FREDERICTON, MAY 6, 1880.

The readers of this journal, are hereby informed, that Fredericton is the Capital of New Brunswick, and that York Point, and Marsh Bridge, and Reed's Castle, and MacEvoy's, and the old Bell Tower, and Partridge Island, all remain just as they were!

MR. JOSEPH N. GREEN.

We have been struck before today with the gentlemanly demeanor, the untiring energy, and commendable pluck of Mr. Green. He came before the legislature asking simple justice, and need we say how shamefully that justice was denied him. Everything he had in the world was at stake in the Grand Southern Railroad, his reputation too was staked there. He asked a hearing before a Committee of the Council, that hearing was denied him. The Council had made up its mind upon a "judgment" and the feeble tones of one, though the accents were those of an injured man, who based his cause upon equity and right, could not move it. We are reminded of the colored Magistrate, who thus addressed the Counsel on both sides: "Gentlemen you have argued de case very well; and I shall take free weeks afore I will gib my decision. But eventually I shall decide in favor of de plaintiff." Or to take a more serious view of the case, the action of the Council in refusing to hear Mr. Green's case before Committee, was like passing judgment on a man in court without giving him the benefit of a hearing. The Council carried out its will, and what it has gained is far more indeed than we can tell. The respectable press of the Province denounces the act, and the masses find for it no justification either. How false and how delusive was the hope which dangled before the mind of the Council ere they perpetrated that shameful deed that the Province would send up a pean of praise to it, as the guardian of their rights! Only a few, a few made up of those who understood not the case and who are interested in the rival road, say "well done," but turning to their own breasts, where all good men look for consolation, they hear nothing but reproach. Ill indeed it becomes their gray hairs to dishonor them by an act of such crying injustice. But Mr. Green will triumph, and the road will be built: and this article is a mere reflection on an immoral and unrighteous act. Here is what the Telegraph, which has been making no uncertain sound of late on this matter, says of Mr. Green, among other excellent things:

Mr. Green as he stood before the committee, as he defended his unquestionable rights, as he expounded the work done on the Grand Southern, won golden opinions. He impressed every one with his candor and frankness as a man, with his skill as an experienced engineer, with his pluck as a defender of his interests, and with his indomitable energy in prosecuting his enterprise.

Mrs. JONES, and Mrs. Robinson, came for wool, but went home shorn. We speak of their campaign against Gibson et al on Riviere du Loup matters. They understand what we mean.

OUR MAKER'S WANT OF FORESIGHT.

If we were to judge from what we see going on around and about us, we would conclude that the Creator made a mistake in making man as he did, a free agent. But this has not been our belief by any means. From our earliest youth we have believed man came into the world with Free Will.—Do this and live, do that and die. This theory held so long, and believed so firmly, is, according to modern philanthropists all wrong. They hold now that Providence did not know Man as well as we do, else he would not have given to him so much liberty. He ought to have made him at least with a suspending clause.

Another sad mistake which He also made was to place in Terrestrial Paradise, a Tree: a tree whose fruit was death to all who partook of it. Had that tree not been there, man would be today, a paragon of perfection. This august truth is even developed at burdock "shows," and thundered from the inspired lips of the stump speaker. There would then be no compounding at five cents on the dollar, no bank robberies by dishonest servants, no divorces through incompatibility of temper, no shooting at sight for amusement, no illegitimate offspring cast by the wayside as food for beasts of prey. Old heads grown grey through debauchery and sin, would be fresh and blooming as the flowers of May. We would, in a word, be all "saints," according to the modern acceptance of that term. Why did Providence therefore do it? Was it through ignorance of man's waywardness at some future day? It must seem this and nothing else. Our duty, therefore, is to make him according to our own image and likeness. When we have succeeded this will be the Celestial City in reality and in truth.

CHARACTERISTIC INSINUATIONS.

OUR attention has been called to the following paragraph which appeared in a little Westmorland paper, the Times, May 3rd.

"The Hon. P. A. Landry, Commissioner of Public Works, was in town on Saturday evening and examined the draw bridge over Hall's Creek with a view to repairs necessary to work the draw and keep the bridge in order.—It is said that Mr. Buck, C. E., who was sent here to report on the bridge some weeks ago went beyond his instructions so far as to strongly recommend that the bridge be moved some distance up stream. Whether Mr. Buck acted on his own opinion of what was needed or was inspired from some quarter does not appear but the change is not likely to be made."
This paragraph is remarkable for nothing but its absurdity. Who was to know what Mr. Buck's "instructions" were? Certainly a Killam organ could be the last to know. And as to the "inspiration" in the silly sentence that concludes the paragraph, whence came that inspiration? The coward always covers his charge up in insinuation; and in the whole paragraph above we have the character of the Times Editor as correctly painted as Correggio himself could do it. We do not propose to enlighten such a worthless quarter on the facts; and we need only say that the hidden hand under the paragraph, is that of the man who has "many a time and oft," thrust his arm to the shoulder, into the public chest. It is the Bridge Vulture that is the moving spirit.

THE SURVEYOR GENERAL'S ILLNESS.

THE Surveyor General has been confined to his house since his arrival home, and he is yet far from recovered. He has been under the care of Drs Smith and McDonald, and these gentlemen have recommended a change of air. He will, therefore, leave for New York tomorrow, where he will spend a few weeks with his brothers.

