The Stag Bay Fiasco.

WATCHFUL RETURNS WITH OFFICIALS.

The S.S. Watchful, Captain Bragg, arrived from Stag Bay at 6.30 last evening, bringing the special Labrador police, Customs officials and a party of prospectors who went to the coast during the early season. The ship left here on June 15th, and arrived at her destination on the 23rd anchoring about 1 1/2 miles from the shore, near Big Brook Light. Ashore the police erected their headquarters and all arrangements were made for the anticipated gold rush, but it was a month later before the first prospectors arrived. Capt. Bragg reports that shore fishermen will have only half an average voyage. Fishermen, however, have done fairly well. At Cut Throat, James Wade of Conception Hr. has 800 quintals, others in that vicinity have done very little. At Indian Hr., Jerrett's four traps only average 100 quintals. At the Wolf Islands, where the fishery is nearly always good, traps have only 9 and 10 quintals, while the best only hauls for 140 quintals. There was good fishing at the Iron Bound and Ragged Islands and also at Cape Harrison. Coming south the Watchful passed a number of vessels in Grosse Water Bay all homeward bound and looking well fished. Among the passengers who returned were Sgt. Churchill and special police squad, Mr. Warwick Smith, Customs Collector at Stag Bay, and his assistants Messrs. Hickey and Coombs, F. P. LeGrow, Postmaster at Stag Bay and F. Cassen, F. Lapalme, F. R. May, Captain Jeffrey, Fred Clarke and Ogilvie.

Manslaughter.

Motor accidents and the resultant charge of "Manslaughter" are not always directly due to the motorist himself, but the "other fellow." Regardless of how careful a driver may be, a car coming the other direction or a hasty motorist trying to pass another machine on a thin stretch of the road is more often the reason of fatal collisions, etc.

It is hoped that every motorist will do his duty, that each one will respect the rights of the other and that everyone driving a car will respect human life or injury above any desire to get to a certain place in a short period of time.

"A doctor recently," quoted the Mayor to-day, "had to get to Philadelphia from Atlantic City in seventy-five minutes. As the distance is sixty miles it necessitated a violation of all speed laws. He didn't take into consideration that the pike was jammed with traffic as it always is and he stepped on the gas."

Near Hammonton he caused a lighter car into a ditch and a motor traffic cop nabbed him. He was brought before the Justice of the Peace. His defense was that being a physician he had to hurry to the bedside of a patient. The Justice told him that the next time he was in such a hurry to take a train. He was fined $100, with a promise of ten days' imprisonment if he violated the speed laws again.

"This doctor arrived in Philadelphia three and a half hours from the time he started at Atlantic City. Had he maintained a normal rate of speed he would have been in Philadelphia one hour and a half earlier. If the car he ditched had turned over and anyone fatally injured he would have been charged with 'Manslaughter' and would have reached Philadelphia three years later."

Knowing's have just received another shipment of the famous I.T.S. Rubber Heels, selling at the usual low prices; also a job line selling for 10c. and 15c. a pair, at KNOWLING'S SHOE STORES.—aug30,11

A Canadian Quotation.

Lord of the Lands, beneath Thy bending skies,
On field and flood, wh'er our banner flies,
Thy people lift their hearts to Thee,
Their grateful voices raise:
May our Dominion ever be
A Temple to Thy praise,
Thy will alone let all enthroned;
Lord of the Lands, make Canada Thine own.
Lord of the Lands, make Canada Thine own!
Almighty Love, by Thy mysterious power,
In wisdom guide, with faith and freedom dower;
Be ours a nation evermore,
That no oppression blights,
Where Justice rules from shore to shore,
From Lakes to Northern Lights,
May love alone for wrong atone;
Lord of the Lands, make Canada Thine own!
—From "O Canada," by A. D. Watson, Toronto.
