12 Reasons Why You Should Buy

CONNOR'S

SHEET METAL REFRIGERATORS

In Preference to Any Other:

They are cheaper than any other made.
They are artistic and compact.
They consume less ice and consequently cost less to keep going.
They are made of sheet metal, and will not warp if exposed to heat.
They are light and can be easily moved around.
They are durable.
They can be easily kept clean.
And last, but not least, for all reasons, they do not absorb moisture, and consequently omit no odor after being in use a few months.

ABOUT THE SCOTTISH NATION.

Macaulay once wrote as follows regarding the people of Scotland: "A people whose education and habits are such that in every quarter of the globe they rise above the mass of those with whom they mix, as surely as oil rises to the top of water; a people of such tongue and self-government, that the wildest popular excesses recorded in their history partake of the gravity of judicial proceedings, and of the solemnity of religious rites; a people whose natural pride and mutual attachment have passed into a proverb; a people whose high and fierce spirit (so forcibly described in the haughty motto which encircles their thistle) preserved their independence during a struggle of centuries from the encroachments of wealthier and more powerful neighbors —such a people cannot be long oppressed. Any government, however constituted, must respect their wishes and tremble at their discontents."

—Mrs. J. L. A. Hunt has contributed a large amount of reading matter to the firemen.

—The London Bicycle Club will hold a run this evening, starting from the club house.

—Lieut. G. C. Rayce, of the Queen's Own Rifles, was a visitor at the regimental club of the Seventh Fusiliers Tuesday night.

—Miss Sharman has returned from Niagara Falls, N. Y., where she has been spending a month with Miss Barker, of Buffalo avenue.

—Detective James Ward, of London West, has been acting turnkey at the county jail for a few days during the absence of Mr. Robert Marsh.

—In the notice of the Art School it was stated that a "night" class has been starting in the school.

—It should have read "life" class.

—Mr. Banning Richardson, of this city, has accepted a position with a large American silk firm, and will travel south for them, with headquarters at Cincinnati, Ohio.

—The funeral of Fred Moss, the little boy who was killed by lightning last evening, will take place today at 2 o'clock. Little Willis Fitzgerald, the other lad who was injured, continues to improve.

—Howard Wall's Ideals, who open a week's engagement at the Opera House next Monday evening, May 14, are this evening playing in Hamilton.

—The papers from that city speak in the highest terms of this company. Londoners will remember M. B. Streeter, Howard Hall and J. Knox Gavin, who are with this company. These gentlemen have established themselves as favorites here, and their friends will be glad to learn of their return.

—A Windsor dispatch says: George W.
Gorst died yesterday at the asylum in London, after a career that was cheerful in its misfortune. He was an old resident of Windsor, and the first photographer to set up business here. He made money enough, as he thought, to retire on, so he returned to his native town in England; but matters did not go smoothly, and he came back to Canada. Then misfortune set in with a vengeance, and he not only became very poor, but lost his reason. He leaves a widow and six children.

—The annual meeting of the 11th Street Methodist Sabbath school was held on Monday evening. Rev. E. B.
Lanceley was in the chair. Reports from the officers were presented, showing a remarkably satisfactory increase in the number of scholars during the previous year. The number on the roll on May 1, 1894, was 166; May 1, 1895, 277; increase, 111; average attendance, 184, 111; 1895, 148.
The following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent, H. Dickson; assistant superintendent, A. E. Passmore; treasurer, W. H.
Wortman; secretary, Harry W. Magee; assistant secretary, H. S. Dickson; librarian, E. Rose; organist, Miss D.
Winnett; organist, Miss M. Pirey; chorister, Harry Lewis. The growth of the school during the past year has been phenomenal, and prospects for the future are bright.

