British Cabinet Ministers Protected Against Violence

British and French Governments in Agreement on International Questions. Mutineers in the Soudan Courtmartialled and Shot.

HERRIOT AND CHAMBERLAIN REACH AGREEMENT.
PARIS, Dec. 5. Premier Herriot and Austen Chamberlain, British Secretary for Foreign Affairs in consultation here on affairs of mutual interest to their countries, came to an agreement this morning on the most urgent of the international questions that are interesting them. It was stated in authoritative quarters.

CABINET MINISTERS GUARDED.
LONDON, Dec. 5. British Cabinet Ministers and many other officials of state are going out their duties today accompanied by bodyguards of various proportions. Orders from the Home Secretary as precaution against violence by Egyptian sympathizers, whose alleged plots against these ministers have been disclosed. The secretary in Cairo of a plot in which the prime movers have been planning strikes against the British Ministers, was communicated to London yesterday and placed before the cabinet here. That body immediately took steps to safeguard itself and their concerned.

OFFICERS COURT-MARTIALLED AND SHOT.
CAIRO, Dec. 5. After a summary court-martial at Hartum, following the recent mutiny of a Sudanese battalion, four officers were sentenced to death and three of them were executed by shooting at dawn today. The sentence of the fourth was commuted to fifteen years' imprisonment.

U. S. VICE CONSUL SHOT.
BELGRADE, Jugoslavina, Dec. 5. Henry Dayton, United States Vice-Consul here, was shot and seriously wounded yesterday at his home by a young woman, who afterwards committed suicide by opening the veins in her forearms.

THE FRENCH DEBT.
LONDON, Dec. 5. The British Government, it is said in official quarters today, is expected to address a note to the United States and French Governments in the course of the next few days, requesting these governments to inform Great Britain what steps have been taken or are anticipated in settling the French war debt to the United States.

ADJOURNED UNTIL OFFICIAL OPENING.
LONDON, Dec. 5. The British House of Commons is adjourned from yesterday until the official opening next week.

ANXIOUS TO DIE.
HANOVER, Germany, Dec. 5. "I want to be dead before Christmas," is the insistent demand of Fritz Harman, a Hanover butcher, whose trial for the murder of twenty-seven young men since 1918 opened here yesterday.

THREE ESTHONIAN COMMUNISTS KILLED.
REVEL, Esthonia, Dec. 5. Three Communists, including ex-Deputy Somering of the Esthonian Parliament, were killed, and three policemen wounded, during a night-long siege by police of a house in which the participants of the recent Communist outbreaks had taken refuge. The house was surrounded last night and firing by both sides lasted until daybreak when the police effected an entrance.

BOSTON DISTRICT ATTORNEY DISMISSED.
BOSTON, Dec. 5. Robert C. Harris, United States District Attorney here, has been removed from office by President Coolidge. Following the announcement of Harris' dismissal two of the assistant District Attorneys have resigned. Harris had been under fire by the dry forces who have charged that he has been too lenient with liquor law offenders, but the grand jury after investigation recently declared these charges groundless and commended Harris for his work.

JAPAN'S AIM.
OTTAWA, Dec. 5. Japan is not preparing for war, but trying to improve her forces, intending to reduce expenditures on both her army and navy so as to have more funds to apply to the development of her air force, is the opinion of Major General J. H. MacDrien, chief of the general staff department of National Defence, who returned today from Japan where he has been the accredited representative of Canada at the Japanese army manoeuvres. General MacDrien did not think Japan was seeking any outlet for her population. The aim of the nation was to become a highly industrial country that could support all its population.

EXPLORER'S SHIP TO BE SOLD.
CHICAGO, Dec. 5. The ship Maud, formerly commanded by Captain Rogald Amundsen, who now plans an airplane dash across the Arctic region, is to be sold to the highest bidder when it reaches San Francisco. The Maud, which left Seattle in June, 1922, will start from the Arctic when the ice breaks next summer, for San Francisco, the explorer has announced.

Our Dumb Animals.
Report of Chief Agent for Week Ending Dec. 5, 1924.

