Earlier Closing.

Now that there is a movement on foot here to close saloons at 8 p.m. every day, it may be interesting to know what is being done in the Province of Quebec. At Montreal last Monday Alderman Carter welcomed the delegates to the Quebec Branch of the Dominion Alliance. In the course of his remarks he said:-

"As regards results they were glad to say that on May 1 next there would be a general early closing movement throughout the Province, except in Montreal and Quebec. The bars would close at 7 p.m. on Saturdays, and 10 p.m. the remainder of the week. They had secured something for Montreal, however, in legislation providing that saloons should not open in the morning until 7 a.m. whereas at the present time they could open at 5 a.m. The City Council passed a motion approving of this legislation. They would close at 11 p.m. each night."

It is evident from this quotation that Newfoundland law is much more stringent than the law of Quebec.

Diphtheria at Synod Building and Mt. Cashel.

Saturday afternoon the discovery was made that one of the young lady pupil teachers residing at the C. E. Synod Building had developed typhoid fever, and yesterday afternoon it was found that two other young ladies pupil teachers at the same institution had been stricken with diphtheria. Both diseases are of a mild type, and the other pupils in the building, 18 in number, have been isolated and given preventive doses of anti-toxin, so that it is hoped no others will become affected with the disease.

Saturday also, Dr. Mitchell on visiting Mount Cashel made the discovery that three of the orphan boys were suffering from diphtheria of a more or less mild type, while five others were slightly affected, their illness partaking of the nature of sore throat. The boys who are suffering from the disease and the others who are slightly affected were immediately isolated and Drs. Brehm and Mitchell yesterday administered preventive doses of anti-toxin to the remainder of the lads, about 100 in number, who it is believed may escape infection as a result of this treatment.

Messrs. Woodfine and Crews, the last of the typhus fever patients kept there, were released from the Fever Hospital on Forest Road this morning, being perfectly cured, and to-day the hospital is being thoroughly fumigated and disinfected so that the Mt. Cashel boys and the patients at the Synod Building can be removed there. Both institutions are under strict quarantine and no new cases have to date developed in them. All will hope that the disease at both institutions will be confined to its present limits.

The two patients suffering from diphtheria at the General Hospital have been removed to the Signal Hill Hospital, but the nurses suffering from it are yet in the Hospital and they will be sent to the Fever Hospital also when it is ready for them.

Died at Buffalo.

Mrs. Patrick Kennedy, of Topsail Road, Expires Suddenly on Street.

While returning from devotions at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Edward Street last night shortly after nine o'clock, Mrs. Patrick Kennedy, 37 years old, of No. 277 Prospect Avenue, was stricken by heart failure at Virginia Street and West Avenue and died a few moments after in the home of Peter W. Goetz, at No. 92 West Avenue.

As she lay in the street Mrs. Kennedy asked that a priest be called, and the Rev. Charles E. Duffy, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, arrived in time to administer the last rites of the church to the woman before she died.

Heart Had Been Weak. Dr. Thomas F. Dwyer, of No. 89 West Avenue, who was called when passers-by came to the assistance of Mrs. Kennedy, said that he had been treating the woman for heart trouble for some time. A mission is being conducted at the church this week for the women of the parish, and Mrs. Kennedy has been attending the exercises every morning and night.

When she left her home last night shortly after seven o'clock for the church, Mrs. Kennedy appeared to be in good health. After falling in the street she was strong enough to tell who gathered about her who she was and to ask that Dr. Dwyer and the priest be called. Father Duffy had her taken to the Goetz home.

Mrs. Kennedy lived alone with her husband, there being no children in the family. Medical Examiner Danvers viewed the body, and after issuing a certificate of death from heart failure turned it over to the undertaker.—Buffalo Ex., March 12.

The deceased lady was the wife of Mr. Patrick Kennedy of this city, and was a daughter of Mrs. Dunne of the well-known hostelry of Topsail Road. Mr. Kennedy, who had been in the American naval service for 25 years, accompanied the remains of his wife to the city, arriving by the express to-day. She was well known and liked in the community and her many friends will learn of her sudden demise with regret, while general sympathy will go out to the bereaved husband and her relatives.

A Nocturnal Thief.

At 11:45 Saturday night Mr. Blackler, who lives on Leslie Street, was awakened by a noise at the front door of his house and going to the window found a drunken man trying to open his door. He ordered the man away and he went. Later he came to the back door, which being frozen was open, and he was again told to quit. He went, after a while, but yesterday morning Mr. Blackler found that his rain coat, left hanging in the lower hall, had been stolen. Mr. Blackler has a strong suspicion that the prowler took it and reported the matter to the police yesterday.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

In the police court to-day a disorderly and a drunk were discharged. Two drunks were fined $1 or 5 days each. A disorderly was fined $5 or 14 days and another $2.50 or 10 days.

