OPERA HOUSE
The fifteenth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Landry's marriage was fittingly celebrated on Saturday last at St. John's church. A special high Mass was offered by the beloved pastor, Rev. Father Lambert. Mr. and Mrs. Landry, with a few relatives and friends, were afterwards received by Father Lambert at the rectory and served with refreshments. During the afternoon different members of Mrs. Landry's family, including children, grand children and great grand children, assembled at the rectory home and spent an enjoyable afternoon. In the evening they were joined by a number of their friends and the young couple spent a few hours tripping the light fantastic. Mr. and Mrs. Landry received many useful and valuable presents as tokens of esteem.

OPERA HOUSE
In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that this nerve controls will also suffer. It may be a stomach nerve, or it may have given strength and support to the heart or kidneys. It is the Dr. Shoop that first pointed to this vital truth. Dr. Shoop's Restorative was not made to dose the stomach nor to temporarily stimulate the heart or kidneys. That old fashioned method is wrong. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these failing inside curves. The remarkable success of this prescription demonstrates the wisdom of treating the actual cause of these failing organs. And it is indeed easy to prove. A simple five or ten days test will surely tell. Try it once and see. Sold by all dealers.

OPERA HOUSE
Laid to Rest
All that was mortal of the remains of John Ernest (Jack) McNaughton, third son of Mr. Wm. McNaughton, was laid to rest yesterday afternoon. The funeral took place from the residence of his parents, St. Cyrille street, and was largely attended by prominent citizens, likewise school companions and members of the A. O. H. Cadet Corps. The hearse that carried the remains of the deceased boy was preceded by his class mates from the Christian Brothers Commercial Academy in charge of two brothers. Following the corpse were the chief mourners, his father, brother and uncle, Messrs. McNaughton and E. Roach, together with the boys of the A. O. H. Cadet Corps and friends of the family. The funeral procession proceeded down St. John street, to St. Patrick's church, where a Te Deum was chanted, and after the service the mournful procession continued on to St. Patrick's cemetery where the body was placed in the vault. Though Jacky McNaughton was not widely known he was nevertheless an exceptionally fine fellow and a great favorite with his school mates, who loved him for his golden heart, qualities, disposition, bright intellect and kind manner. Mr. and Mrs. McNaughton and members of the family have the sympathy of their large circle of friends.—Quebec Chronicle.

CATARH CANNOT BE CURED
with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Halls' Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Halls' Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Sent for testimonials.
