COMMERCIAL RELATIONS WITH PRANCE. In answer to Mr. Vallee, Sir S. L. Tilley said the Dominion government had understood that that the government of Quebec proposed sending a repre-sentative or delegate to reside at Paris in the in-terests of the government of that province. Should such as appointment be made it was just possible that the Dominion government might make the services of the gentieman available in the encour-agement of immigration and looking after the com-mercial interests of the Dominion; but no appoint-ment had been made by the Dominion Govern-ment.

of age, and unmarried. He was secretary of the Waverley snow shoe club of this city. Many of those whose loss we mourn in Quebec were married men and heads of families. Wm. O'Brien leaves a widow and six small children. Christian Smith was also a married man, and leaves four young children, oue of whom is less than a month old. He was a regular attendant at Trinity church, and is highly spoken of by all acquaintances. Thos. George was unmarried, and resided in Paul's street. He beiongest to the 5th Battalion, and was pretty well-known in Lower Town. The telegrams show that he made a desperate effort for life. He was frequently empleyed here a stoker on boats in the harbor. John Chapples was quife a young man, and was employed for some time in Horsac's factory. Felix Dube was a bateau man belonging to Cape Blanc. Patrick McCarthy was a resident of Chapplain street, and was for some time in the employ of Mr. Delansy, butcher. Mrs. Robert Foster of 64 Chaplain street, nourma the loss of three members of her family, her husband, her aon-u-law, chief angineer Heighton, reported in our despatches as belonging to New York are amongst the lost. Heighton had lost a hand but he had a steel appliance screwed on his arm in its place with which he was enabled to achieve wouder-ful results. The names given in the despatches as Paul Wastoran and G. Beakner are supposed to be incorrect, There are no parties belonging to Que-be bearing such names. The former is supposed to batand for a French Canadian man named Paul Maburin, who shipped here on board the Bahams. A LARGE DEFIGUT. Ment. and been made by the Dominion Govern ment. BYTENSION OF THE SUFFRAGE. Mr. Costigan asked if it was the intention of the government to so amend the general election law that the right to vote for members of the house of commons may be extended to a larger portion of the people than now enjoy it, and be uniform through out the Dominion. Sir Hector Langevin said the matter was under the consideration of the government. THE FACTORT COMMISSION. Sir S. L. Tilley said he hoped to submit the re-port of the factory commission on Monday or Tues-day next.

Si B. Cartwright moved for correspondence in reference to the proposed railway fr.m. Manitoba to Hudson Bay and said that as that matter was of great interest to the people of Empland the Domin-ion government should correspond with the im-perial government in regard to it.
LAKE DEASTRES.
The same gentleman also moved for information in relation to the loss of vessels from over-loading and shifting of cargoes. He said that there had been serious disasters on inlend waters under circumstances leading the public to believe that gross curelessness was exercised in floading vessels.