Attended to the landing of 22 head of cattle for Moore & McLeod, from the Lisgar County. The cattle were taken in charge by the owners as soon as they were landed. Attended also to the landing of 102 head of cattle from S.S. Suchem, for the Abattoir Company. The cattle were in the pink of condition, and were taken charge of immediately by Mr. Halliday. Attended a sale of cattle at the Abattoir Company premises; the cattle were all removed immediately after sale. Great credit is due Mr. McKay for the interest he takes in having the cattle removed as soon as possible after sale. Received several complaints from gentlemen of the city, of teamsters riding on their loads against the hills. I interviewed the employers of these teamsters and they have promised that in the case of receiving any more complaints of this character, that they will dismiss the offenders and not take them back again. Owing to the weather this week the streets were very slippery. This put the teamsters and cabmen to great disadvantage, not having their horses sharpened, and was the cause of several minor accidents. The streets being in this slippery condition I interviewed several mercantile firms, with regard to having their horses to haul eight instead of ten barrels of flour, while the streets were in such a condition, to which some of them readily consented. I would appeal to all persons making their Christmas purchases, to do so as early as possible in order to save both horses and expressmen from unnecessary hardship. I am requested to locate a large bullock which broke loose from Harvey's wharf about a week ago, and which, I think, is in the neighbourhood of Major's Path. Any information that will lead to the recovery of same will be rewarded. I humanely destroyed a large ox on Harvey's wharf, which was very wild and hard to handle. I also humanely destroyed four domestic animals. The owners contributing to the Society. Will all owners of horses kindly secure waterproof covers to keep the wet and snow off their animals. Horses need it particularly express horses, when waiting for loads.

At the Nickel Monday

THE FRED NIBLO PRODUCTION
THY NAME IS WOMAN
BARBARA LA MARR AND NOVARRO BACK.

Villains in one of the biggest pictures of last season, they are now the hero and heroine of one of the biggest films of the new year. Barbara La Marr and Ramon Novarro, who both made their start to fame in Rex Ingram's "The Prisoner of Zenda," in which they were the conspirators, have got together again in the leading roles of "Thy Name is Woman," the Fred Niblo production presented by Louis B. Mayer through Metro, which is coming to the Nickel Theatre on Monday.

The impetus the two players received in popularity from the Ingram production has brought them both to "Thy Name is Woman" as stars. According to advance reports, the picture, which is a story of love and revenge in the Spanish Pyrenees, gives them their greatest acting opportunity yet.

Dance at Cambridge
A very enjoyable Newfoundland dance was held on Saturday evening, Nov. 22nd, at the Temple of Honor, Cambridge. Owing to the inclement weather, many were prevented from joining the happy throng; but those who braved the elements were well rewarded.

With the piano, violin and concertina to provide the familiar Newfoundland music, the couples entered into the spirit of the evening with evident enjoyment.

A representative of the Weekly was present and noticed amongst the gathering the following from the old homeland:—

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Dermandy, Mr. and Mrs. John Dermandy, Miss Helen Dermandy, Misses Catherine Margaret and Annie Brennan, James Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dawson, Martin Murphy, Miss Hazel Murphy, Miss Peggy White, Miss Catherine Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. J. McGrath, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Aylward, Richard Aylward, William Rowe, P. W. Foley, M. E. Maloney, Misses Mae and Catherine Devereux, and Peter Hollahan.

The dance was organized by Mrs. James P. Murphy and Mrs. P. F. Denmore, and all present voted the evening a success.

The same ladies have decided to organize another dance next Saturday evening, Nov. 29th, in the same hall, and will be glad to welcome all Newfoundlanders who wish to spend a pleasant evening, meeting old friends from home.—Nfld. Boston Weekly, Nov 29th.

Trustees—Bros. G. B. Lloyd, P.D.D., T. F. Thompson, P.D.D., and A. G. Williams, P.D.D.

Bro. A. G. Williams was elected delegate to Supreme Lodge, which opens in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, in August, 1925.

Famous Recipes for Home Cooking

CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S STEAK AND KIDNEY PIE.

(The favorite recipe of the famous comedian).
2 lbs. lean steak.
1 beef kidney.
1 small onion.

Cut the steak and kidney into two inch pieces, flour them, add salt and pepper to taste. Line a deep pie dish with rich pie crust, after having greased the dish with Crisco. Put an inverted egg cup in the center. Fill with meat and finely chopped onion. Add water almost to top of dish.

Roll pastry one-half inch thick and cover all. Make several small holes in pastry to permit steam to escape. Bake three hours in moderate oven. Rule for pastry: Proportions 1/2 cupful Crisco to 1 1/2 cupful flour, 1/2 teaspoonful salt and ice water to mix.

A Hand Rail and Repairs Needed

The attention of the Municipal Council is directed to the dangerous condition of the steps in the lane near the G.W.V.A. rooms and leading from Water to Duckworth Streets. In winter these steps are very slippery owing to being not regularly cleared of ice and snow, and the condition is not improved by the absence of a hand rail. To erect a hand rail would entail small expense and make the steps much safer for the many pedestrians who use them daily. Attention has been called several times to the unsafe condition of these steps. Loose boards which at the top of each incline project above the surface furnish a trap for unwary feet, and at the top a pool of water collects whenever there is a downpour of rain. Patches from time to time have been made but the effect is the same as adding a new piece of cloth on to an old garment.
