—A dog trying to miss the bark of a tree.

—A pig has as much head as a good man's will, and a good deal more point.

—An American complaining of the "federal revenue system," says he can't pay his boots on any other plan.

—The pleasure is only to be found in the paths of virtue; and every deviation from them will be attended with pain.

—Take away my first letter, this away my second letter, take away all my letters, and I am still the same—The postman.

—Almost all difficulties may be overcome by diligence.

—In the streets of London in 1866, 140 persons were run over and killed.

—It is expected that the British ministry will have a majority in the House of Commons on the 11th inst.

—The battle at Marston, between the Liberals and Imperialists, was commenced by the Imperialists attacking Coronas' force within a quarter of a mile of the town, and the fighting lasted from 4 to 6 p. m. The Imperialists were ordered out to fight the Liberals, but up to the departure of the steamer no decisive results had been attained. Accounts from the whole country show the Liberals stronger than ever. Conspiracy is rife in the city of Mexico, and Gen. Diaz has been imprisoned by the Emperor of Mexico, and is being held in a prison in the city of Mexico.

—Canadian pork is beginning to be appreciated in England, and also in the States. It would pay more attention to breed and feed it, it would command not only a preference, but a higher price.

—The flood in the Mississippi is on the increase, and the parishes in Louisiana on the west bank of the river are overflooded.

—The smallpox and variolæ are prevailing in the West, and it is expected that the Government will arrive at Ottawa on Saturday, and take up his residence at Rideau Hall.

—Boston constables report that not a glass of liquor can now be purchased in that city, or even for a Sunday.

—Three of the leading journals of New York, in the view of the enormity of rates and the "amine prices" of food, have urged that they can remove from New York to do so.

—There is but little hope of a speedy settlement of the Spanish claims question. There are rumors that Valparaiso would be bombarded, and also a disagreement among the crews of the Spanish fleet.

—A young man 21 years of age, has been arrested at Brooklyn on a charge of bigamy. When asked by the justice how many wives he had, "Only two, your honor."

—Prince Alfred is to have an annuity of $75,000 per annum, dating from August 6, 1865, and the Princess is to receive $50,000 from her marriage with Prince Christian.

—It is said that some fugitive slaves break the bridge over which they must pass naked for every one who looks on, and that they are being taken to the States.

—Hartley Coleridge once being asked what Woodworth's production he considered the prettiest, very promptly replied "His daughter Dora."

—A widow lady of Danville, Ky., took an orphan boy to raise, quite small, and he arrived at the age of 18 she married him. When she looked home, who says, "You strike me with that old rock—don't you do it, my dear, I have had you for a son, you strike me with that old rock—don't you do it, my dear, I have had you for a son."

—The Natchez Democrat of the 3rd inst., says that a frightful murder was committed in the city of Natchez, Miss., on the 1st inst. The only son of a widow woman was taken from her by two sickening tools, was at length murdered. The murderers belonged to the 6th U. S. Artillery.
