

THE CABOT WALTZES

BY

FREDERIC W. BURRY

These Waltzes have received many kindly notices from critics of art.

They were composed a few years ago, and published in 1897, the year of the 4th Cabot Centennial.

They are brilliant and tuneful,—and while not over difficult, they form a “Morceau de Concert.”

Lithographed on the best of paper, with an extra fine illustrated cover.

Regular price is 50 cents;

Reduced to 25 CENTS

Order of F. W. BURRY,
673 Queen Street, West,
Toronto, Canada.