—The second course of lectures, preparatory to the entertainment in aid of the News Boys' Hall, on May 24, by the Boys' Brigade, was delivered last night by Dr. Wishart. To say that the boys appreciated and enjoyed for one hour the doctor's instructions, is perhaps the best way to describe the doctor's happy and successful method of communicating information so necessary to the amelioration of pain and the saving of life at critical moments when medical aid is not at hand. Hundreds of men and women can testify in an evening how to act in an emergency in a way that they could not otherwise now, if so situated. Moreover, the object is a good one. With the winter months has passed away the more pressing necessity for the needs which the hall most assuredly supplied. During the winter expenses have been incurred which must be met, a statement which need only be made to receive a sympathetic response.

MUSICAL SOCIETY BAND CON-CERT.

Victoria Park was thronged with citizens last evening, when the opening concert of the season was given by the band of the London Musical Society. It was an immense crowd—fully 5,000—and more suitable weather could not have been desired for an evening with London's excellent band. The air was cool, and unwelcome clouds of dust usually hanging over the park on concert nights were nowhere to be seen.
The music was thoroughly in keeping with the weather, and it was a well-satisfied crowd that paired off and started for home with the playing of "God Save the Queen." The fact that Mr. Fred L. Evans, leader of the Grand Opera House orchestra, wielded the bution is a guarantee of the class of music furnished. Every selection was rendered with precision and harmony, and applause was very liberal. The programme was carried out as published in yesterday's "Advertiser." The band has been put to a heavy expense since organizing, and a collection was taken at the gates. A handsome sum should have been realized. The next appearance of the band will doubtless be marked by a still larger attendance.

LET THE OUTSIDE CONTRACTORS.

The trustees of the Dundas Center Church met last night and concluded the work of letting the contracts for the building of the new church. The whole can be built for $35,000, it has been found. This is about $10,000 less than was anticipated. A regrettable fact—one that the trustees appear to regret sincerely, although they did not let

the line of economy—is that the principal work goes to out-of-town contractors. Toronto firms have secured the brick work, carpentering work and plastering. The names and prices could not be learned last evening, as the contracts may not be signed until Friday. London tenderers who were suc-

ASYLUM JOTTINGS.

Supervisor Allan McConnell has returned from his wedding tour, and with his bride—nee Miss Ada Dyer, formerly of the Asylum staff—has taken up a residence on Dale street, Pottersburg.
They are receiving the congratulations of a host of friends.

Edward Wenderly, attendant, resigned his position yesterday.

Misses Meagles and Bridget Neeham, superior and attendant respectively, are visiting at their home in Amherst-burg, Ont.

Mr. George Ross, Charlotte street, has been appointed gate-keeper and has taken up his residence in the cottage at the Governor's road gate.

Mr. John Burnand has been taken on the staff. "Jack," who is an ex-British soldier, a Sudan campaigner, and for several years with No. 1 Company R. C. R., will be a decided acquisition to the Asylum Cricket Club.

Steve Dunn, of the engineer's department, is on a two weeks' vacation.

Baseball appears to be booming at the asylum just now, apparently at the expense of cricket.

HARD AT WORK.

The members of No. 1 committee, who are dealing with the electric street railway agreement, met the representatives of the railway company in the City Hall at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and spent three hours discussing the franchise. That previous document was scanned line by line, phrase by phrase and sentence by sentence.
Even an overturned letter was regarded with suspicion. A phrase was erased here, a word added there, and an expression modified a little further on. Mr. Ivey, the company's solicitor, was a little chary about accepting amendments to the clauses upon which there is a difference of opinion, and asked for a little time to think over their meaning. The utmost harmony prevailed.
During the meeting Mayor Little informed the railway people that the city had decided to call in Engineer Keating of Toronto, as an expert on behalf of the city on all the questions in the franchise involving questions of engineering. "We will have to get an engineer at once, then," said Manager Carr. One of the committee kindly offered to loan the company the city engineer, but the manager evidently thinking that Mr. Graydon's sympathies would be with the city, declined with a smile and some thanks. Another meeting will be held this week.
