

V. Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Diocesan, Domestic and Foreign Missions, Church of England.

The headquarters of this auxiliary is Toronto. They collect about $15,000, and have a department in the Canadian Church Magazine and Mission News. No report of distinct work.

European Woman's Missionary Societies.

I. Indian Female Normal School and Instruction Society.

2 Adelphi Terrace, London, W. C. Periodical: The Indian Female Evangelist; quarterly.

Fields and Force.—Bombay Presidency, 13 stations: Madras, 2; Northwest Provinces, 9; Orissa, 1; Punjab, 1. Missionaries and assistants, 63; native teachers and Bible women, 175; Zenanas visited, 1,333. Eight years ago the mission staff numbered 106, now 238; then there were 26 schools, now 66. Then, total under instruction 1,200; now 4,150. Medical treatment in 1888 given to 9,338 patients. In 1881 the income was $34,710. In 1888 it was $67,885.

II. Ladies' Society for Female Education in India and South Africa. (Free Church of Scotland.)

Offices of Free Church, Edinburgh. Periodical. Woman's Work in Heathen Lands; quarterly. J. and R. Parlane, Paisley, Edinburgh.

Fields and Force.—India and Africa. In India five principal stations, including Calcutta, are in Bengal; Western Indian includes the stations Bombay, Poona, Berar, and Jalna. Madras and Nagpore are centres with a variety of work. Africa includes Kaffraria, with Lovedale and other stations, Transkei and Natal.

The grand total of missionaries is 34, of which 13 are in Africa; native Christian agents number 181; total, 215. The pupils count 6,738, of which 1,758 are in Africa. Income, $44,065.

III. Church of England Zenana Missionary Society.

Office, 9 Salisbury Square, London. Periodical. India's Women (bi-monthly); Daybreak (for young people, quarterly). Jas. Nisbet & Co., 21 Berners St., London, W.

Fields and Forces.—India, China, Japan. Missionaries 103; assistants 57; Bible women 139; native teachers 368. Over 7,000 children in schools. Medical work also is carried on. This year the Society has commenced work in Ceylon for the first time. Income 1881, $68,300; 1888, $133,265.

IV. Women's Missionary Association of the Presbyterian Church of England.

President of General Committee. Mrs. H. M. Matheson, Heathlands, Hampstead, London,

N. W. Periodical: Our Sisters in Other Lands, 14 Paternoster Row, London.

Fields and Force.—China, Swatow, Formosa, Amoy, the Haka Country, Singapore, India, Rampore, Bauleah. No summary of statistics is available. They conduct boarding, day and Sunday-schools, and hospital work. Income, $3,755.

V. Central Committee and Church Woman's Association of the Scottish Episcopal Church.

Convener, Miss H. Mackenzie, 28 Nelson St., Edinburgh. Office of Association, 122 George St., Edinburgh. Periodical: The Mission Chronicle.

Fields.—South Africa and India. That in Africa was begun in 1873, and lies in Independent Kaffraria, a district about as large as Scotland; that of India is at Chamba, a distant part of the diocese of Calcutta. The present number of members co-operating with the committee is 3,680, and the annual subscription amounts to $1,925.

VI. Ladies' Association for the Christian Education of Jewish Females (Church of Scotland).

Secretary, Miss Tawse, 11 Royal Terrace, Edinburgh.

Fields.—They support schools in Smyrna, Salonica, Alexandria, Constantinople and Beyrout, with missionary ladies at each place, and a total of 16 assistant teachers.

VII. The London Bible and Domestic Female Mission.

Office, 2 Adelphi Terrace, Strand, London, W. C. Periodical: Bible Women and Nurses. Cassel & Co., London and New York.

Besides a large and most noble missionary work in the poorest parts of London, carried on through Bible women and Bible women nurses, this Society operates on some foreign fields, but we have no data of that part of its work.

VIII. British Syrian Mission Schools and Bible Work.

Corresponding Secretary, Miss Poulton, 18 Homesfield Road, Wimbledon, London. Periodical: Daughters of Syria. Seeley & Co., Essex St., Strand, London.

The mission originated to relieve the condition of the 20,000 widows and daughters of the Maronites and Greeks, whose husbands and fathers were massacred by the Druzes in 1860. The work has been extended and arrests general attention.

Fields and Force.—It operates at Beyrout, Damascus, Hasbeija, Mount Lebanon, Coele-Syria and Tyre. The Mount Lebanon department has 7 stations, making the total of stations 12; foreign workers 21; native workers 130; adherents 930; schools 29; scholars 2,779. The income is $1,120.