THE WORLD OVER.

The Week's News in a Nutshell. Interesting Condensations by Wire and Mail.

Charles Drinkwater, well-known in connection with the Grand Trunk head office, Montreal, has been appointed Secretary to the Pacific Indicate, and commences work shortly.

The BRIDEGROOM.—The name of bridegroom was formerly given to the newly married man because it was customary for him to wait at table on his bride and friends on his wedding-day.

Lieutenant Maurice O'Connell, of the 70th Rifles, who was killed in the action in the Transvaal on Tuesday, was a grand nephew of Daniel O'Connell, being the eldest son of Sir Maurice O'Connell.

A farmer near Logansport, Ind., lost forty sheep by dogs recently in one night. It was too much for him, and he took his gun and set out. Before he was satisfied he killed twenty-three dogs belonging to his neighbors.

An editor describing the effects of a squall upon a canal boat, says, "when the gale was at its highest, the unfortunate craft heeled to leeward, and the captain and another cask of whiskey rolled overboard."

Sitting Bull reached Woody Mountain on the 27th ult. with seventy lodges of Sioux, but the Canadian authorities refused to receive him, though they refrained from compelling him to recross the border.

The war office has decided to send a regiment of hussars, 160 artillery, 700 infantry, and 100 men of the army service corps and hospital corps to the Cape from England, with a considerable number of extra officers to supply the places of those killed in the fight with the Boers.

London Truth says: The departure of the Princess Louise for Canada has been postponed, in order that H. R. H. may keep certain private engagements after Easter. The Princess, accompanied by several friends, is now expected to start on Thursday, May 12, but it is exceedingly probable that she will return to England in November.

The presence of the Prince of Wales at the marriage of Mr. Leopold Rothschild has caused much satisfaction in Jewish circles; as following close on the speeches of the Crown Prince of Germany it is regarded as a sign that there is no sympathy with the Judenheife.

No English Prince has visited a foreign country since 1709, when three of the Royal Dukes attended a service at one.

THORO'-BREED STOCK.—John Whitfield, of Grey township, bought a six-year-old cow and a bull calf, for $130; James Dickson, of Tuckerstown, a three-year-old cow for $142. Also a calf six months old $60; Thos. S. Sallow, of McKillop, a cow and a calf for $80; and Jas. McLeod a cow for $70, at the sale of Messrs. McLaughlin and Forsyth, last week.

ELECTION EXPENSES.—The election expenses of the candidates in the North Oxford election, as given to the Returning Officer on Wednesday last, that being the day named by the statute, for making the return, are as follows:—Mr. Sutherland, general accounts, $584.06; personal expenses, $95—total $679.06; Mr. Pattullo, general accounts, $494.31; personal expenses, $45—total $539.31.

BARN BURNED.—Last Thursday night a large frame barn 40x60 feet, belonging to George Campbell, lot 13, con. 18, Grey, was burned down, about 11 o'clock. Everything in the barn was lost, including grain, hay, straw, mowing machine and other property. The cause of the fire is unknown. It was first seen by a son and daughter of Mr. Campbell's who were returning from a neighbor's. Loss $800, insured in the Howick Mutual for $300. Mr. Campbell has a sale of stock on Friday of this week.

A GOOD TEAM SOLD.—Mr. Hugh Love, of Hills Green, last week sold a span of heavy draught mares, five years old, to Mr. Hall, of Blenheim, for the sum of $350. As the price indicates, they were a splendid team, but Mr. Love always raises good horses, and, as a result, he makes the business pay. Both mares were sired by Old Wellington. Mr. Hall, we understand, has bought them for breeding purposes.

REMOVAL.—Our townisman, Mr. Alex. McRae, who for a number of years has been in the service of Messrs. Young & Lowry, has taken his departure for Lucknow, where he resumes his occupation, that of general blacksmithing. Mr. McRae is a first-class mechanic, and the already overstocked population of Lucknow have added another to the number. We wish Mr. McRae success in his new sphere of labor.—Listowel Banner.

