

THE POET'S CORNER.

A Teller's Dream. I'm tired of planning and tolling. In the crowded hives of men; Heart weary of building and spoiling. And spilling and building again. And I long for the dear old river. Where I dreamed my youth away; For a dreamer lives forever. And a teller dies in a day. I am sick of the showy seeming Of a life that is half a lie; Of the faces lined with scheming In the throned and hurried; From the sleepless thought's endeavor I would go where the children play; For a dreamer lives forever. And a teller dies in a day.

The Board of Arbitration is trying to square the New York Central strike. Emperor William will not visit the Austrian capital next year, as reported. Even in the richer parts of Ireland there is less than half an average potato crop. The town of Snavy, Hungary, has been razed to the ground. Nine lives were lost. The Beloit (Wis.) Straw-Bowdoin Company will rebuild its paper mill recently burned down. Four masked burglars bound an aged farmer near Worcester, Ohio, and rifled him of $4,000. The Illinois Central brakemen and trainmen are agitating for a general increase of wages. The French are preparing for another expedition against Dahomey, which will begin in October. A coloured woman in Philadelphia drowned her eight months old baby and then hanged herself. The roof of St. Stanislaus' church at Rochester fell, killing two carpenters named Harter and Bauer and seriously wounding three others. Charles Hoffman, a farm labourer, living near Decatur, Ill., has committed suicide by hanging himself. The Hamburg-American steamer Dania is ashore on the Long Island Coast with a party of emigrants on board. Harry Macarty, a notorious thief, has been arrested at Lebanon, Ind., for a highway robbery near Frankfort. Another conflicting message from Central America denies the Pacific rumours, and says San Salvador will again go on the war path. Margaret Solomon, better known as mother Solomon, the last of the once powerful tribe of Wyandotte Indians, died near Upper Sandusky, Ohio. All the Pennsylvania railroads have been incorporated into one concern to be known as the Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis railway. The Governor of Ning-Poo, China, has suppressed the native Chinese numerals in that district, on the ground that they are signs of immorality. A torchlight procession at Kissington in honor of Prince Bismarck was an imposing affair. The Prince made a feeling speech, thanking the people. The London Daily News says the situation in Armenia is daily becoming more deplorable. There has been a wholesale massacre of Christians at Mosch. The Paris Figaro says the Count of Paris will probably abandon his proposed visit to the United States owing to the feeling there against the McKinley Bill. Two hundred freight handlers at the sheds of the Port Huron & Duluth lines of steamers at Port Huron are on a strike. They demand an increase of five cents an hour. Evidence has been furnished the British Board of Trade to show that Mr. Plimsoll's strictures on the Atlantic cattle traffic are not well founded, so far as Canadian cattle are concerned. A Cairo cable says: There have been 48 deaths from cholera at the quarantine station at Eltor since the pilgrims were interned. At Mecca yesterday ten deaths from cholera were reported, and at Seddah nine. The brick manufacturers, at a meeting at New York decided not to ship any bricks to the points where the boycott of the Board of Walking Delegates exists. No more bricks will be sent to New York, Brooklyn or Jersey City. Several steamers of the new Russo-Serbian line under the direction of Prince Gagarin, have arrived at Radjevat, on the lower Danube, bringing 75,000 Berdan rifles and 2,400,000 cartridges for the Serbian Military Committee. A