Britain Day Celebration!

UNITED STATES EN
FETE SATURDAY.Pershing's Tribute to British Army---Serious Food Situation in Berlin---Proposal to Boycott Germany.PERSHING'S TRIBUTE TO BRITISH ARMS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.
General Pershing in a cablegram sent by Mr. Parker, said: "Steadfast in adversity, wounded with a hand and wounds, Great Britain's blows never weakened her spirit. But for the tenacity of her army the war would have been lost.
Those of us who have been associated with them and fought with their gallant troops, words of praise are inadequate to express our admiration. These things our kinsmen have done have brought inseparable glories between them and ourselves.
We are right hand in friendship, and our two nations may be more closely linked together to ensure the peace of the world."

BOSTON'S HONOR TO BRITAIN.

BOSTON, Dec. 7.
Capt. A. F. Carpenter, who commanded the British cruiser Vindictive during the raid upon the German submarine base at Zeebrugge, and the sisters and men of the British crusade are now in the city, were guests of the city to-day at a celebration honoring Great Britain's army in the war. The British naval were welcomed by Mayor Peters and a programme of entertainment was carried out. British flags were displayed throughout the

MUNICH ALSO PAYS TRIBUTE.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 7.
The South paid tribute to-day to the British Empire has played in the world war. Mass meetings at which speakers told of the effort of the nation and of the deeds of bravery performed by the soldiers and sailors marked the celebration.

BRITAIN'S APPRECIATION.

AUGUSTA, Maine, Dec. 7.
Greetings of the British Government on Britain's Day were received to-day by a cablegram from Foreign Secretary Arthur J. Balfour to Governor McMillen. The message, dated Monday, follows: "His Majesty's Government is deeply touched by the celebration that has reached them and it has been officially decided to celebrate Dec. 7th as Britain's Day throughout the United States and to desire to express to the Government of the States of the Union and those associated with them their thanks for this courteous expression of friendship. The celebration which His Majesty's Government graciously acknowledges is a welcome proof that the same spirit of British nations have fought and suffered side by side in the struggle for justice and liberty will continue to unite them in the coming days of peace. Strong in the knowledge of the friendship the British people can have confidence all the problems of a new era may have in store."

COME OVER AND HELP US.

LONDON, Dec. 7.
(British Wireless Service.)—The British of Livonia, Estonia and Courland have sent an appeal to Allied and neutral governments urging intervention in the Baltic provinces against the invasion of Russian Bolsheviki forces, according to a telegram from Copenhagen. The Bolsheviki who have invaded part of the provinces are killing and burning as they advance. The various ports of the provinces are filled with fugitives in anticipation of the arrival of Allied and neutral warships to protect them.

BERLIN'S FOOD SITUATION.

JOHANNESBURG, Dec. 7.
(Via Reuter's.)—A note issued in Berlin, concerning the food reserves, says that under the most favorable circumstances there will only be enough bread stuffs after February 7 for a daily ration of eighty grammes, which is one-third the present ration.
The note says that the death rate continues to increase in Berlin, while in October, 1918, the number of women who died was more than 3,000.

HOW GERMANY MUST NOT PAY.

LONDON, Dec. 7.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—
Speaking at Plymouth, Sir Auckland Geddes, a member of the Coalition Government, said that whatever else Germany might pay in discharging the cost of the war, she must not be allowed to pay in manufactured goods dumped on Great Britain. "It were better," he said, "to run the risk of Germany failing to pay a part of the cost of the war than to receive her manufactured goods which would crush out British industries and lead to a lowering of wages beyond living limits. Germany would pay with such gold as she has, also with such material as we can wring from her. She could pay in labor in restoring the damage she wrought in France and Belgium. She will have no colonies when the Allies had done with this business."

WANT INTERNATIONAL JURY.

PARIS, Dec. 7.
The formation of an international jury to try the former German Emperor, is gaining wide support in France, the Matin says.

SHOULD BE IN PEACE TERMS.

MANCHESTER, Dec. 7.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)— Sir John Simon, ex-Attorney General, in the course of a speech delivered here, said that the peace terms should include the obligation on Germany's part to produce the Kaiser before an international tribunal.

BOYCOTTING THE ENEMY.

JOHANNESBURG, Dec. 7.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—
At a special meeting of the Witwa-terrand Commercial Exchange, it was resolved to exclude from membership or representation on the Exchange, any person or firm of enemy nationality. It was also resolved to urge the Government, the Chamber of Mines and the Witwatersrand Municipalities not to purchase goods of enemy origin for at least five years after the war.

DEMAND PUNISHMENT.

CAPTOWN, Dec. 7.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—

Meetings have been held in a number of centers, at which resolutions were adopted, strongly protesting against the ill-treatment of Allied war prisoners by Germany, and demanding punishment for those responsible.

