

PEPYS BEHIND THE SCENES.

July 16th.—Up botines and abroad, weather still warm, but much on the streets, enough to choke. Indeed, there do seem to be no by which this dust nuisance may be prevented, and so, we must suffer the nuisance. I do learn this day, the Cabal, having borrowed a million dollars temporarily, from the Bank of Montreal, will not bring in a bill this session, but will meet accounts due with the monies coming in daily. This a wise plan that will meet with the approval of all. The Elks tell me how he has news from and of Bell Island, that the company will not increase the men's wages, and this like to cause the possible trouble, seeing how the business of the island, and cause an increase in poverty and distress. Indeed, it do seem how this country is bound to suffer from misadventure, since now that better times near, labour troubles must come to affect them to some extent. I do hear this day, also, how Mr. Outerbridge, the Councillor, is mighty indignant, at the Elks of Philadelphia, that they lately visit here, conducted a band concert on our War Memorial, and some of their number acting at the same time like a buffoon. But Lord, name not these Elks so much, who of their ignorance, showed disrespect for the Memorial, but rather do I name the people that did stop to watch the performance, and made no effort to prevent it. And in this respect, there is a noticeable lack of reverence to the Memorial, and would be a wise thing if all men in passing, did lift their hats to it. To drive with power in his motor coach, but parts of LeMarchant Road, so covered with dirt that we did stick fast to it, all-mot, and Povey, being a careful fellow, would drive no more for the day.

Wedding Bells

DAY—EDWARDS.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at St. Thomas' Church yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, when Miss William Day of 22 Cochrane Street was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Mr. James D. Edwards of the Royal Stores, in the presence of many relatives and friends, the Rev. J. B. Elliott performing the ceremony.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. George House of Winter Avenue, was charmingly attired in a tawn suit with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair fern. She was attended as bridesmaid by her cousin, Miss Edith House, who wore a dress of peacock blue Canton crepe and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and carnations. The bride's mother, Mrs. Day, wore Radium Lace over black silk with grey hat. The groom was escorted by Mr. J. H. Scammell, M. H. A.

After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the bride's home where a sumptuous breakfast was served and a short toast list honoured the health of the bride and groom and the bride's mother being suitably proposed and responded to the wedding March from Mendelssohn being played by Miss Owen Edwards.

The groom's present to the bride was a cheque and to the best man, a pocket watch engraved. The bridesmaid to the bridesmaid was a French Ivory Mirror.

After the wedding breakfast, the whole party motored to the station where Mr. and Mrs. Edwards entrained for Placentia, where the honeymoon will be spent.

Present gifts were many and valuable, testifying to the high esteem and popularity of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards. The Telegram wishes Mr. and Mrs. Edwards many happy years of wedded bliss.
