

After the Grip

I was in a dreadful state, weak and miserable. Doctor said I had Bright's disease. My kidneys were in a dreadful condition. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla, and decided to give it a trial, thinking at the time it was not much use as nothing helped me before. But, thank God, I got relief after the first bottle. I kept on taking it and used five bottles; am now a cured man; never felt better. I owe my life to Hood's Sarsaparilla. JOSHUA SMITH, 201 Market Street, Brantford, Ontario.

WEALTH IN WHEELING.

Zimmerman Has Won About $30,000 in Six Months.

A Michigan Footballer Scoreless—Football and Other Sporting Matters.

THE WHEEL.

WON $30,000. FREEHOLD, N. J., Nov. 5.—The champion cyclist, Arthur Zimmerman, yielded from Geneva, Italy, Thursday for New York. He has ridden in 30 races abroad, and has won about $30,000 in the six months, including the championship of France and Italy. During the winter he will race at Madison Square Garden, New York. Zimmerman recently sent home from Europe a draft for $10,000, and is expected to bring back as much more.

FOOTBALL.

LEAGUE OFFICIALS APPOINTED. KINGSTON, Nov. 5.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Ontario Rugby Union held on Saturday night it was decided that W. Moran, of Osgoode Hall, will referee the Queen's-Hamilton match in Hamilton on Nov. 10; in the London-Queen's second Edward Bayly will referee, and A. Ballantyne umpire; and in the Granites-Lorne second K. K. Barker, Toronto, will be referee.

KICKS. The London club wired its congratulations to the Lorne's junior team on its victory over Hamilton.

A New York dispatch says it was practically agreed this afternoon to hold the Yale-Princeton football match on Berkeley oval. Ten thousand dollars will be spent preparing the place for the game.

ATHLETICS.

KNOCKED SENSELESS. JACKSON, Mich., Nov. 5.—A prize fight took place three miles from here yesterday afternoon between Joe Tansey, of Chicago, and Fred Cox, of Jackson, heavyweights. Both men were badly punished. In the fifth round Cox caught Tansey on the jaw with a swinging upper cut, knocking him senseless.

CRICKET.

Neither official dignity nor a tropical sun is allowed to stand in the way of an Englishman's love for cricket. At a recent match at Poona, India, two Governor-Generals played on the same side. The Governor-General of Bombay, Lord Wellesley, scored 16, while the Governor-General of Madras, Lord Harris, who fame as a cricketer has been world-wide since his Oxford days, scored 52.

The Rawhide Cure.

HAMILTON, Nov. 5.—William Warren, the newspaper thief, who was to be whipped by his parents or the police, came to No. 3 police station this morning with an order from his parents authorizing the police to whip him. The official "executioner" took him to the courtyard and gave him an awful scare and a very mild thrashing. When Warren saw the rawhide he yelled loudly and long, and could be heard a block away.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Harvey S. Campbell, wife of a prominent merchant of West Alexandria, Erie county, lashed the wife of Dr. Gregg with a rawhide, while Mrs. Campbell's three sons beat their father (Campbell) into insensibility and held off any assistance with revolvers.

Mrs. Gregg is a party to a divorce suit brought by Mrs. Campbell against her husband. Dr. Gregg has also brought suit against Campbell, asking for $10,000 damages for the alienation of his wife's affections.

STIRRING UP STRIFE.

Allen, the So-Called Ex-Priest, Committed for Trial.

On Charges of Inciting to a Breach of the Peace and Carrying a Gun.

(Condensed from the Chatham Planet.) Before Squire Forhan the case against the alleged ex-priest Allen, was brought on. Mr. Douglas prosecuted, and Mr. John Reeves defended the accused, against whom the charge of inciting to a breach of the peace, by way of incendiary denunciations of the Catholic Church, priesthood and sisterhood, was preferred, also of carrying concealed weapons.

THE COMPLAINT.

James Liddy, of Harwich, who laid the charge, deposed that the prisoner Allen was speaking at a meeting in the Grangers Hall, near Bridge End, about Oct. 18. There was no chairman, and about 40 or 50 were there. He was speaking about the priests, nuns and Catholic women. The particulars of this witness' testimony are unfit to appear in print. The man Allen, he said, was armed with a club and revolver. The statements made by the accused were of the most

OBSCENE AND DEFAMATORY character, and witness declared he was going to smash him, when Trustee McCormick interfered. "If I had caught hold of him," said witness, "I would have smashed his brains out. Calling their wives these vile names would have the same effect upon all Roman Catholics."

Other witnesses were Thomas Drew, John Lamb, James McCormick, Wm. Richardson, Wm. Hagan, Thomas Casey and Wm. Smith, all of the township of Harwich. All corroborated in the main the evidence of Mr. Liddy and told of the abominable charges flung by the prisoner. Some did and others did not see the revolver.

As to the second charge Mr. James Brown, reeve of the township of Harwich, testified: I saw the prisoner on the platform of the River View Hotel, at Kent Bridge. He was speaking of the abuses of the Catholic Church. The character of his remarks was such as to lead persons to believe that the conduct of the priests was very immoral, and that the inmates of the nunneries were equally so.

He said he expected his remarks to anger members of the Catholic Church, and that he was prepared for violence from them; that he had a revolver in his pocket.

He then took the revolver in his hand and said that he had another one in his pocket; that both were loaded and that he carried them for self-protection. After the lecture he came toward me with a revolver in his hand and demanded to know what I had been saying about him. I told him to put the revolver away and I would tell him. I then told him, and he went away. This took place in the latter part of July.

POINTED HIS GUN.

James Kelly, of Harwich, said: I heard the prisoner speaking to a large audience at Botany. His speech about the Roman Catholic Church was of a character to produce disturbance. He advised the burning of nunneries. At the close of the meeting I asked him for one of his revolvers. While he was speaking he pointed one of the revolvers at me. During his remarks he laid two revolvers on the desk and said he had shot several priests with them.

Cross-examined—Witness did not read at that meeting a permit to carry a revolver. The majority of the audience could see the revolvers.

HAD TWO REVOLVERS.

Wm. Parsons saw the prisoner in Botany in August and again at McKay's Corners. At Botany he saw him lay two revolvers on the table. He gave no reason for doing so. Mr. Kelly approached him and he told Kelly to keep back. Witness saw him point a revolver at Kelly.

The prisoner was committed for trial on both charges, and Mr. Reeves' request that bail be allowed was refused.

A BIG ERROR

"If we were only living in New York, what fashionable attire we could buy, and how stylish we would look."

Some people talk so, but they should cease grumbling. The people of New York have no better opportunities for buying than Londoners. The New York belles look stylish because they buy the styles as soon as they appear. It is not so with all the ladies of London. Some hang back and wait until a more courageous lass comes forth attired in "the latest."

Our business is to get the latest, and we do get it. Indeed, we go to the English markets twice a year to procure the fashions. There we meet the New York buyer. He buys from the same manufacturer as we do. It's a big error for London ladies to think that they are behind in the matter of stylish Dress Goods. The ladies who secure our goods can dress as stylishly as any American. There is one store in London that keeps the fashions, and that store is ours.
