ANGLICAN BISHOP OF OTTAWA PLEADS FOR A BETTER

Ottawa, May 30-An appeal for the help of the clergy and laity in promoting better home life, in discouraging the idea of childless homes and for assistance in the fight against social diseases was contained in the annual charge given last night by BishopRoper, Anglican Bishop of Ottawa, to the delegates to the Synod of the diocese of Ottawa.

The tragedies of many young lives were the result of broken homes and the clergy above all must hold high the precious British traditions of saved by preserving the home. His Lordship said that there were many the receiver and demanded: childless homes which should not be "Aye vant to talk to my vife." scence of children, and a breaking of sweetly, "Number please?"

It was a condition that all Chrisans must fight against.