WONDERFUL.

MUNICH, Dec. 7.
(By the A.P.)—The interview with Frederick William, the former Crown Prince, obtained by the Associated Press, was published here in part today and has drawn out displays of anger from the local press. "If the former Crown Prince really made such statements he has done his reputation a bad service," says the Neueste Nachrichten. "His belated excuses and attempts to clear himself make such a disgusting impression that no one will need to grieve over his flight to Holland."

RAILWAY MEN SATISFIED.

LONDON, Dec. 7.
(British Wireless Service.)—Leaders of railway men in the United Kingdom, express satisfaction that the Government has agreed to the principle of an eight-hour day and to the appointment of a committee to review wages and other conditions. J. H.
Thomas, General Secretary of the National Union of Railway Men, declared that the settlement reached Friday reflected great credit upon the Government and showed a desire to get over a real difficulty, which was a good augury for the future.

A BAVARIAN APPOINTMENT.

MUNICH, Dec. 6.
(By the A.P.)—Professor Ludo Brentano, of Munich University, widely known as an economist, has been appointed "People's Commissioner for Trade and Industry" in the new Bavarian State. The police have issued an order that all German flags still flying be removed in the interests of quiet and public order.

SCHWAB RESIGNS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.
The resignation of Chas. M. Schwab, as Director General of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, was accepted today by President Wilson in a wireless message from the transport "George Washington" to the White House.

INSURANCE COMPANIES HIT.

HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 7.
The tabulation of insurance policies paid by reason of deaths from pneumonia and influenza in October and November, completed here to-day, shows that life insurance companies with their home offices in Hartford, paid out more than $4,000,000 throughout the United States.

THE WOMEN TO TAKE A HAND.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.
A demand that officials of the Central Powers responsible for the mistreatment of French and Belgian women and girls during the war be punished, and that the peace conference at Paris recognize the victims as honorably wounded in behalf of their country instead of social outcasts, and that action be taken which will render such outrages impossible in the future, was formulated by the Executive Committee of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union which closed its annual session here today. It is planned to have six million American women sign a petition to this effect for presentation to the peace conference through President Wilson. A committee was appointed to take the petition to President Wilson at Paris.

FATAL COLLISION.

PARIS, Dec. 7.
(Havas.)—Thirty persons were killed and fifty injured to-day, when a train carrying soldiers on leave, collided with another train near Chateau Raux.

An officer on one of the interned submarines, who said he was in London two months before the war, attempted to defend the submarine war to a correspondent. He said: "You British say it was not fair fighting, but we Germans believe that the end justifies the means. Then you complain that we shoot your men while they are in the water. Why not? The men might be saved and fight us another day. We should be fools to let them." The crew of one submarine, with the exception of an officer, were all intoxicated.

Clean the Streets.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—The heavy fall of snow brings with it many hardships to the pedestrian which should be regulated and improved by the police in conjunction with the Municipal Council.

I refer to the narrow paths in the centre of the streets, especially side streets and on the higher levels, which are used by horses and pedestrians alike. Hundreds of accidents were averred yesterday because of the willingness of the people to be forced into the deep snow by the drivers of horses who in the majority of instances showed an inclination to "run over" any person who did not get off the narrow beaten path.

In a large number of streets the sidewalks have not been cleared since the snowfall and people were compelled to use the centre of the street.

I witnessed many cases yesterday where drivers of horses scattered peo-

If it is a question as to who should use the beaten path the decision should always be in favor of the pedestrian.

Women who take their babies out in sleighs have an especially anxious time as they know that if they cannot manage to get their sleigh off the beaten track their child is likely to be crushed under the onrushing horse.

It is not because we have been submitting to this abominable practice for a generation that it should ever be so.

It is time to call a halt. The police can help and citizens can help by imitating the action of Mr. LeMessurier who last year summoned a driver before court and a fine was imposed for forcing him into the deep snow.
The Council can help matters by using snow ploughs to widen the path.

Yours truly,
PEDESTRIAN.

Obituary.

VIOLET FOWLER.

There passed peacefully away at her home in Chamberlains, the 1st inst. Violet, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler. Deceased was suffering from meningitis, and although everything possible was done to relieve the sufferer, yet in two short weeks death claimed its victim.
Violet was a special favourite in her home and among her friends and many hearts sigh when they think of the bright young life, so soon to be taken from our midst, yet each one knows that our loss is heaven's gain. Violet was a true Christian, and died in the true faith of the English Church. Her remains were laid to rest in the C. of E. Cemetery, Topsail, Rev. Mr. Pittman officiating. To the heart-broken mother and father, two sisters and three brothers the community tenders sincere sympathy.
