A CHILD'S FAITH.

IN a town in Holland there once lived a very poor widow. One night the children asked her in vain to give them bread, for she had none. The poor woman loved the Lord, and knew that He was good; so, with her little ones around her, she earnestly prayed to Him for food. On rising from her knees her eldest child, a boy about eight years of age, said softly: "Dear mother, we are told in the holy book that God supplied His prophet with food brought by the ravens." "Yes, my son," the mother answered; "but that was a very long time ago" "But, mother, what God has done once may He not do again? I will go and uncloise the door to let the birds fly in." Then dear little Dirk, in simple faith, threw the door wide open, so that the light of their lamp fell on the path outside. Soon afterward the burgomaster passed by, and noticing the light, paused, and thinking it strange, he entered the cottage, and inquired why they left the door open at night. The widow replied, smiling: "My dear little Dirk did it, sir, that ravens might fly in to bring bread to my hungry children." "Indeed!" cried the burgomaster, "then here's a raven my boy. Come to my home, and you shall see where bread may soon be had." So he quickly led the boy to his own house, and then sent him back with food that filled his humble home with joy. After supper little Dirk went to the open door, and looking up, he said; "Many thanks, good Lord;" then shut it fast again; for, though no birds had come, he knew that God had heard his mother's prayer, and sent this timely help.
