A Poetess Speaks.

ONE WOMAN'S BELIEF IN UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING.

A Member of the Vigilantes, a Committee Composed of Well Known Authors and Literary Folk, States Her War Litany—extract from Poem.

Following is the patriotic creed of the well known poetess Marion Couthy Smith.

I believe in universal military training

and service for the following reasons:

First.—Because I believe in democracy, and I cannot honorably have the privileges of a free government unless I am willing to fulfill its obligations. Equal rights imply equal responsibilities.

Second.—Because I believe in a citizen soldiery rather than a large standing army. The latter is essentially an autocratic institution and is the only form of service that may degenerate into that sort of predominance and service for the following reasons:

Third.—Because the volunteer system has been proved inadequate in national emergencies. It involves inequalities in service, in privilege, in caste, in responsibility and in opportunities for training. We must apply democracy to service and make readiness a part of every man's life from the start.

Fourth.—Because the system of universal training has succeeded in other countries, notably Switzerland, and has been conducive to peace rather than war.

Fifth.—Because a woman must raise her son to be a man, and that implies, when he is full grown, his own control over his own destiny and his individual fulfilment of his duties and obligations. If his duty calls him to be a soldier he is in less danger, if he is physically and mentally trained from boyhood, than if he were left unprepared and unfit. The potential soldier is the better man in any position.

Sixth.—Because, if it is the part of every man to hold his life at stake for protective duty to the state, it is the part of every woman to hold her life's treasures at stake for the same duty. She has no right in time of peril to live under the protection of other women's sons. She must give active help and personal sacrifice. To shirk individual obligation is to incur an individual penalty in the loss of self respect and spiritual force.

Here is one of Miss Smith's latest poems:

TO THE MOTHERS.
Mothers of men, do you not know
What you gave to the world in your hour of woe?
Born of courage, and doomed to stress,
A man for the tasks of men—no less!
Mothers of women, can you not feel

What all the signs of your life reveal?

You have brought forth love, with its sword and fire,
And love's high crown is the lost desire.

Mothers of men, have you not known
That the soul of the child is not your own?

If God has sealed him for pain and cross,
To hold him close were your bitter loss.

Mothers, mothers, will you not see
All that your gift to the world may be?
These who must fight a wrong
Are Michael's angels, who bear the sword.

Mothers of men, then loose your hold!
Love grants more than your arms in fold.

Under the cross you stand apart,
With Mary's sword in your dauntless heart.
