ALL APPEALS FOR BELGIANS MUST BE OFFICIAL.

LONDON, To-day.
It is officially announced that in order to obtain better co-ordination in appeals on behalf of Belgians and to prevent waste of public generosity and effort, and the misapplication of funds obtained in response to such appeals, the Belgian and British Governments have decided to make arrangements for giving official recognition only to appeals approved by the two Governments. Official recognition is to be given in the form of a certificate issued by the Local Government Board. This certificate will be issued only after the Belgian Government has been consulted. The public, therefore, are advised not to subscribe to appeals on behalf of Belgians, not bearing the official certificate.

S. A. MAILS DETAINED.

LONDON, To-day.
A Reuter despatch from the Hague says the South American mail on board the Dutch steamer Galria, which sailed from Amsterdam on Feb. 2 for Buenos Ayres, has been detained at Falmouth.

DIPLOMAT FOUND DEAD.

LONDON, To-day.

bassy at London, formerly Second Secretary of the Italian Embassy at

SITUATION ON TIGRIS UNCHANG- ED.

LONDON, To-day.
According to a British official statement issued last night, late advices have been received from the Commander of the troops in Mesopotamia, Lieut. General Lake, to the effect that the weather has cleared and that he has reports, dated Sunday, from General Aylmer, that the man of the relieving forces and General Townshend, whose troops are be-lieged at Kut el Amara, General Aylmer reports the situation unchanged. General Townshend reports a fight over Kut el Amara of an aero-plane which dropped two bombs without damage.

TRENCH FIGHTING.

LONDON, To-day.
The British official statement issued last night says: German wireless reports that 40 British prisoners were captured in fighting on the Tigris.
We have eleven men missing from this fighting of whom eight are believed to have been killed. These men were lost pursuing the Germans back into their trenches. Yesterday there were 17 lights in the air and as a result of one of them, a large hostile engine machine was driven down in the enemy's lines. The enemy has been very active mining south of La Bassee Canal. Seven mines were exploded by him in the past 24 hours in South Fosse. The mine explosions were preceded by a heavy bombardment and followed by a small infantry attack. A few men got into our front trench, but were immediately driven out by hand grenades.

PENSION PLAN FOR FISHERMEN'S WIDOWS.

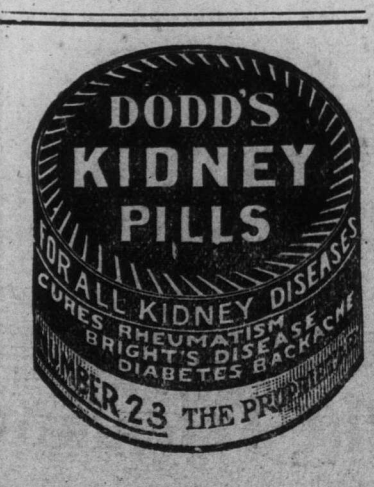

LONDON, To-day.
The Board of Trade announced a pension plan whereby widows of fishermen killed in the war, will receive £300 and an additional £25 for each child under 14 years of age, while the wife of any fisherman who is interview will receive one pound weekly.

ENLIST 100,000 WOMEN FARMERS.

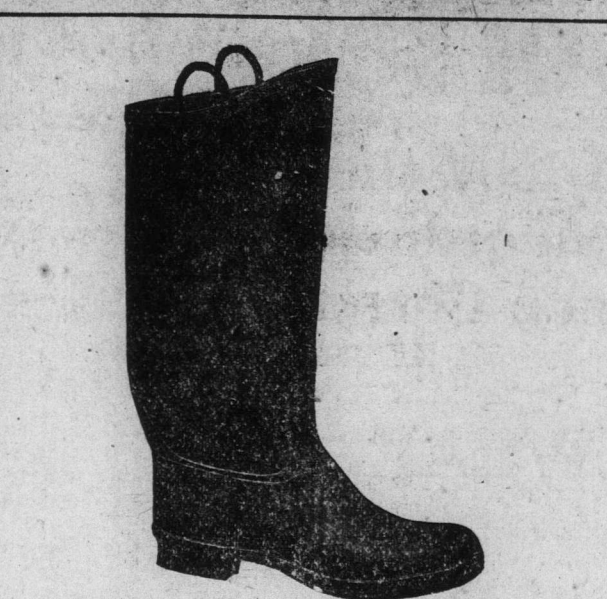

LONDON, To-day.
In an endeavor to overcome the difficulty caused by the shortage of men for farm work, the Government has decided, says the Daily News, to insurgate a campaign to recruit women for this work. Recruiting will be along popular lines which has had success getting for the army. A proposed armist will be issued to women willing to undertake farm work, and they also will be entitled to wear a special uniform. Every village in the country will be canvassed by committees of women. It is hoped by the canvass to raise a body of 400, 000 women who are ready to engage in agricultural work.

AIR DEFENCE UNDER FRENCH.

LONDON, To-day.
It seems that the Government has no intention of yielding to the agitation in favor of creating an aviation ministry, charged with the defence of the country against air attacks. It is stated the Government instead has decided to institute a great air defence department with headquarters at Whitehall, under Field Marshal

PREMIER BRIAN'S APPRECI- ATION OF ITALY.

