-M. D. Fraser (London), for the committee of a lunatic's estate, moved for a direction as to whether or not to take proceedings against one John J. Archer, a brother of the lunatic, to obtain an account in respect of dealings with the estate under a power of attorney before the declaration of lunacy, and whether or not to take proceedings for an account of moneys distributed among the lunatic's children. J. Hoskin, Q.C., appeared as official guardian, having intervened on behalf of the lunatic by direction of the court. The learned judge was of opinion that no action should be brought under the circumstances with respect to an account of the moneys distributed among the children, the distribution appearing to have been a tolerably fair one, and that the committee should be protected in respect of any loss in that behalf. As to the proceedings against John J. Archer, the learned judge was of opinion that no proceedings should be taken unless John J. Archer should claim a commission for his services. Order accordingly, and also providing for the committee passing their accounts. Costs out of the estate. A Narrow Escape.

Whist." After the regular business of the session was over a card party was organized, some playing pedro and euchre, while five teams from each council started at whist. On totaling up the scores after twenty "shifts," it was found that the city members had been apt pupils, having won by a surplus 58 points. London South also provided the refreshments. And now the members over the river wish to know if that was a counterpart act on the part of that was a courteous act on the part of their city brothers. However, the victors have invited the defeated to come into the city on the next regular meeting night, when they will be taken into the confidence of the brethren and receive friendly instruction. The teams were: London Council - McKillop and Bartlett, C. Fewings and Olmsted, Greaves and Cowan, Barnard and G. Fewings, Munson and Hiscott; London South-Pope and Southam, Macpherson and Westland, Trebil-cock and Rennie, Hunt and Colerick, Parnell and Gregory.

The Late Ale xander Davidson. The funeral of Mr. Alexander Davidson, for a long number of years a resident of this city, took place from the G. T. R. station at noon to-day to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. A large number of citizens joined the cortege. Mr. Davidson, who was born in 1812, lived here (until two years ago when he went to live with one of his sons in Toronto) continuously from 1854, whither he came from his native town, Dornoch, Sutherlandshire, Scotland. Shortly after his settlement in Canada he became bookkeeper for Murray Anderson, and occupied that position until his employer retired contemporary maintains. Here follows the from business. He was then appointed treasurer of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and discharged duties in this capacity for fourteen years. He resigned in 1883 on account of ill-health. Mr. Davidson's wife died suddenly of heart disease over three years ago, and within twelve months he moved to Toronto, where, until the time of his death, he resided with a son, Walter Davidson, who is at present in the employ of the C. P. R. The deceased gentleman has three other sons living-R. S. T. Davidson, Toronto; Ebenezer Davidson, Oregon, a former Woodstock merchant, and Alexander Davidson. The latter served his apprenticeship as a printer in the ADVERTISER office, and has since joined the exodus. L. Davidson, another son, died in Portland, Oregon, several years ago, leaving his father a fortune of some $50,000. Mr. Davidson was a staunch

They Would Like to Make Matches-Wrestling or Sparring.

London has received a decided addition to her sporting element in the shape of P. J. Griffin, champion all round athlete of America, and J. C. Comstock, champion wrestler of the United States. They are accompanied by J. Richardson, Canada's champion wrestler, and are looking both ways for a match. Mr. Griffia hails from Philadelphia, and is anxious to meet some of Canada's sporting men of any color, age or build, in a sparring match of six or ten rounds, further particulars to be mutually agreed upon. Mr. J. C. Comstock is a Michigan man and has won his laurels in "catch as -The case of Godwin vs. G. T. R., tried | catch can" wrestling. He, too, does not color. Both men are well built, musculartions will find them. This is Mr. Griffin's simmons had some wordy dispute over the first trip through Canada. NEW YORK, Feb. 2 .- A Paris dispatch to the Herald says: Signor Greco, an Italian fencing master, has sent his seconds to challenge Mr. Merignac, a Parisian professor of the art. They are R. M. Basilone and Armando De in the hands of M. Larose and M. Tavernet. "So far as I am concerned," the Parisian fencer said, "the case is out of my hands, but I tell you trankly I shall refuse the challenge of Signor Greco.' "What, you decline to fight him ?" "I decline to fight on account of the matter he has made the pretext for the challenge, but that is not saying that I decline altogether to meet him. The supposed insult consists in my having referred six weeks ago to his profession as that of a trade. But that is no insult, calling tencing a trade," continued Merignac. "When a man pursues fencing for a living it is certainly a trade. A doctor, lawyer, journalist, soldier and engineer each pursues his vocation for money and is exercising a trade. For me to fight a duel in support of such an obviously true propositich would make me ridiculous. I have no desire to be laughed at." Meanwhile a misleading discussion is taking place between the four seconds, who made. have assembled with many formalities, but without results, Merignac's friends declining to fight.

for Dahomey Slaves. LONDON, Feb. 2 .- A dispatch to the Times from Berlin says: At a meeting of the parliamentary committee on colonial estimates yesterday the Emperor admitted the accuracy of the charges made by Ham. burg newspapers against Whyda, the agent of the Hamburg firm of Welber & Brahm, that he had bought from the King of Dahomey slaves captured in the French Hinterland, paying for them in Winchester rifles and ammunition, which the King of Dahomey had used in the campaign against the French. That firm admitted that the Congo State paid £20 tor every Dahomeyan slave. The Emperor denounced the sordid motives of the firm, and declared that if the French captured the agent the German Government would not raise a finger to prevent his execution. The company passed a resolution to extend to all German colonies

A Young Man Loses Himself and Expires in the Arms of a Rescuer. SMITH'S FALLS, Feb. 2. - A young man of unknown name, employed as chopper in one of the shanties of the Upper Gatineau, years of age. had been sent, it seems, to a farm house some ten miles distant from the shanty, with instructions to stay over night if he thought it necessary. On his return trip the messenger lost his way up the river and finally sank in the snow. A rescuing party found him the next morning, but the deceased only opened his eyes and expired immediately.

GONE WITH THE HIRED MAN. Lillie Was Pretty and Plump and Had a Fortune or $7,000.

Belleville, Feb. 2.-A sensation has been caused at Sidney Crossing by the elopement of Lillie, the 18-year-old daughter of Marshall Vandewaters, a wealthy farmer who lives near there, with David Lawrence, aged 33, a man who had worked for her father and others in that locality as a farm laborer. The couple, who, it is believed, were privately married before the elopment, took an early train west on Saturday morning. It is believed that they have gone to Michigan, where Lawrence's mother lives. The girl has $7,000 in her own right. She is a handsome brunette of plump figure, and was the belle of the neighborhood in which she lived. Her parents, who had no suspicions in the premises, are very much incensed over the conduct of their daughter, who is an only child.
