

Established 1878. The Weekly Monitor, ISSUED ON WEDNESDAY, At Bridgetown, Annapolis Co., N. S.

TERMS: $1.00 per annum in advance. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7th, 1898.

—Throughout the county as well as in every part of the Dominion, the temperance people are actively engaged in preparing for the plebiscite and we believe they are working to win.

—The second camp at Aldershot will open on October 4th instead of September 29th. There will be Mass in St. Alban's church text Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

—Y. E. Palfrey has just opened a large hotel at Aldershot. It is situated on the bank of the river and is a fine building.

—Captain Munro's fine new house is about completed and will be ready for occupancy in a fortnight.

—Lots of Fall Dress Goods direct from England at W. K. Palfrey's. Prices very low this year.

—The schr. Nugget came into port last Wednesday with a cargo of coal from Sydney, for Nelly's River.

—Nearly all the stores in town were closed last Monday and the day was generally a holiday.

—Preparations are being made for the erection of seven more houses in Bridgetown during the coming autumn.

—A large number of redoubts were to be seen on the streets yesterday, prior to their departure for Aldershot.

—The steamer Boston, of the Yarmouth S. S. Co., is developing into a flyer. She made the run to Yarmouth in 15 1/2 hours.

—Mr. O. E. Ruffin has purchased two buildings on Victoria Street from Mr. J. R. Fisher, and will build a couple of nice cottages there.

—Inland Revenue Officer Grant and an assistant visited Kenville last Friday, and made a general survey of the place.

—Mr. Dan Charlton, who was badly hurt a few days ago by a rock falling on his head while working at the river bridge, is able to be around again.

—Mr. C. S. Sweeney, of Yarmouth, has moved his family to Bridgetown. They will occupy the house on Water Street just vacated by Mr. R. A. Crowe.

—The superintendent of streets has extended the cutting in front of the Post Office to the satisfaction of all save those who were in the habit of crossing the walk with their coats.

—The Valley apple crop will probably be considerably below the average in quantity, but the quality promises to be good.

—Bridgetown has four blacksmith shops, all doing a good business, and a fifth will be the number in the fall.

—Rev. R. M. Young pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist Church was married last evening at Jamaica Plain, Mass., to Miss A. V. Baker, formerly of Annapolis.

—E. B. Foster, of Hampton, lectured at Falmouth Cove on Dominion on Monday evening, Aug. 29th. He was well received and his lecture was very interesting.

—The Rev. Henry D. Hilditch Grand Rector of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Dominion, is expected to lecture on the Dominion on Monday the 12th at Millbank. He will stay the 13th at Pleasant River, Queens county.

—Spendler is here, and sportsmen will do well to remember the new game regulations. The best shot, kill, sell or keep in possession of a bird, whether killed in the Dominion or elsewhere. Penalty, $5 to $10.

—Special Bled, the horse owned by E. Leitch White, of St. John, in which our Annapolis hunter recently won the Dominion race, was a fine fire at Chatham, N.S., on August 22nd. He is evidently getting into training again.

—The schooner Nugget met with an accident Wednesday night. Her low line of masts and rigging was struck by a heavy sea, and she was forced to return to port.

—Mr. Crawley, a brother of Mr. F. F. and Miss Helen V. Crawley, of Boston, died at Boston last week after a brief illness of four days. The body was taken to his home at Millbank, Queens county, where it was buried last Sunday. The deceased was 50 years of age.

—Mr. J. N. Morgan is busy at work in contract with the town for extension of the water service. The pipe has all arrived. The granite street extension will be completed first and then the pipe will be laid across the river.

—Mr. C. S. Sweeney met with an severe accident last Friday while working at the river bridge. He was struck by a falling rock and his leg was broken. He is now in hospital at Yarmouth.

—The index finger and thumb of his right hand were badly on necessitating the removal of two pieces of bone from the knuckle of the hand and another piece from the thumb.

—Mr. S. C. Hall, who has been home on a week's vacation, was given a grand reception on Friday evening last at his parents' home, Lawrenceville. A large number of young and old people were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

—Mr. Leopold Harrows who is here visiting his brother, Mr. N. R. Harrows, gave a very interesting address at the Bible Reading at the Y. M. C. A. service last Sunday. In a very practical and pleasing manner, he showed the marriage of a Christian in regard to the physical, intellectual and spiritual elements of his life.

—Mr. Tarte told the Halifax Chronicle that he had travelled through a considerable portion of Normandy, and that the agricultural province of France, and the Government of that province did not seem to be doing anything to help the poor. He said that he had seen in his brief visit to Kings and Hants counties. Between Kenville and Wolfville the country was a veritable garden.

—The Nova Scotia Inter-Dominion Sunday School Association will hold its annual meeting in Bridgetown on Oct. 11, 12 and 13th. A local executive committee has been appointed consisting of Messrs. A. D. Brown, W. A. Craig, Albert Moore, Geo. D. Curry, F. G. Palfrey, and Rev. J. R. Hart.

—A meeting of the temperance workers was held Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. Hall to discuss measures in connection with the coming plebiscite. A discussion took place as to whether or not voters should be asked to abstain from drinking.

—Among the delegates to the W. M. B. U. Convention last week, was Miss H. A. Vidler, of Bridgetown, who was very active in the public schools of this province. She was accompanied by her husband, Mr. J. H. Vidler, who was made of special interest, by his moving here quite a number of former friends and pupils, including Mrs. N. J. Layton, by whom she was entertained during her stay.

—The success of the Anglo Egyptian expedition in its march to Khartoum has exceeded the hopes of its most ardent sympathizers. The devices have been avenged. Gen. Kitchener is making good his way to the glory of British arms.

—London, Aug. 30.—The Times publishes, this morning, a letter from Mr. Arthur Carnegie, who advocates an exchange of the Palladium for the British Viceroy, India, and that England and the United States should retain calling stations in each, and as open doors should be preserved for each by treaty. "Such a project," says Mr. Carnegie, "would not only be a double boon upon the part of both populations, but this agent seems probable."