PARIS, To-day.
Aristide Briand, the French Premier, arrived at Paris last night from a visit to Italy. Later he received a number of political leaders and told them how deeply he had been touched by the reception accorded him by King Victor Emmanuel and the Italian Government and people.

ITALY EXPECTED TO DECLARE WAR ON GERMANY.

LONDON, To-day.
A rumor is current in political circles here, a Morning Post despatch from Rome says, that the Italian Government will declare war on Germany in March. The moral effect of such declaration upon Greece and Rumania, it is believed, will be considerable and would finally clear up certain difficulties with Italy's Allies. According to the Telegraph's despatch from Bucharest, negotiations are under way between Germany and Rumania for the purchase of supplies of grain which Rumania still has left. Germany said she had been prompted by Bulgaria to ask assurances from Rumania, says the correspondent. "The belief in the diplomatic circles is that Germany will adopt an aggressive attitude when she begins her attack on Salonika."

BELGIANS AND GERMANS FIGHT IN EAST AFRICA.

LONDON, To-day.
Advices to Reuter's state that, according to a wireless despatch received at Elizabethville, an action between Belgians, who are invading German East Africa in the Lake Kivu district, and a German force which opposed them, resulted in heavy losses on both sides. Details are lacking, but it is said that the fighting still continues.
The Belgians, the despatches say, attacked a German post situated well across the frontier and captured several trenches which the Germans had dug, and which the latter afterwards succeeded in re-occupying.

they may deliver lectures to the troops and civilians, giving their impressions of the part Great Britain is really playing in the waging of the war. The commission includes Nemirovich Danchenko, the veteran war correspondent; Russkoyevov Yegoroff, the foreign editor of the Novoye Vremya, and Count Alexis Tolstol, a leading

BELOW THE STANDARD.

How do you feel to-day?
Not quite right? Energy a little below standard—not strong enough to make much exertion? perhaps a slight cough?

Nyal's Cod Liver Compound is what you need.
Don't get frightened about those words "Cod Liver." You'd never know it from the taste.

It's a real tonic containing cod liver extract, extract of malt, wild cherry and hypophosphites—a splendid combination.
The cod liver extract builds you up —so does the extract of malt. The wild cherry soothes the bronchial tract and the hypophosphites supply phosphorus to the nervous system—just the thing it needs.
And the taste is pleasant.

As an all round tonic, strength restorer and body-builder you'll find nothing better than Nyal's Cod Liver Compound—so why look further?
You will be pleased.
The price is one dollar.

Closing of Archangel a Serious Matter.

New York, Feb. 7.—The warnings sent out with reference to vessels leaving Archangel before the end of the year appear to have been well justified, as it is understood that something like a hundred steamers have been caught in the ice through remaining at Archangel too long. It is reported that about 70 British steamers requisitioned by the Admiralty have been frozen in and will probably remain there until next May. Five or six vessels of the Russian Volunteer Fleet are also imprisoned. By the time the White Sea is open to shipping in the spring huge quantities of munitions which are piling up in New York will present a serious problem.
It is feared, therefore, that efforts are being made by the Russian transport agents to keep back goods at the place of their manufacture until trade is resumed in the spring, thus avoiding more congestion at the already crowded terminals.

Turks Slay 1700 Prisoners of War.

Lord Bryce Brings to Light Another Horrible Story of Moslem Atrocities.

London, January 23.—Murad of Sivas, Armenian leader of the Province of Sivass, Asia Minor, in an interview just received here from Tiflis, gives an account of the treatment by the Turks of the Armenian population in Asia Minor, in which are many new details.

Murad, who is a well known warrior, fought his way out of Sivass, reaching Tiflis in December. His story, which is made public by Viscount Bryce, who vouches for the reliability of the source, is in substance as follows:
"Out of 160,000 Armenians inhabiting the province of Sivass there remained when Murad left only some 10,000 who had been spared either as useful artisans or because they were old. The remaining people, Murad declared, were either massacred directly or deported to the area between Euphrates River and Northern Mesopotania.

"For disarming the Armenians, the Turks, according to Murad, employed various methods of torture. In Khourakhon, he declares, one man was actually shot like a horse and another killed by putting a red hot iron crown on his head. At Habesh, 3,800 Armenians were put to a pole-axe or stone, he asserts. At Herag the men were killed and the young women carried away, while 600 children were detained by the Walli. Murad adds, possibly to be converted to Islam. Many young women went mad and others committed suicide.

One incident, according to the narrator, greatly embittered the relations between the Armenians and the Turks.
Seventeen hundred Russian prisoners of war, captured by the Turks, were brought to Sivass in a deplorable condition. The Russian soldiers of Moslem origin had been released, most of those of Armenian nationality killed and the other Russians stripped of their clothing. The Armenians provided comforts for the prisoners which caused resentment among the Moslems, Murad states. Despite the Armenian efforts, he adds, only 70 survived out of the contingent of 1,700.

cert to-morrow night in aid of
