PRIDE OF BARTON.

Officers Were Elected and Installed Last Evening.

There was a good turn-out of the members of Court Pride of Barton, Independent Order of Foresters, last evening, in the chambers over Traders Bank. The following officers were elected, and afterwards installed by John Mitchell and H. T. Drope: W. E. McDougall, C. R. H. J. Lane, P. C. R.; W. T. Cooper, V. C. R.; J. M. Paterson, Recording Secretary; E. O. Zimmerman, Financial Secretary and Treasurer; James Shoots, Orator; W. Lawson, S. W.; A. A. Bellrose, J. W.; C. E. Burns, S. B.; W. Hopkins, J. B.; F. E. Woolverton, Physician; J. M. Paterson, Court Deputy; W. McDougall and J. M. Paterson, Trustees; C. G. Cooper, John Mitchell and Jas. Shoots, Auditors.

Court Pride of Barton now has 80 members, and Chief Ranger McDougall and his new set of officers hope to have this number greatly increased during the coming year. During the evening the two secretaries arranged a compact between themselves whereby the one introduced the least number of members by the end of the term would provide a sumptuous repast for the Court.

MAN WHO COULD NOT BE HANGED.

It is reported that John Lee, who was condemned to death for the murder of Miss Keyes at Birmingham, has been released from his trial for murder.

Lee, who protested his innocence, was sentenced to death at Devon Assizes in 1885, and after three abortive attempts were made to hang him on February 23, the sentence was commuted to one of penal servitude for life.

The crime for which Lee was sentenced to death was the murder of Miss Keyes, a servant, at "The Green," Miss Keyes' house, were roused by the smell of fire. Ellen Neek, one of the old and valued servants
