

and redemption; his fulness of grace; the doctrine of the Holy Spirit; the only conqueror of sin and of righteousness; the free, unlimited, invitations of the gospel, with its solemn warnings; these have been the themes of the pulpit. before congregations of Episcopalians, Methodists, Baptists, with our own people. I believe the truth has been its own powerful witness to the hearts and consciences of those who heard; and we are greatly encouraged to persevere, in the hope that God will let none of our words fall to the ground. One young lady expects to join the church at our coming communion. Others are seeking the Saviour: perhaps this expression is too strong — The Saviour is seeking them. Their hearts are troubled, they have no rest, the Spirit is striving with them, and we have good hope for them, that God will put his Spirit within them, and that they may walk in his statutes, and keep his judgments and do them.
