THIRTEENTH YEAR

D'ALTON'S DIVISION.

His Amendment Downed by 52 Majority.

LAURIER VOTED FOR M'CARTHY

Although He Objected to Preferential Trade.

The House will probably before Easter—The French Treaty After All—Offered France—The Agreement Was That the Treaty Should First be Ratified by the Dominion Parliament—Mr. Charles Tupper Called That the Treaty Was Signed.

OTTAWA, March 16.—It may now be considered as definitely settled that, "barren accidents," as the sporting gentry's prognostication will take place before Easter. Mr. Foster said as much in the House this afternoon, and in order that this may be accomplished Wednesday have been taken for Government business for the balance of the session, it being arranged that on the only private members' day left, Monday, the order for Wednesdays will be followed, which will give an opportunity for public bills and orders to be reached again.

The French Treaty, caused by Mr. Lister when the orders of the day were called, resulting in a vote of 52 majority against the French Treaty. The French Treaty was introduced in yesterday's Montreal Star with reference to the alleged indignities caused in England, and the statement by Mr. Foster in the House on Monday night that he would not ask for the ratification of the treaty at present.

Hon. Mr. Foster said that the whole telegram was based on an error. He had not said that he would not ask for the ratification of the treaty at present, but that under the circumstances he would not press for its ratification at present. As to the French Treaty, which the despatch speaks of, he could not understand how any insult could be offered. It was a fundamental part of the treaty, and the statement by the Canadian Parliament and the treaty had been submitted to Parliament with a full and frank explanation of its provisions, for the consideration of Parliament.

Mr. Edgar read two telegrams from Sir Charles Tupper to Sir John Thompson, dated Feb. 6, which were in the supplementary papers read last night. These telegrams showed that on that day Sir John Thompson wired that no ratification should be made until approval was called, as it was not clearly understood what either side proposed.

Sir Charles Tupper's reply to this was that the treaty had been signed before the ratification had been given, and that Mr. Davies said that the impression left on the mind of the House by Mr. Foster's statement was that the treaty had been signed before the ratification had been given.

THE BOYS OF OLD IRELAND

THEY ATE, DRANK AND WERE MERRY LAST NIGHT.

ST. PATRICK WAS THEIR PATRON—HOME RULE FOR IRELAND WAS THEIR INSPIRATION

THEY WERE THE RESULT OF THE GATHERING.

President Bryan Lynch's face was his broadest smile as, with a sprig of shamrock in his button-hole, he beamed upon the hundred and odd Irish National League men who gathered at a night dinner in Webb's parlors last night.

Every member wore a spray of Ireland's favorite flower on his coat lapel, giving the room a veritable tinge of the dear little island all covered with green that lies over the blue water.

Irishmen had two special causes for jubilation last night. It was St. Patrick's Day, and it was the occasion of the expected realization of what their hearts have been striving for a hundred years—Home Rule for Ireland and a Parliament on College Green.

The chief reason for the gathering was the fact that the duties were principally placed upon the shoulders of Mr. C. O'Rourke, who was assisted by Mr. K. J. O'Rourke, who was assisted by Mr. K. J. O'Rourke.

Hon. Mr. Laurier endorsed the resolution of Mr. O'Rourke with the exception of the last paragraph, which proposed a reduction of duties on our imports from Great Britain and all the numerous countries with which we have favored national treaties.

THE TROY BURGLAR.

The Dastardly Deed Done By Two Tall Men Disguised.

No arrests have yet been made in connection with the Troy burglary, but there are pretty strong suspicions. Old Martin Gray is sufficiently recovered to talk of the affair. He says that two tall men with their faces covered with green that lies over the blue water.

They demanded his money, but he refused to give it, saying that he had no money. They then turned to the safe and opened it, and took out a large sum of money.

TO PREPARE TO MEET ANY CONTINGENCY.

A Central Assembly of Six Hundred Members to be Formed at Belfast—A Governing Council of Sixty to be Elected—Last Words of the Manifesto, "We Were Their Adversaries."

LONDON, March 16.—A Ulster manifesto has been issued over the signature of the Duke of Abercorn, the Marquis of Londonderry, the Earl of Erne, Lord Arthur Hill, Colonel Sanderson, the Mayor of Belfast and Londonderry and other prominent Ulstermen.

The manifesto announces the formation of an Ulster Defence League, not merely to continue the struggle for Home Rule, but to prepare to meet any contingency.

The signers call upon Unionists to qualify as members of the league. The two necessary conditions of every successful applicant for admission are that he be a full grown man and pledge himself to be faithful to the manifesto of Ulster.

CAN HE PLASTER IT ON TO STICK?

THE AUSTRALIAN BULLER IN SAN FRANCISCO.

He Will Be Backed For Any Amount Against Any Canadian Or Yankee—Says He Is Anxious To Show—William Beach Coming to America on the Next Steamer.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—James Stanbury, the champion carman, and his trainer, Aleck McLean, arrived on the steamer Alameda from Australia this morning.

Stanbury has been induced to come to America by the prospect of the match concerning the big events to take place during the World's Fair at Chicago.

"I am very anxious to row anyone," said he, "and I will put a deposit to bind the match at any reasonable time. I propose my name, mile and a half straight away or three miles with a turtledove satisfy me."

He has learned that Gadsden recently issued a challenge to the world. I am prepared to accept this challenge and will find all the backing I will need. The same proposition is open to any other man in this country or England.

Stanbury further said that the ex-champion of Australia, I. W. Beach, would probably come hither on the next steamer.

WILL DR. SHEARD GET IT?

There Promise to Be a Lively Time at the Special Meeting of the Council of the Board of Health to-day.

The Local Board of Health meets at 11 o'clock this morning, when, as stated in the World yesterday, A. M. Duff and the Mayor will present the name of Dr. Sheard for the post of Medical Health Officer.

Ald. Small states that Dr. Sheard will not have a walkover, as he understands that there will be at least a dozen other applicants.

It is understood that the Doctor will accept the post at a salary of $3000 if he is permitted to continue his lectures to students. For how much time per day will be consumed by these lectures is not made apparent.

A meeting of the Executive is called for 11:30, and the council meets at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Ald. Hewitt comes out flat-footed against Dr. Sheard. It appears that the Doctor secured the alderman rather severely at a meeting of the Executive on Monday night.