cyclone swept through the Canton of Vaud, Switzerland, doing immense damage. The villages of Lavallée and Loux were devastated, and whole forests were destroyed. Many persons were injured. The storm lasted three minutes. A despatch from Zeremon says the Government is supplying the Kurds with Martini rifles. The Christians are out the telegraph wires. Four Armenians who had made themselves objectionable to the authorities were strangled in prison. A plague, the exact nature of which is not known, is ravaging the fishing towns on the French shore of Newfoundland. The disease is terribly fatal, and none so far attacked have survived. The inhabitants think it is virulent diphtheria. It is said starvation and filth are helping the daily march of the disease. County Judge Max Stein, of Hidalgo county, the leading merchant and one of the wealthiest and most popular citizens of El Paso, Texas, was shot and killed in Reynosa, Mexico, by Mrs. Dela McCabe of Carrizosa county, Tex. The murderer is the wife of an ex-County Judge. The affair grew out of the election trouble in Hidalgo County. Lightning fired a number of dynamite blasts where the government engineers are blasting out the channel over the falls of the Ohio River, at Louisville, Ky. All the workmen employed escaped except a foreman named Keegan, who was paralyzed by the shock and had his leg broken by flying rocks. Mr. E. T. McDougall, Cape Vincent, was firing a salute from a cannon, and using what he supposed was a slow fuse, but it happened to be a fast one, and the cannon was fired before he could get out of danger. It filled the right side of his head and face with heavy blasting powder. Dr. Dawson dressed his wounds, and advised that he be taken home. He is a member of the Syracuse Cycling Club. James John Roche will undoubtedly be selected as editor of the Pilot as successor to the late John Boyle O'Reilly. Mr. Roche is now one of the editors of the paper, and he and Mr. O'Reilly were the staunchest of friends and co-workers. Archbishop Williams, it is understood, will purchase Mr. O'Reilly's interest in the paper, thus giving him absolute control.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Wormwood for Wormworth—Suicide of a Despondent Russian Pole. Toronto, Aug. 28.—Nathaniel Wormworth, a merchant from Mountain Grove in Addison, was given a dose of Toronto justice yesterday that he won't forget in a hurry. This gentleman who had an innocent man, Patrick O'Leary, arrested on a charge of robbing him of $600, all the while the money being stowed away in the capacious lining of his hat. Wormworth's object no doubt was to make the people at Mountain Grove believe that he had been robbed in Toronto and thus escape paying his debts. After O'Leary's innocence was fully established Wormworth was locked up for having a revolver in his possession. The magistrate yesterday taxed him $40 and costs for this offence. Coroner Pickering held an inquest last night in the Morgue on the body of the man found floating in the Lake on Saturday before Scarborough and Little York. The deceased was identified as Auguste Lopenski, a Russian Pole. After 10 minutes' deliberation the jury returned a verdict of death from suicide while in a state of unsound mind. Two Swedes, giving their names as Charles Jansen and William Sjohol, or letters to that effect, hired a small yacht at Dean's boat-house at Sunnyside about 1 o'clock yesterday. Half an hour later a number of parties standing on the shore of Humber Bay observed the boat capsizing. Engineer J. H. Venables of the West Toronto Junction waterworks went to the rescue and succeeded in dragging out Sjohol, who was clinging to the overturned boat, but his companion, Jansen, had sunk to the bottom of the bay, after swimming 40 or 50 yards.

