GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY.—Rev. H. Pollard.

The clerical holidays are now over and church work is starting once more. Sunday-schools reassembled on September 1st, and the churches show not quite so many empty seats. Choir practices have commenced again, and plans for the winter are being discussed. Let us hope that the summer rest may have its fruit in more devoted efforts from laity and clergy. It is earnestly to be desired that a larger number of workers, both male and female, would offer their services to help on religious work. There has always been a cry of "not enough" helpers, and probably it will be heard through all time; but if everybody would do a little, how much good might be accomplished!

THE Quiet Day for Women will (D.V.) be held in Christ Church on Friday, September 20th, the Rev. E. P. Crawford, conductor. The programme will be similar to that of last year, and as soon as the subject of the address, etc., is received, it will be printed and distributed for the use of those who desire to take part therein.

The Rt. Rev. Leighton Coleman, Bishop of Delaware, has kindly consented to preach on "The Religious Education of our Children" on Sunday, September 29th, in Christ Church and St. Alban's.

THE monthly meetings of the Girls' Friendly Society, which were not held during July and August, will now be continued. The first meeting of the season will take place (D.V.) on the 5th of September, at 8 p.m., in St. George's schoolroom, and on each successive first Thursday in each month.

AMONG those who passed successfully the Entrance Examination for the Collegiate Institute were two pupils of the Sisters' school: Miss Sarah Dalton and Miss Norah Shaw. This school will reopen on the 3rd of September, at 448 Albert street.

ANGLESEA SQUARE.—The house which was built by public subscription for the blind man Johnson is now complete and occupied. It is a very neat structure and roomy, making a suitable home for the aged couple, who are very grateful to all those who kindly contributed. A small balance of about $30 is still required to pay off all liabilities. In addition to those already acknowledged, the following have been received: Mr. J. J. Codville, $2; T. C. Bate, $2; M. Rogers, $1; and W. C. Bangs, $5.

ANGLESEA SQUARE MISSION HALL.—The company of the Boys' Brigade in connection with the mission hall has been drilling steadily all through the summer under the able instruction of Mr. I. Hickman and J. Wilson. The boys showed much smartness in marching, and will present a very creditable appearance in their uniforms, which are expected shortly. A Brigade Bible class is held every Sunday morning in the basement of St. John's Church, and is well attended.

THE Provincial Synod of Canada meets in Montreal on Wednesday, September 11th. Divine service will be held in the cathedral at 10.30 a.m. The Ven. Archdeacon Roe will be the preacher. At 2.30 p.m., the members of the synod will meet in St. George's schoolhouse. The synod consists of twelve clerical and twelve lay delegates from each of the dioceses of Eastern Canada, and meets every three years, the session usually lasting ten days. On Friday,
