ENGLAND'S SERIOUS FINANCIAL CONDITION.

LONDON, Oct. 20. A movement for payment of part of the war debt by a general levy on war profits, started recently, has grown to such volume that it promises to command much attention from Parliament, which will reassemble on Wednesday. Several of the leading newspapers, headed by the Times, and financial journals, have citizens of all classes are flooding the press with letters. While the project may seem revolutionary finance, the country appears to be gaining conviction that some radical measures other than mere attempts to economy must be adopted to meet the financial situation. This proposal has supertal, which was much discussed during the past year. The pith of the Tenders will be received up to 12 ing the past year. The pith of the clock neon on Thursday, 23rd inst., new plan is to take away from manufor the purchase of one bale containing Cambric, Scrim, Cretonne and others who made fortunes in the war, sums representing the difference be-Co., and ordered to be sold for the benefit of whom it may concern. In- normal gains. Through war excess ventory and goods may be seen at income, taxes took eighty per cent. of office of undersigned. Envelopes to be extra profits, and it is now proposed marked "Tenders for Cottons." to take all.
