Special Notice.

We take pleasure in announcing the appointment of Mr. Richard C. Power as our Newfoundland Representative for the sale of one of the most attractive securities that we have marketed during the long period of forty years in which we have served the investing public.

We refer to the 7 per cent. Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Maritime Mail Company, Limited, a prosperous corporation operating at St. John, N.B., with the largest output of any single mill of its kind in Canada.

This issue is unusually well secured by assets appraised at $150 for every $100 share of Preferred Stock, exclusive of the amount covering the Bonds outstanding. The earnings record of the Issuing Company is alike exceptionally strong and rapidly expanding under the present efficient management. Two other desirable features are the 50 per cent. Common Stock Bonus and the alternative plans of payment, cash or installment.

A fully descriptive circular has already been mailed to our many Newfoundland patrons. We advise these friends of ours and all other interested persons to immediately get in touch with Mr. Power from whom additional copies of the circular and further particulars may be had. His office address is given below.

On Being Friendship-Selfish.

By RUTH CAMERON.

have to seek me out; I don't bother much with them."

He said it proudly.
He evidently thought he was showing how superior he was.

I think he should have said it sadly, because he was acknowledging a lack in himself.

It is a common idea—this notion that one is fortunate when one receives more love than one gives.

A great many people seem to take pride in realising that this or that friend cares more for them than they for him. It is the same feeling that makes a woman proud of having excited a love which she cannot return, and ashamed of loving when she is not loved. And it is just as wrong and cheap a conception of the great force of love.

The love a human being can feel is a far better measure of his character than the love he can excite.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive" is as true of love and friendship as of any material gift.

It is blessed to have a friend; it is far more blessed to be one.

Like mercy, friendship is twice blessed; it blesses him that gives and him that takes. But contrary to the common belief, it is he that gives who gets the most out of it.

It is, of course, a legitimate reason for pleasure and pride to know that one is the object of another human being's admiration, respect, affection and whatever other feelings go to make up the wonderful sentiment of friendship.

But on the other hand it is an even greater reason for pride to know that one is sufficiently capable of recognizing and appreciating another human being's value to feel that wonderful sentiment of friendship for him.

The fewer people a man cares about, the fewer people there are who can hurt him, argues the man who is proud that there are few people who count with him.

True. And the fewer, who can make him happy, the fewer who can stimulate and inspire him, and generally help him to expand into his highest self, as the true friend will.

It is as foolish for a man to rejoice that he cares for very few people as it would be for a tree, to be glad that it had few roots.

Moreover, the self-sufficient man is sure to be the self-centered man. It is only through realising our need of others that we understand their need of us.

Don't be afraid to love. And by love I mean love in the bigger sense in which it includes friendship and all kinds of love, as well as the love between the sexes. It may bring you some suffering, but it will bring you infinitely more of happiness.

Don't be ashamed to love. He who loves most has the most reason to be proud.

Ruth Cameron

The Orchestra

The orchestra is a collection of willing, intrepid performers who are hired by the week and can give a program fully that long without experiencing the least inconvenience.

Owing to the fact that the people of this country would rather hear the feverish staccato of the stock ticker and the languorous voice of the coupon bond than sit down in some red plush upholstered and listen to several reams of contrapuntal ecstasy, very few orchestras are able to keep alive without being bolstered up by the idle rich. It is not for rich people who love music and buy orchestra stock without trying to squeeze dividends out of a Glee concerto, you could count on the third finger of the right hand the number of people who could tell the Peer Gyn suit from a sale of bed room furniture.

The orchestra cannot be trusted to play alone, but has to be led by somebody who can read notes and keep the slide trombones from stepping on the heels of the second violins. The conductor is also obliged to supply large quantities of rhythm, tempo, nuance, accelerando, fortissimo and other trimmings, and he usually carries a larger stock of fortissimo than anything else. This is hard work, especially when some instrument refuses to get within speaking distance of the pitch and emits a long solo in a flat and lugubrious tone of voice.

As a rule, the orchestra jockies the most severe grade of classical music it can wrap itself around, which causes large numbers of thirty enthusiasts who buy season tickets because they are cheaper by the yard to perspire with great earnestness. Occasionally the orchestra will throw in a popular concert and outrage the musical sensibilities of the elect by perpetrating the Blue Danube waltz, but this is not allowed to happen often.

The orchestra sallies forth every spring and accompanies the volunteer college chorus while it assaults some inoffensive cantata. This is good exercise for an orchestra, for it runs into several kinds of time which it never met before.

There is an elegant programme arranged for to-night, when the Roseleys will appear in a Scotch act. Those talented performers last night delighted one of the largest audiences that has appeared for some time, the theatre being simply packed to witness one of their splendid acts. There is one thing about the Roseleys, they are original, and even if they repeat an act it is never put on twice alike, for they are both versatile performers and can switch and change an act round to be new all the time. They have been specially asked to present a Scotch act. There are acts booked, and a novelty in a short while that will astonish the town. Jack and Marie Roseley have been in the business since their childhood, and are therefore in touch with the best and latest of everything in the amusement line. To-night's show will be a pleasant change. Yours truly, will be there with his wooden leg.

Baseball.

One of the fastest and most interesting games of baseball for the season, took place yesterday on St. John's Field, which was well sprinkled with on-lookers. The result was a victory for the Red Lions by five runs to two. The players were: Red Lions—Batteries: Anderson, D. Duff; 1st base, Ross; 2nd base, Morris; 3rd base, P. Duff; shortstop, Curran; right field, Gowans; centre field, Jenkins; left field, Angel.

Umpires—Messrs. Dench and McNamara. Scorers—Messrs. Outerbridge and Feehan.

Brigade Football.

The C. L. B. and Highlanders competed in Tuesday evening's football match before a large gathering of on-lookers. A fairly good exhibition was given but the Church Lads were superior to their opponents and won by 3 goals to 0. The goals were scored by Winter and Andrews. The next brigade match—C. L. B. and C. C. B.—will be interesting, as the teams draw in their last game.

Band Concert.

The band concert given in Banner Park by the musicians of the Cumberland Evening was attended by fully 5,000 persons. The selected pieces discoursed by the band were excellently rendered and highly appreciated, especially a negro cello walk which all enjoyed. The men received much applause after each performance.

Many Go To Country.

Despite the threatening weather of Tuesday evening and yesterday many availed of the holiday to get a breath of country air, and outgoing trains were crowded. Over 500 left by the express Tuesday evening, 200 by the S. U. P. special for Bay Roberts at 8 a.m. yesterday, 200 by the regular at 8:45 and 150 by the excursion train at 2:30 p.m. yesterday, in all there were fully 1,200 people left by train. A double header bringing ten cars brought most of these to the city at 9:50 last night.
