

Mr. Wallace MacDonald has secured a position with a prominent firm in Ottawa, and his visits, which it is hoped will be many, will be greatly appreciated by his former classmates, now the graduating class of '98.

Of the rev. gentlemen from our seminary who were ordained last June, the Rev. Father Newman is curate to Rev. Canon McCarthy at St. Bridget's Church, Ottawa; the Rev. Father Cavanagh is assistant to Rev. Father Dunne of South Gloucester, Ont., and Rev. Father Raymond is curate to Rev. Canon Michel at Buckingham, Que. THE OWL wishes all success to those young priests in their sacred ministry.

The daily papers tell us that the Rev. J. T. McNally is soon to arrive in Ottawa as curate at St. Patrick's Church. Rev. Father McNally has spent the last five years studying at the Propaganda, Rome. His many friends will welcome him back to Ottawa.

—o— ATHLETICS.

At the first meeting held this year by the Executive Committee of the Athletic Association, topics were discussed relative to the outlook of our different clubs for the coming season. The prospects were thought to be of a most satisfactory nature, and each and every member of the executive has set his mind upon making the coming year in athletics one of the most successful in the history of the University. It is to be hoped that all the students will see fit to join the association, and to give in other ways that hearty co-operation and encouragement which it seems only proper they should extend to college athletics.

At the same meeting Mr. Joseph Dulin was unanimously elected manager of the football team. With that energy and tact for which he is noted, assisted by his past experience with the hockey team and other clubs, we confidently expect that "Joe's" exertions will terminate with the same encouraging results as have hitherto fittingly crowned the labours of our managers in the past.

Below is the * schedule of the Quebec Rugby Union for the fall of 1897 :

Oct. 2, Montreal vs. Ottawa City, Montreal.

Oct. 9, Ottawa City vs. Montreal, Ottawa City.

Oct. 9, McGill vs. Ottawa College, McGill.

Oct. 16, Ottawa College vs. Ottawa City, Ottawa College.

Oct. 16, Montreal vs. McGill, Montreal.

Oct. 23, Ottawa College vs. Montreal, Ottawa College.

Oct. 23, McGill vs. Ottawa City, McGill.

Oct. 30, Ottawa College vs. McGill, Ottawa College.

Nov. 6, McGill vs. Montreal, McGill.

Nov. 6, Ottawa City vs. Ottawa College, Ottawa City.

Nov. 13, Montreal, vs. Ottawa College, Montreal.

Nov. 13, Ottawa City vs. McGill, Ottawa City.

It will be noticed that owing to the adoption of the new rule regarding home and home matches, we will be required to play six games on six successive Saturdays. This is a state of affairs previously unheard of, and consequently may require certain changes in the managing of the team. In past, years 16 or 17 men were selected at the be-