THE JUBILEE

APOSTOLICAL LETTER OF OUR MOST HOLY LORD, LEO XIII., BY DIVINE PROVIDENCE, POPE, PROCLAIMING AN EXTRAORDI-NARY JUBILEE.

At both Masses in the pro-Cathedral Sunday last, His Lordship, Bishop Rodgers, announced that he had received the official copy of the Encyclical letter from Our Holy Father, proclaiming a universal jubilee. His Lordship then published the conditions for gaining the indulgence of the jubilee which are,
To last one day which is otherwise not a fast of obligation.

To give an aim. The Holy Father had in the Encyclical recommended one of three objects to which the aims might be given, namely, towards the Institution for the Propagation of the Faith, the Societies of the Sacred Infant Jesus, and the Schools of the East. But in this Diocese the amount obtained in the way of alms would be divided, one half going to the Funds for the Propagation of the Faith, the other half for the support of the Holy Father, who in the administration of his sacred office was under heavy expenses.

To make six visits to the church, and there pray according to the intention of the Holy Father.

Having made a good confession to receive worthily the Holy Communion.

His Lordship pointed out that the Fast was of the third order, that is the "Black fast" at which no White Meats are allowed, and that the performance of the Easter duty by those who have not performed it yet, would not entitle them to the Indulgence of the Jubilee. They must go to confession and communion once beside the annual, or Easter visit. He likewise pointed out that the indulgence might be obtained, as many times as the person worthily performed the conditions of the Jubilee within the time allowed. His Lordship then read the following:—

To the Venerable Brethren, Patriarchs, Primates, Archbishops and Bishops, in peace and communion with the Apostolic See, and to all the beloved faithful sons of Christ, Health and Apostolic Benediction.

LEO PP. XIII.

VENERABLE BROTHERS AND BELOVED SONS.

The Church Militant of Jesus Christ which avails most of all to procure salvation and health for the human race, so gravely troubled in these times of calamity, that as, day by day, she encounters new storms, truly may she be compared to that boat of Genesareth, which, while bearing of our Lord, Christ and his disciples, was dashed about by the greatest waves and most boisterous winds. Indeed, that who bear ill-will to the Catholic name are now growing more than usually insolent, in number, strength and audacity of purpose; they do not deem it sufficient openly to disown the teachings of heaven, but strive with might and aim to

VOLUME II. CHATHAM, N. B., MAY 11, 1881. NO. 255.

drive the Church wholly out of the civil community of men, or at least force her to be of no avail in shaping the public life of peoples. Hence it is, that in fulfilling that duty, which, in a divine manner, she received from her Author, she feels that she is, on all sides, involved in, and retarded by great difficulties.

The most bitter results of this nefarious conspiracy fall upon the Roman Pontiff; to whom, deprived of his lawful rights, and, in many ways hindered in the discharge of his chief duties, a certain shadow of kingly majesty, as if in mockery, is left.
Wherefore placed upon this height of sacred power, and bustled in the administration of the whole church, we have, for a long time, both felt and declared how bitter and wretched is that state into which the vicissitudes of the times have driven us. We do not wish to particularize them; but for all that, the events which have been happening for several years past in this our city, are manifest to all. Here in the very centre of Catholic truth the sanctity of religion is jeered at, the dignity of the Apostolic See insulted, and the majesty of the Pontiff exposed to the frequent affronts of depraved men.

We have been shorn of much our predecessors had, in their devotion and liberality, established, and handed down to their successors to be preserved inviolate; nor has forbearance been shown, but injury done, to the rights of the Sacred Institution for propagating the Christian name; which, having won distinguished favor, not only from religion, but also from civilized nations, no violence of former times ever infringed. Temples of Catholic worship have been closed, not a few of them profane, and those for heretical service multiplied; and by writing and deed the teachings of depravity scattered around with impunity. They who have the supreme power, study to enact laws, detrimental to the Church and Catholicity; and that, in the sight of us, whose whole solicitude by God's own command, is to see to it, that Christianity and the rights of the church shall be preserved safe and sound. But with no respect for that right to teach which resides in the Roman Pontiff, they excluded our authority to teach youth, and if permission is accorded to us, which is denied to no private person, to open schools for the instructions of youths at our own expense, the violence and harshness of the civil laws bear down upon these very schools.
We are much the more earnestly affected by this sad spectacle of affairs, because the means of remedying it which we would most desire are wanting to us.
For we are more truly in the hands of our enemies than in our own, and that very enjoyment of liberty which is conceded to us, since it can be taken away or diminished at the best of another, does not possess the sure basis of safety and stability.

Meanwhile, it is clear from daily experience, that the contagion of iniquity is creeping more and more through the rest of the body of the Christian Commonwealth, and becoming more propagated. For the nations estranged from the church are falling day by day into greater miseries; and where the Catholic faith has been once extinguished or weakened, the way is at hand to unsoundness of opinions and hungering after novelties. But that very great and noble power of him, who is God's vicegerent on earth, being scorned, it is plain that there remain to human authority no checks, able to bring under restraint the untamed spirits of revolutionists, or to stay the ardor of mad license in the multitude. And, for these reasons, the civil society of men, although it has suffered grievous disasters already, is menaced by the suspicion of still graver perils.

Therefore, that the church may repel the attacks of her enemies, and achieve her own mission, for the common good, there must be much work, and a hard struggle. But in this earnest and varying battle, in which the glory of God is at stake, and the fight is for the everlasting welfare of souls, void would all man's strength and zeal be, unless assistance from heaven was furnished suitable to the times.
Accordingly, in the troubles and afflictions of Christianity, this has always been the usual sanctuary of her labors and anxieties to beg of God with the strongest petitions to aid His suffering church, and grant her ability to battle and to triumph.— We, therefore, imitating this excellent custom and practice of our predecessors, fully aware that God is the more easily ex-treated in proportion to the greater degree of repentance in men, and their desire of regaining favor with Him, in order then to obtain heavenly aid, and for the helps of our souls, we proclaim to the Catholic world by this, our letter, a special sacred Jubilee, Relying, then, on the all-powerful mercy of God, and the authority of the blessed Apostles, Peter and Paul, of that power of binding and loosing, which the Lord has conferred upon us, unworthy though we are, we grant to all and every one of Christ's faithful, of both sexes, the amplest indulgence of all sins, in the form of a general Jubilee, if only they, who live in Europe from the next 19th day of this month of March, the feast of St. Joseph the spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to the 1st of November, the solemn festival of all Saints, inclusive; and who reside out of Europe, from the same next 19th day of this month of March to the last day of their current year, 1881 inclusive—perform what is herein prescribed; namely, as many as are citizens or visitors in Rome, visit twice the Church of Lateran, also the Vatican and Librarian, Basilicus and there, for a time, offer up their pious prayers according to our intention, for the prosperity and exaltation of the Catholic Church, and of this Apostolic See, for the extirpation of all heresies, and the conversion of all who are in error, for concord among Christian Princes, and the peace and unity of the whole faithful people; let them, using only fast meats, fast one day besides the days included in the Lenten indulgent or otherwise devoted to a like fast of strict obligation by the precept of the church; moreover, having duly confessed their sins, let them receive the most holy sacrament of the Eucharist, and contribute in the name of charity toward some pious work. We mention by name in this behalf, those Institutions whose safe keeping