Father Fyme III.

News reached the city yesterday of the rather serious illness of Rev. Father Fyme, P. P., of St. Bride's. The rev. gentleman has been suffering for several days past of an affection of the throat, and Dr. J. B. Lynch has gone from Placentia to attend him. The many friends of Father Fyme here will hope to learn soon of his speedy restoration to health.

Memorial Service at George St. Church.

The late Mrs. Ayre's memorial service was held last evening in George St. Methodist Church. It was a very solemn and impressive occasion. The very building seemed to put on consciousness and become resonant with voices from behind their veil which separates the material from the spiritual realm. A special exhibition of reverence and sanctity seemed to be resting upon the large numbers that attended the service as they entered the building and were conducted to their seats. The Communion was draped with mourning material and the respected pastor of the church with Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite occupied the dais. After the preliminaries the Rev. Mr. Bartlett arose and announced Watts' old familiar and most suitable hymn:

"O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come," &c.
After prayer by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite read the Scripture lesson in a most pathetic manner, and then was sung by the choir and congregation the old inspiring hymn, by Montgomery:

"Forever with the Lord,
Amen so let it be," &c.

Doctor Cowperthwaite then turned his face to the large audience and tremulously announced as his subject the 25th and 26th verses of the Gospel by St. John. It was no doubt a tax upon the emotional nature of the venerable Doctor just at this moment, with memories of the past crowding in upon him, to continue the service. It was a very solemn moment and the vast congregation listened with the profoundest attention to the discourse that was to follow. It is perhaps sufficient to say that the whole discourse was fraught with lessons for the living and fragrant with pathetic reference to the consistent and useful life of the dear one who had just passed away.

Rev. Mr. Bartlett also made some touching references to the devoted life of the late Mrs. Ayre, and, although not being in a position to speak from personal knowledge as Dr. Cowperthwaite, he was pleased to be able to speak of her consistent life and devoted services when they were needed in any good cause. There must have been one great throb of thankfulness running through the whole service for a future so bright with hope and cheer to those who place their lives on the altar of service and live and die in the faith.—Com.

Mr. Grace Notes.

At the "At Home" of the teachers and scholars of the High School held at St. Paul's yesterday afternoon, the handsome sum of $45.46 was realized. This amount goes to the building fund of new school.

The play "Trelawney as it is" which was performed at the Academy Hall last night was well patronized, the hall being full. The performers went through their different parts in a most creditable way. We hear the play will be repeated after Easter.

Mr. Theodore Parsons, who had been at New York for some months returned by Thursday's train. We welcome our young townsman back home and trust that a very successful career lies before him.

The British Band went to Carbonate yesterday to furnish music for the parade of the Irish Society. The day was very fine, and was much enjoyed.

Mr. Arthur Grubert of Montreal, who is visiting here, expects to leave on Tuesday next. Mr. Grubert's large number of old acquaintances were pleased to meet him and enjoyed a social chat. It is twenty one years ago since Mr. G. left here, but so retentive is his memory that he could call to mind the faces of all the residents in middle life he met. We wish Mr. G. a continuation of the success that has been his in the past.

Mrs. John L. Oke went to St. John's on Thursday morning to spend a few days with relations and friends.

Several young men left here on Thursday for British Columbia where they have been engaged to work at a whaling concern there. The wages they say is $50 per month and found.

Mr. H. Simmons, who had been at home for a few weeks with his family left on Tuesday for the scene of his summer's work, on a coastal boat sailing between New Brunswick and New York.

The funeral of the late George Makinson takes place this afternoon on arrival of the train from Briggs. CORRESPONDENT.

TRAPS OUT ALREADY.—Several fishermen of Petty Harbor, put out their trap leaders yesterday in order to hold the berths.

WILL GO NORTH AGAIN.—The s.s. Stella Maris will sail north again on Wednesday next, taking mails and passengers. She will go as far as Fogo.

SEVERAL HOUSES FLOODED.—Owing to the mild weather of yesterday the snow on the upper part of the South Side melted quickly and the water rushed into the rear doors of houses and people had to take up their mats and canvas and cut holes in the floors so that the water could escape. A good deal of damage was done.

THE BEAR AGAIN.—The polar bear has been seen again, this time at Horse Cove. The two Millers with guns followed it to the cliff at Little Freshwater Cove. Here the animal went on the brink of the cliff and the snow founded, taking Bruin down to the landwash. He split a forked birch in two in his descent. The men were unable to follow him over the cliff and had to give up the chase.
