Special to The Advertiser.

'Ingersoll, June 28. — London McCormicks hammered three local hurlers for fourteen safe base hits here Saturday and romped off with a 5-2 verdict. to take the first position in the Middlesex-Oxford league standing.

Myers, who started for Ingersoll lasted five innings, during which time eight hits, good for two runs, were collected by the visitors. Marshall and Kelly, who succeeded him, allowed six hits and three runs between them.

Stevens lasted until the eighth for McCormicks and gave a good performance, holding the homesters to four hits in this time. Coursey finished out the game, fanning two of the remaining batters to face him.

The Londoners' first two counters came in the fourth. Pirle singled, advanced on McGuire's safety and scored on Gardner's hard drive to center. McGuire going to third and tallying when Bernie Fitzmaurice engineered a near squeeze play.

Guire going to third and tallying when Bernie Fitzmaurice engineered a near squeeze play.

The locals replied with one in their half of the same inning. Oliver walked, and scored on Kelly's long double.

McCormick's got two more in the sixth. Harmon beat out a hit toward third, taking second on McGuire's safety and scoring on Maylott's single to left. McGuire was caught going into home on Fitzmaurice's choice. Maylott then stole home, and Fitzmaurice was safe at second on Kelly's error.

The visitors added their final tally in the seventh. Howard walked, went along on Harmon's hit, and scored when the next batter singled. Ingersoll's second counter came in the eighth. Wilford was safe on eight wilford at second. Pascoe singled to left, and went to second when Matthews let the ball get through him. O'Bright stopping at thrd. Coursey relieved Stevens. Hovey singled to center, scoring O'Bright, but Pascoe was thrown out at the plate.

The McCormick and Ingersoll intermediates will meet again at Sunshine park, London, next Saturday July 4

Heavy Rain and Long-Delayed Start.

Special to The Advertiser.

Wallaceburg. June 27.—Following a heavy rain early in the afternoon there was but a small attendance at the Steinhoff park to witness the encounter between the Wallaceburg and Chatham between the Wallaceburg and Chatham intermediate lacrosse teams in their O.

A. L. A. game, which resulted in an easy win for the former with a score of 14 to 3. A delay of over an hour of 14 to 3. A delay of over an hour of 14 to 3. A delay of over an hour was occasioned owing to the non-arrival of a number of the visitors, who were caught in a severe storm en route. Both teams played good lacrosse in the first teams played good lacrosse in the first teams played good lacrosse in the first period, which was run through with no count. In the second stanza goals were sore through Lawson 3, McLean, and for Chatham Brodie opened the count. In the last period Wallaceburg added through McGee 3. Boyle, and for Chatham Hicks and McCallum scored. Clean play ruled throughout, and no penalties were awarded, and the game was well handled by Wickens. The game served as a good practice for the locals in preparation for their important till at Sarnia next Thursday afternoon when these two hardened aggregations will clash for the last time in the first half of the schedule. Wallaceburg still hold their unbeaten record this season.

St. Louis Americans' Manager Has Secured 103 Safe Hits This Season.

Special to The Advertiser.

Woodstock, June 28.—In a keenly-contested game, which was featured by one fist fight, general recriminations and a freak play fit for the book, the Beachville team last night defeated the Thamesford nine by a score of 4 to 2 in a Thames Valley league game on the former's ground. Another feature of the game was a freak play in the fourth game was a freak play in the fourth inning. With Currie on base Daniels of Beachville hit the all into the Thames river for a home run, scoring Currie ahead of him. Daniels, however, failed to touch second, and being told of this, Associated Press Despatch. Chicago, June 28.—George Sisler, pilot of the St. Louis Americans, and Al Simmons of the Athletics, are the first major leaguers to pass the century mark in hitting for the 1925 season. Latest statistics released today show that Sisler has collected 103 hits while Simmons is just over the century mark

The batting leaders of the American league are in the same position they were in a week ago, with Sammy Hale of the Athletics topping the list with of the Athletics topping the list with 421.

Red Wingo of the Tigers is squeezed into second place with 419, followed by Rice of the Browns with 410. Then comes Ty Cobb in fourth place with 401.

Ken Williams, the St. Louis slugger, and Bob Meusel of the Yankees failed to increase their home run totals, the Yankee being in front with sixteen, with Williams one behind. Williams, however, increased his total base mark to 175. His 96 hits include 24 doubles, 5 triples and 15 homers.

In base-stealing Johnny Mostil of the White Sox continues to head the pack with 22.

White Sox continues to head the back with 22.

Max Carey and Clyde Barnhardt of Pittsburg have made an unannounced appearance among the leading batters of the National league. Barnhardt jumped from fifth to third place with an average of .393. and Carey from twelfth to sixth with .373. Rogers Hornsby of the Cardinals remains in the lead with .427. eleven points more than he had a week ago. Hornsby collected fourteen hits in his last seven games, and four were homers. His home run total is 21.

Hazen Cuyler, another Pirate, continues to hold the honors as the best run-getter with 68. "Sparky" Adams, diminutive second-secker of the Cubs, heads the base-stealers with sixteen thefts. LONG JIM BARNES.

The first thing Long Jim Barnes did after winning the British open was to take train for Cornwall to see his mother. Both the sports writers and editorial commentators point out that he is not yet a fully naturalized United States citizen and is, therefore, still states citizen and is, therefore, still nominally an Englishman. In this connection the Daily Mail's remarks: "Great Britain is still able to produce, if not always able to retain, the greatest golfers."

Barnes plans to stay at Cornwall a while before returning to New York. He does not intend to participate in the Glen Eagles tournament.

This woman creator of gorgeous head-dreases that were admired throughout the feminine world, was virtually unknown until her death. It was her fate to see the bobbed hairs she detested become a fixture during the nine years of her association with the film industry. She used to stay up nights figuring out ways to combat the encroachments of the bob among film women. Failing in this, she evolved the most elaborate methods of disguising it. This motive was responsible for some of the unique coiffure effects that adorned many women to wonder who the designer was.
