dents. A week ago a young woman calling herself Josie Ellis, who had been employed at Gil-hert's restaurant in Waukesha, Wis., was ar-rested on a charge of having stolen a watch, and was pleaced in jail to await her hearing. At the jail the prisoner was allowed to go about the house as the filed and took her meals with the Sheriff's family. On a recent afternoon, however, she declined to go to her meal, and another prisoner having the run of the building was directed to report if she at-tempted to leave. Word came that the woman had departed. The sheriff mounted his bicycle and give chase. The girl dodged from place to place, through streets and his oncycle and gave cases. The gri douged from place to place, through streets and alleys and old buildings and eluded her pursuer for half an hour or more, but he finally over-hauled her. On her return to jall it was found that she had on six dresses and dupli-ous underslathing aufficient to subsume fails t to make up a fair te underclothing sufficient to a
