH OF THE WINTER CAME UP TO-DAY.

Who is Responsible for Cleaning Sidewalks Around a Church is Puzzling the Police.

The first snow cases of the year were heard this morning, and the Magistrate announced that $2 would be the tariff for the season. A. M. Wright, 164 York street, was summoned by Constable Sharp, and fined $2. J. Alter, 103 John street south, was also a victim of Sharp's, but he will endeavor to prove to-morrow morning that he had his house rented to a tenant who should have cleaned the beautiful. John Reardon was not responsible for his property, as the city had seized it, and the case was dismissed. Benjamin Baskerville, postman, has been busy with the Christmas mails, and has let his own with half price. The Canadian Consulate Wheel Co. paid $2 for recently acquired property on Hunter street west. A. Garber, 407 King street east, was not the owner of the property for which he was summoned, and the case was dismissed. He asked for a half day's pay, and was advised by the Magistrate to sue the city.

The case of the Ferguson Avenue Baptist Church neglecting to clean snow was a poser. Constable Sharp took out a summons for Rev. J. Bracken, the pastor, but the Magistrate said he was no more responsible for the cleaning of the snow than any member of the congregation, and accordingly dismissed the charge. The police will try to figure out who is responsible, and are now satisfied that they should have the Board of Management up on the case.

Mrs. G. Noholick, 179 Cannon street west, was charged by George Sluher with threatening to do him bodily harm. She was very sick in court, and was recommended to jail for the Medical Health Officer to attend her.

John Wass, Kenwood, was charged with assaulting W. Ridley. The case was adjourned till to-morrow for witnesses.

"We certainly were," said George Scollan and William Laing, Bay street north, when they were charged with being drunk. They were fined $2 each.

REDUCED TO $795.

Doctor Allowed That for Services to Golspie Victims.

Justice Anglin yesterday reduced to $795 the bill of Dr. R. J. Gibson, of Sault Ste. Marie, against R. O. & A. B. Mackay, of this city, for services to the survivors of the wrecked steamer Golspie. He had asked $2,000. The doctor had performed 14 amputations, for which he asked $100 each. At the trial the plaintiff's witnesses declared, says Judge Anglin, that it would be fair, just and honest to exact from a kindly-disposed person who had ordered the doctor to the scene, three or four times what a patient in a similar situation would pay. One said he would have refused to do the work which Dr. Gibson had done in eight hours for less than $1,000.

The witnesses for the defendant gave evidence to the effect that it was customary for doctors to charge men in a poor station of life, such as these sailors, from 25 to 50 per cent. less than would be charged for similar work for a man in a comfortable position.

CENTENARY LITERARY.

The Centenary Literary Society held its regular meeting last evening, with a good attendance. An exceptionally well written paper on "The Life and Poetical Works of Tennyson" was read by Mrs. G. A. Willis. Misses Nellie Marshall and Georgie Mills played an instrumental duet, and Rev. Richard Whiting led in the discussion of "In Memoriam." Miss Ella Allen adding to the enjoyment of the evening by reading a portion of the poem. The society adjourned to meet after the holidays.