HORSES SOLD.—Mr. Peter McEwen has disposed of his interest in the well known imported stallion, Old Enterprise, to Mr. Thomas McLaughlin, of the township of Grey, near Brussels. Next season Enterprise will travel on the gravel road between Seaford and Wroxeter. Mr. McLaughlin has made a lucky hit. No horse that has ever travelled in Huron has left behind him a "better" or more servicable class of horses than Old Enterprise. They are good for the farm, the road or the market, and always command high prices. We hope Mr. McLaughlin may be as fortunate with him as Mr. McEwen has been. If he is, he will have no cause for complaint.

Fernando Wood, (the Veteran Democrat, is dead. The population of Toronto is officially given as 77,054.

The decision of the Supreme Court, in the Chaslevick and Bellechasse election petitions, on Friday, passed one Liberal and one Conservative.

On Sunday morning the sexton on opening the new Baptist tabernacle on Elgin-street, Ottawa, found that fully three-quarters of the ceiling had fallen during the night. Had the accident occurred while services were in progress the greater portion of the congregation would certainly have been crushed to death, so great was the weight of the material.

The whole community at Fern Creek, Ky., is alarmed by the number of dogs which have bitten other dogs, cats, sheep and cattle. A large number of rabid beasts have been killed, but many mad dogs are still at large. It is supposed that the dogs went mad because the ponds and creeks are frozen over, preventing them from obtaining water.

James Atkinson, an employee in Oliver's mill, on the Esplanade, Toronto, met with a most violent death at noon, 12th inst. He was arranging some belting, when his clothing caught in the shafting, and he was whirled around at the rate of 500 revolutions per minute. When the engine was stopped, Atkinson's body fell to the floor, horribly cut and mangled. Deceased, who was married and had a large family lived at 181 Ontario street.

General Skobelev telegraphs from Askaniya that in consequence of his proclamation calling upon the Tarkkas to return to their homes, they are gradually returning from Sanddorsb and surrendering their rifles. Seven thousand families have returned, and the people are much influenced by the presence of influential chiefs in the Russian camp. A provisional government, with national representation, has been established, and needy families are being aided from the supplies captured in the fortress. The neighborhood of Cook Tape is being disinfected. It has been ascertained that eight thousand people perished during the siege. Two thousand were cut down by the Russians during the pursuit.

Four one-eyed curlers at Carluke Lanarkshire, have issued a challenge to any other four players similarly afflicted to play a match. The players may use one-eyed spectacles if the sight of their solitary optic is not particularly good. One-legged curlers may now be heard from.

A youth just launching out in trade, unto a wealthy merchant said:—"Pray, tell me sir, what you profess, To call the secret of success?" The nabob's eyes with pleasure shone As he replied, in earnest tone, "The secret simple is—I think You'll find it, sir, in printer's ink."

The St. Stephen's Church Matter. To the Editor of the Signal.

MR. EDITOR.—In the matter of the occurrences in St. Stephen's Church, on Sunday, Feb. 6, alluded to in your last issue, I am prepared to prove that I have not gone beyond my power. I am prepared to prove that the minister has exceeded his power. For the last six months, whatever I proposed he condemned. The reverend gentleman informed me that the church is his; he has the entire control; the key is in his hand; that he would not allow anyone else to hold it; and that by right the collections are his; he could do with them as he thought proper, and that if, as churchwarden, should not interfere, I think brother churchwarden will agree with me that the above is not the law of our Church. To have the difficulties settled, I wrote him a letter proposing each of us to choose a friend and meet at Church, hoping to come to an understanding. He did not reply. I wrote him proposing to ask the Rev. Dean to act in the matter. I received the reply that the Rival Dean would not be allowed to interfere. The reverend gentleman promised me to call a vestry meeting; he did not. I requested him to call a vestry meeting; he informed me he would not. I now propose to request the Bishop to appoint a committee to investigate. I am not afraid of the result.
