

For January 25th.

Prove the same by examples.

EXAMPLE 1st—EXODUS XXXIII. 18, 19. 2nd—PSALM XLII, 1, 2. 3rd—LXIII, 1, 2. 4th—LUKE I, 53.

For February 1st.

Prove that Christ died, not for himself, but for us sinners.

PROOF 1st—ISAIAH LIII, 5. 2nd—DANIEL IX, 26. 3rd—MATTHEW XX, 28. 4th—1st CORINTHIANS, XV, 3.

On this subject any apt and well-taught Sabbath Scholar will be able to find an uncommonly large number of passages in point. Here as in every instance where man's vital interests and salvation, the Word of God is most clear, specific, varied, and minute

For February 8th.

Prove the guilt and odiousness of lying.

PROOF 1st—DEUTERONOMY XIX, 16, 19. 2nd—PSALM CXX 3. 4. 3rd—PROVERBS X, 18. 4th—PROVERBS XIX, 9. 5th—JEREMIAH IX, 4, 5. 6th—REVELATION XXI, 8.

For February 15th.

Prove the same by examples.

While on this subject, it is of vastest moment that the Teacher should strive to impress on the scholar the conviction that what is called mental reservation, equivocation and all intent to deceive, though employing language which in some sense is true, are essentially false.

EXAMPLE 1st—JEREMIAH XXVIII, 15, 17. 2nd—ACTS V, 1, 11.

OUR JEWISH MISSION AT SALONICA.

We hope for some early fruits of our Missions recently established in Turkey. Indeed, already the fields seem in some parts white unto the harvest. Our missionary, Mr. Rosenberg, closes his interesting letter with the following appeal for supplying

THE WANT OF BIBLES IN YANNINA.

"I conclude with a piece of information I have just received from a Protestant Armenian, who, with another of his nation, has been carrying on business during the last three years at Yannina. This place contains about twelve thousand inhabitants, Jews, Greeks, and Mohammedans, all of whom speak the Greek language. Our Armenian brethren, during their stay in that place, have been endeavouring to promulgate the truth both by precept and example. But there is one thing which they told me, and which is most painful to a true Christian to hear, that there is no copy of the Scriptures to be had in the