FATHER ARRESTED SON, A DANGEROUS CRIMINAL

Officers Feared to Approach—Desperate Young Man Fired at his Father but was Overcome.

Paris, July 7.—A dramatic scene occurred at Carmaux, France, when a workman, named Antraygues, arrested his son, Aladin, a dangerous criminal, and handed him to the police, who were held in check by the young bandit's revolver. Aladin who was "wanted" for several robberies with violence, was seen by a policeman drinking in a cafe. The criminal sought refuge in the kitchen, and, drawing a revolver, threatened to shoot if he were touched. A woman who had been at the same table with him tried to seize the revolver, but he fired at her and then struck her a severe blow on the face with his fist, sending her senseless to the ground.

Another policeman came to the assistance of the first, but neither of them dared grapple with Aladin. Among the crowd that gathered was the elder Antraygues, an honest, hardworking laborer. Stung to fury by his son's villainies, he pushed forward and marched straight up to the criminal. "Stand back, father, or I shoot!" exclaimed Aladin. His father's only reply was to hurl himself at the boy, and, knocking up the revolver with one arm so that the bullet went harmlessly into the ceiling, he felled him to the ground. Then, falling on him, he held him down while the police handcuffed him.

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weakness of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommendations "Discovers" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

Given Away.—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Rural Phones Solve These Every-Day Problems

Problem I. Bad Roads:—The old way was to tramp across muddy trails and mud holes. The new way is to telephone your neighbor and get the information in a few moments of the time.

Problem II. Weather Forecasts:—The old way was to work on hazy information, and to guess the issues with "That's what the farmer has to put up with."

Problem III. Prices Current:—The old way was to ask a neighbor or visit the newspaper. The new way is to get information in the nick of time over the phone, then knowing when to sell and when to buy.

Problem IV. Emergencies:—The old way of procedure when some one took sick, was to hasten up the "doctor" and make all haste for the doctor. Effort in this direction often proved as it only result the information: "doctor is out."

Problem V. Help:—The old way was to allow one to go on long errands—visit him a number of times to find out what the doctor's name was already found. The new way is to make the phone your friend—boy, borrow, laugh by means of the "toll-free" phone.

We have prepared a Booklet describing fully a rural phone system. Handy to read and better instructed on the use of this interesting bit of information, seeing it costs you nothing.