Mr. Adams possesses by no means a rugged constitution, and his close attention to the duties of his office, which are often harassing and trying to a person of the strongest constitution, has helped to bring about his present prostration. Last year, till late in the autumn, he travelled through the various free grants districts, through wet and cold, and many parts of these where horses could not travel he visited on foot. We know we only join in the general sentiment, when we hope his proposed trip may restore him to perfect health.

THE Hong Kong "Chinese" have subscribed to the Irish Relief Fund. Their knowledge of Geography is commendable.

RETURNED FROM THE GRAND SOUTHERN.

MR. WALTER M. BUCK, C. E., of the Board of Works Department, has returned after having made a tour of inspection over the Grand Southern Railroad. Mr. Buck was accompanied over the road, by Mr Holt, Assistant Engineer of the line, the party starting from Carleton. Just a week was occupied from the day they set out, till they reached St. Stephen. The snow Mr. Buck says was all gone, so that there was no difficulty in making the examination. The latter dealt with the character of the grading, the quality and quantity of materials delivered, and the estimated value of the whole—the work done, and material provided. This estimate will be laid before the Government and upon it the subsidy falling due will be paid. Mrs. Jones of the Council called Mr. Perley's report a fraud, we hope she will not be dissatisfied with Mr. Buck's. Mr. Buck tells us he was favorably surprised at the condition of the work done on this road four years ago. From what he further told us though the utterance is not "official," we learnt that he was quite well satisfied of the permanent and thorough character of the work done. It is only a few months more ere the iron horse will be tearing along through this region!

DIED.

THE City Clock died to-day at ten minutes to 11. The winder, Mr. White, has got in the sulks; it would seem, and the City Council does not care what becomes of the city. How long is this state of affairs to continue!

THE freshest is dangerously high at Miramichi, and properties are deluged.

"GOSSIP CORNER" and other matters cant see the light till next.

A rupture between China and Russia is talked of.

THAT terrible nuisance blew again this morning.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED

IS A FACT ATTESTED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITIES IN THE WORLD.

A careful observance of the laws of health, and the systematic and persistent use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lim and Soda will accomplish this result. This preparation has all the virtues of these two most valuable specifics, in a form perfectly palatable, and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, and we make the unqualified statement that Scott's Emulsion is being used with better results and endorsed and prescribed by more physicians for Consumption and the diseases leading to it, such as Chronic Coughs, Bronchitis, Anemia, General Debility and the Wasting Disorders of Children, than any other remedy known to medical science. The rapidity with which patients improve on this food medicine diet, is truly marvellous.

See What Physicians and the People Say About It.
Messrs. Scott & Bowne: 66 West Thirty-sixth Street, New York, September 2, 1876.
GENTS,—I have frequently prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites during the past year, and regard it as a valuable preparation for scrofulous and other diseases, of a reliable and efficacious nature.
C. C. LOCKWOOD, M. D., Baltimore.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—Within the last year I have used in my own family, and in my private practice prescribed very extensively Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and find it a most valuable preparation, especially in diseases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach; which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrofulous cases.
Oct. 12, 1879. Yours respectfully, J. SIMONAUD, M. D., New Orleans, La.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—In September, 1877, my health began to fail and my physician pronounced it spinal trouble; under his care I got some relief from pain, but my general health did not improve, and early in the winter I began to lose blood and rapidly grew worse. In May last I was taken with a violent bleeding which brought me to my bed and my life was despaired of for many weeks; violent symptoms appeared, night and morning cough, night sweats and short breath, and a return of the spinal trouble. My physician stopped the bleeding and then ordered Cod Liver Oil and Lime; and I used various preparations, but they did me no good. I lost all hope of life and was an object of pity to all my friends. Last September I purchased a bottle of your Emulsion and before it was all taken I was better. Afterwards I bought a dozen bottles, with the following results: Coughs subsiding, night sweats stopped, appetite returned, pains in spine disappeared, strength returning, and my weight increased from 118 to 140 pounds in sixteen weeks. I have taken no other medicine since commencing with your Emulsion and shall continue its use until I am perfectly well. I frequently meet some friends of the street who ask, "What cured you?" and I answer, "Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, since I have a friend who has not spoken aloud for 15 months, and he is getting better. I gave him a bottle and he bought two more, then got a doctor, and says it is food and medicine for him. He was given up to die a year ago; but he is improving now wonderfully. My recovery is exciting the surprise of many people, and shall do all I can to make known your valuable medicine."
January 20th, 1879. Very truly yours, H. F. SLOCUM, Lowell, Mass.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—I got a bottle of your Emulsion and at that time I was so prostrated that no one who saw me thought I could live longer than a few weeks at most. I could retain nothing on my stomach and was literally starving. I commenced the use of the Emulsion in small doses; it was the first thing that would stay on my stomach; I continued its use, gradually increasing the dose; and from that hour I commenced mending, and now am able to ride and walk and strength rapidly returning. My recovery is exciting the surprise of many parties to try it, and some two or three have already tried it. I am sure I shall entirely recover.
January 20th, 1879. I am gratefully yours, R. W. HAMILTON, M. D.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—I have used your Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and find it a most valuable preparation, especially in diseases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach; which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrofulous cases.