THE GOSSIP OF A WEEK

Excitement is Already High Concerning the Trial—The Middleton Scandal—A Scheme to Defraud Creditors—A Six Year Old Murder Revived—The Grand Orange Lodge. Toronto, Aug. 25.—Major-General Sir Fred Middleton, late commander of the forces in Canada, sailed for England on Wednesday. Before leaving he wrote a letter addressed to the people of Canada intended to vindicate his position in connection with the confiscation of Bremner's furs. The general admits that he may have had a wrong conception of his powers on such matters. He contends that when in active service in India in 1857, the property of rebels was invariably confiscated, and often taken possession of by the soldiers, and he was under the impression that he still had the power of confiscation as commander-in-chief. He says distinctly, that although he ordered the distribution of some of these furs among his officers, that he never received any of them himself. He substantiates his view of the right to confiscate by publishing a telegram which he received from Sir Adolphus Crampton, minister of militia, asking him to bring back with him some souvenirs of his campaign. The general says he understood this request for souvenirs of the campaign to mean articles of some kind taken from the rebels. The general indignantly denies the statement that he was unmindful of the officers who were under him in the matter of the distribution of furs, and publishes proofs of this, and the fact that he was in possession of the furs of the French Canadian commanders are conspicuous by their absence. The Grand Orange Lodge which has been in session in St. John, N. B., all week, has closed its doors. The Rev. J. C. P. Fawcett resigned his position. His report showed that great progress had been made during the past year. The formation of Little Orange Lodge was sanctioned. The following officers were elected: N. Clarke Wallace, M. P., re-elected Grand Master. E. F. Clarke, M. P. P., Toronto, Deputy Grand Master. Rev. J. Halliwell, Smith's Falls, Grand Chaplain. Robert Birningham, Toronto, Grand Secretary. William Anderson, Mountain View, Grand Treasurer. James Kelly, St. John, Grand Lecturer. Deputy Grand Lecturer, Rev. C. E. Perry, Toronto; James Arroll, Merrittville, W. F. Wilson, Toronto; D. Carcaden, Forest; W. E. Barnes, Belleville; J. C. Madill, Toronto; Dr. Smythe, Montreal; J. C. Fawcett, Guelph; N. B.; William Wallace, Brampton, Ont.; Andrew Wilson, Kingston, Ont.; M. W. Martin, B. D., Chatham, Ont.; E. H. Thomas, Mauderville, N. B.; John Morgan, Hillsdale, Ont.; J. W. Hodgins, Lokoann, Ont.; R. H. Leitch, Alma, Ont.; James Blesfield, Sarnia, N. S.; Rural Dean Cooper, Invermay, Ont.; E. W. Sibbald, Lloydminster, Ont.; S. A. Dupran, Montreal, Deputy Grand Secretary. J. C. Glass, Shubbsville, N. S. Deputy Grand Treasurer, H. A. McFaul, Prince Edward, Ont. Nathan Wormworth, general storekeeper of Mountain Grove, Adirondack County, ought to be ashamed to face his neighbors again. He had a man named Patrick O'Leary, arrested for picking his pocket of $500. Inspector Stark doubted the truth of Wormworth's story and had him arrested. The missing money was found hidden beneath the lining of his hat. It is believed by the police that Wormworth deliberately caused the arrest of an innocent man in order to make his creditors believe that he had been robbed and thus escape paying his debts. One of the two many unavenged murders of Ontario may be exposed to the light of day in the revival of interest in the sad case of Maria Colville. The girl disappeared in December, 1884, and her body, foul with decay, was found in a bush in Townsend Township, Simcoe County, in June following. There were good reasons to believe that the girl had been murdered, but direct evidence of violence or foul play had been obliterated by time. For over six long years the affair has remained a mystery, and forgotten by almost everybody. Last week, however, Corydon W. Smith, commonly called "Cardinal" Smith, of Blenheim, was arrested in connection with the murder of the 19 year old girl. Smith was at one time, the keeper of a house of ill-fame. Maria Colville was an inmate and was last seen there. These facts have not just been communicated to the authorities, and hence the arrest. The prisoner declines the charge to time. He was committed for trial at the next assizes. The Benwell-Burchell tragedy is already causing no little excitement. This case it will be remembered was the talk of two continents. It is probably the most interesting case of its kind the Dominion of Canada has ever had within her borders. The great trial will take place on Sept. 18 at Woodstock. It will be presided over by Judge MacMahon, one of the ablest men on the bench in the Dominion. The probability is that there will be considerable difficulty in getting a jury because the case has been so widely canvassed that nearly everybody has not only learned something of the facts, but is known to have expressed himself as to the prisoner's guilt or innocence, thus making him an undesirable juror from the point of view of one side or the other. To avoid the contingency of a failure to convene a jury at all, County Crown Attorney Ball has arranged for summoning of 72 jurymen for the Assizes. This is 34 more than is usually summoned. Mrs. Burchell, the young and charming wife of J. Rex Burchell has remained in Woodstock ever since her husband was arrested. Her sister Mrs. West-Jones came out from England and is staying with her. They visit her frequently. The prisoner is comfortably quartered. He is seemingly possessed of marvellous nerve, and is taking things very coolly. Mr. G. T. Blackstock, Q. C., is his counsel. Colonel Banwell, father of the murdered man, is on his way here from England. The chief witness Douglas R. Pelly, is at present in California, but will arrive here shortly. She whereabouts of Neville Fitchell, whose name has been prominently mentioned in connection with the mysterious affair, cannot, according to present accounts, be located. He will probably turn up in time for the trial. Public opinion seems to be veering round in Burchell's favor, and his friends, and those engaged by the defence are confident of his honorable acquittal. The New York World talks of sending a committee to be sent a number of keen-scented detectives to Canada to sift the matter to the very bottom. There will be seventy or eighty witnesses and the trial may take a week. Without a doubt this most mysterious murder case is exciting a tremendous lot of interest. Woodstock promises to be thronged with curious visitors from all parts of the continent, special correspondents and artists. The line of defence is a subject of general speculation. It is naturally not announced. One thing is pretty clear, however—there will be no attempt to prove an alibi and the case will go upon the merits of the evidence collected by the two sides.
